Rhonda

Miss Book Worm,

Well, it was nice of you to come back here just to have me sign your yearbook. Are you sure you want a non-straight A student (unlike yourself - Oh my God! I can't believe it!) to sign this encyclopedia or dictionary. I hope you enjoy life in the southern tip of Les Etats-Unis. Don't get sunburned. Watch out for sharks and sea horses. Don't get shot in Dist. and I hope you have good luck as you travel bannister of life in case I don't see you again. You need a Southern accent. Can you whistle a great kid. Stay that way. Hope to see

ADMINISTRATION

(Lieutenant Heise and Kozel are seen busily pacing the floor awaiting the arrival of Captain Kent. Suddenly Captain Kent bursts thru the door.)

Lieutenant Heise, could I see you in my office please. You are so right, we need a few more walkie talkie communicators. What was that again? You say we might need more funds? Money is no problem. Wealth is just a fixation of time. If we are in need of more walkie talkie units then we will have more. (Lieutenant Kozel calls Captain Kent over the advanced communicators). Yes Lieutenant Kozel, we will be there in a moment, yes, I understand, there is no room in this school for an Evans Trojan. We will be right there to question him. (They enter into the main office and gaze in astonishment at the young Trojan). How did he break thru our defense? Oh, I see, first he came as a Colonial Grenadier and walked in, huh? We have to tighten our defensive measures. What do you mean you couldn't help it? How did he get in without the password? What type of a teacher did he claim to be? A PROFESSOR! In High School?

Carol, how do you think the sun would look over the tree, next to the smallest star on the right hand corner. What do you mean there are no stars when the sun is out? But Patty, the stars are always out, it is just that you can't see them during the day. Ah yes, but do I ever say anything critical about your paintings? When? Yesterday doesn't count, I was just in a bad mood! Roger, (A guy lifts his head up from sleeping on the table) Roger, am I in a bad mood today? Oh, I understand, I will never disturb you from your rest again. Sorry. Well I still say that I am not in ... (another student walks in) I'm just about done. Oh, wait a minute, what do you think of a sun right here over the trees next to that little star, Scott? What was that you said? Put a full moon there instead? Yeah, I was going to put a full moon there the whole time.

AUTO MECHANICS

(It takes a unique mind to understand the wires, gadgets, and the doodads of one of the greatest inventions of all time. The automobile. Here at Colonial we take you to our newest facility, the Auto Mechanics Building.)

A Bus?!?! We are going to be required to fix this for a grade? (A look of despair sweeps over his face.) Wow, what a challenge. (The student walks away from the instructor and approaches some friends nearby.) Hey guys, get a load of what we're gonna be doing next. (Students turn and are stunned at what they see.) Now that is a great idea, but I don't think that they would let us take such a drastic step, such as totalling it! (Another student approaches excitedly.) Yeah, Bob, we all saw what we're gonna be doing for the rest of the semester. Soup it up? The bus? Hey, you're right, we could make this the fastest bus in the county. We could jack it up, put a few mags on, maybe a C.B. radio too. (Instructor approaches.) What? The bus needs to be started right away? Sure, let's get moving!

BUSINESS EDUCATION

(Did you ever wonder why folks always emphasize the boring typing when Business Education comes around? Why not consider the good ole fashioned form of finger twisting shorthand? Why not take a quick look at a particular someone making squiggly lines all over a little pad? Why not?)

It sure is hard to believe it is the first day of school. Goodness MaryJane, come get a load of this stuff. You sure are right, it is confusing. I can't begin to make heads or tails out of this. Look, this looks like it might resemble an "I" and these two things stuck together look like ... (a student named Anna walks up). What do you suppose this little riggle of a line could be? Lasagna Noodles?!?! You're not kidding, you must be starved. (A girl sticks her head into the class at the door and asks a simple question) This, the typing class? This is Shorthand. Get a load of this. What do you mean, they're just a bunch of lines?

DISTRIBUTIVE EDUCATION

(Many students at Colonial ponder upon the thought of whether or not to take on the responsibility of a job while attending school. The DECA program here at Colonial is popular among the student body. We are going to take you to a class and show you just what we are talking about.)

Well how many manequins do you want? Wait a minute. Hey Joe, do you know anything about the fake people for DECA? Did they order it or didn't they? I don't know what is going on, you tell me. I'll straighten this out! One more time. How many manequins do you need? What do you mean, how many do we have? Well, will 10 of the manequins be enough? Great, you are so positively sure, I can tell. (A girl named Kim walks up.) Well just tell the guy in the truck to hold his jets, we will have the stiff people ready in just a minute. (The guy named Joe comes in.) You found the order? Super! Tell me, when did you ever hear of DECA needing manequins? Oh, yeah, for fashion shows. (We take you now to the actual fashion show.) Boy, everyone is excited today about the show. You are so right. These past 3 weeks of hard work have been worth it. What was that you said? Oh, most definitely. If it weren't for the manequins and the clothes from area businesses, this Fashion Show probably would not have gotten off the ground.

Hopefully I will make it through the day without biting my nails off. Yesterday Tony thought he was at the Daytona 500!

Well I better get started with the unexperienced driver . . . What do you mean which brake do you use?

Watch out for the other students on the bleachers! Whew, that was close. Women drivers! Do I dare have her drive through the figure eight?

FOREIGN LANGUAGE

(Bob and Vince are standing in the lunch line listening to a group of students speaking Spanish. Bob and Vince continue their conversation.)

Vince what did he just ask me? . . . if he could pass me in the line? Yeah, it would be kinda fun learning to speak another language. Just think of all the things you could do knowing a second language.

Have you ever seen the people in the French or Spanish club, wearing tee-shirts with messages on them? "Merci Dieu C'est Vendredi" means Thank God It's Friday in French.

Foreign language classes actually study the culture and people of the different countries. Did you know that the English language is derived from Latin? Of course there's always German, if you can learn to role the r's with your tongue! You never know, later in life you may be in a foreign country and want to decipher what they are saying to you!!!

Tina, you only made 2 A's this 9 weeks? Yea? Guys can sometimes tend to make us think about that big Friday night instead of class work! You ought to make an appointment with your guidance counselor to see what else made your grades go down. While your at it, ask for help concerning your future plans for college.

Last semester my counselor told me what college was like and what to look forward to. Then she helped me to cope with my little sister who was charming my boyfriends and ruining my life! They really help a lot here at school. One time Pete was scheduled for a two hour child care class and Carol had auto mechanics. But of course their counselors fixed all that. Follow me, its irresistable. Wow! It's the Home Ec. class! Spaghetti, pizza, homemade bread, and apple pie for dessert!!! There's even homemade tablecloths designed and sewed by the Home Ec. classes. Oh no ... here comes Mrs. Bozeman! "Hey, what's cookin'?" "Wait for me!"

I heard woodworking has more safety measures and precautions than any other class. What do they consist of? The ten basic steps to avoid hammering your thumb? (Two people sit on a ledge near the gym, during their lunch period, and begin to discuss the Colonial High School Grenadier Court Yard.)

The Courtyard sure does look good. I wonder what we would do without the Landscaping class? That's for sure, the whole place would look upside down. We wouldn't have anyone to till the soil, replace old plants with new plants, and pull unwanted weeds. They really do alot. Hey did you ever walk back behind the gym and see a plaque mounted on a big pile of stones before? You haven't? Well, . . . let's go out back and look at it. (The young girl and guy, go to the tennis courts area.) Look, there it is. Isn't it beautiful? I remember when I was in tenth grade coming out here to look at it. That newer set of tennis courts were not there, and all you could see all around it were wonderful trees, and bushes, and grass. It was just great! And Landscaping did such an excellent job in keeping the garden looking simply magnificent! You know, without Landscaping, we'd have a pretty ordinary school.

LIBRARY

(There you are, squirming in your seat, making your history teacher very upset! You just can't sit still! You must escape the library!)

Imagine yourself running towards the card catalog. As soon as you open the drawer, the cards are practically jumping out at you. Read me first! I'll teach you how to disco! Hey, over here! I'm better. Don't you want to be successful . . . ? Listen, that report for your English class is due in 2 days! I'm a great 50 page book, with 40 color illustrations!

Enough of that! I'm a great research computer! You do want to have a career and go to college, don't you? I'll give you all kinds of information and facts on any college. As you approach the shelves, the mumbling voices of the authors are spilling out the contents of their books . . . "Adventures, travel, arts and crafts, history, music, technology, religion, philosophy and generalities. The saxophone is playing "Le Freak." The girl on the piano is pounding on the ivory keys, playing "Do You Think I Am Sexy?" The guitarist is strumming "Keep on Rocking Me Baby" and the Colonial drum beat is vibrating through the whole room. Piercing notes are floating from the flute and the clarinet player is still looking for her sheet music.

"Hey Come Together!" we need to think of a macho song to do and I'm not "Jive Talkin'." Hey Mr. Potter, why don't we play "Night Fever" at our Friday night football game?" You Took The Words Right Out Of My Mouth!" O.K. let's hit it! "Hold the Line" on the second measure and "Turn the Beat Around". Now we are "Stayin' Alive." Ah, my friends, if only we can get our Chorus to sing, we will be on our way to stardom, "The Stairway to Heaven."

This doesn't make any sense to me whatsoever! How does he expect us to work this problem? I'd rather be in General Math learning how to budget my money, if that's possible! Or how to keep my checks from bouncing all over the state! I could even figure out my own loans and interest and find out how many miles I can travel at 70 mph in 5 minutes. PHYSICAL EDUCATION

(The tardy bell rang a few minutes ago. In the girls locker room they are drifting outside for roll call.)

Cindy, hurry up and get dressed so we can check up on the new student Ken in our P.E. class. I heard he was really great in sports activities. We'll have to participate in everything. Volleyball, softball, basketball, flag football, and gymnastics. This is our only chance to show off.

(Later, after class in the girls locker room ...)

"I can see him hanging on the chinup bars and with each count he says, I love her, I love her not, I love her, I love her not. And oh! All those weights on the universal. He'll lift tons of weight to break the record here at Colonial High! Wait till we hit the track! I'll turn him into Bruce Jenner as I chase him! SPECIAL EDUCATION

(We interrupt our regularly scheduled program to bring you to a special meeting on CHS newflash.)

As the wheel of time continues to turn, each day is a new learning experience. Our being able to communicate, help, and teach special students is a tribute to our life's advanced education and technology. Communicating with those who were unable to hear, speak, see, or walk used to be a dream beyond dreams. A special kind of fulfillment and joy spreads through the hearts of those who come in contact with these wonderful people.

Colonial is one of the very few schools in Orange County who have facilities for special education students. Not many schools are built entirely on the ground like Colonial. Therefore not all schools are as privileged as we are.

Unique and gifted people teach these students skills which will prove useful to them during their lifetime.

I hope that in the near future, all schools will be able to provide the proper facilities for all students who have special education needs.

Rick: What a mess!

scene 19 STAFF

("Did you ever wonder, how, the trash on the patio, mysteriously disappears, after hurricane garbage, at lunch? Maintenance! Who else would take time out to clean the school? Don't look now, but lunch is over.")

Well Jim, it's that time again, 10 till 11 o'clock. Whereabouts do you think we should start? What? You've never seen so much garbage before? Oh, I have. Yesterday. All I can say is, I would rather do those "Hurricanes" anyday, compared to the poor lunch room staff. Can you imagine all the dishes, the leftover food, and all that hassle!!!

scene 20 SCIENCE

("Experiments, experiments, experiments, when will it all come to an end? Science and labs seem to naturally go together. Let's take a peek at an average experiment.")

Carol!! it's a frog!! NO! keep it away from me! Mike, if you get near me with that thing, I will get upset. Oh, please, I don't think I'll be able to breath near that thing; let alone touch it. (Teacher instructs the students to work in pairs.) Oh, wonderful, I get to chose a partner. Perrfectt, David, yoo-hoo David, I have a favor to ask of you. Do you anything about these big, slimy, reptile things called frogs?

Earnest: Lets examine the organisms . . . 'oops I think they all died.

scene 21

OFFICE STAFF

(As the doors of the office are pushed open, the noisy bustle from within explodes into your ears.)

Ring a ling a ding. Peck, peck, pecka pecka, peck peck, ding! Please stand for the National Anthem, announces Allie Pope. Hello?! Yes Mrs. Corpalmeyer . . . Judy will be absent today? O.K., thank you very much and have a nice day. Mr. Glaize wants to see these 15 students immediatly. Imagine how time flies when your'e working in the office. Without our secretarial staff, the forms would pile up, phones continuously ringing, and nothing would be accomplished.

scene 22 SOCIAL STUDIES

("Who would ever believe the fact, that psychology is included in the social studies department? With all of the strange and wild happenings that occur here at school and in everyday life, our amatuer pschologists, find enough things to keep them in superb mental shape.")

What in the world? That is a typical case of nuerotic disorder. I have never seen anyone have such a spasm! My goodness. Sherri, can you believe it, that person is jumping up and down on the table. I wonder what he is saying? What? Get Fired Up?! Really, I have never witnessed such an incident either, he'll surely need the straight jacket!!!

WORK EXPERIENCE

("This organization is truly wonderful. Under the close observation of Mr. Irwin and Mr. George, these students receive a grade for working. With so many programs for students who want to get out of school early and work, it is remarkable that there are people who complain that school is a so called "prison".)

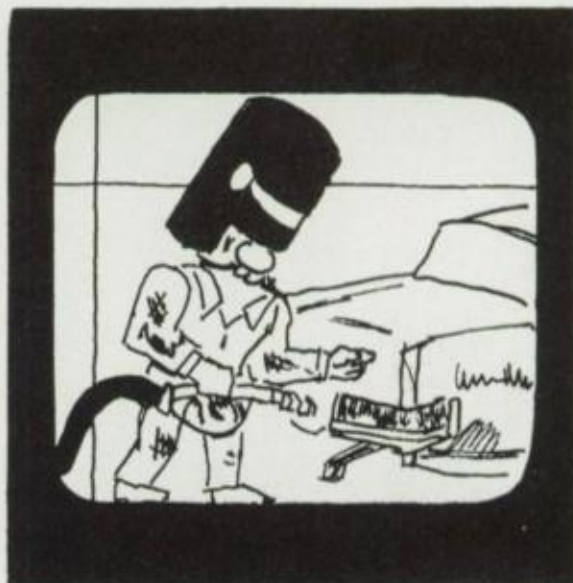

Hey Harold, did Mr. Irwin or Mr. George come out to your job and give you a grade? They didn't? They did me. And believe it or not I received a high "B". There is no way I could have gotten an "A", I have only been on the job for two weeks.

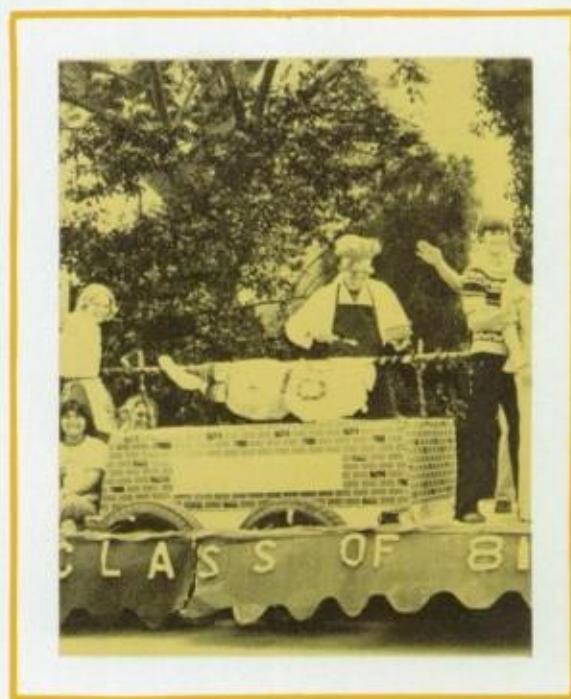

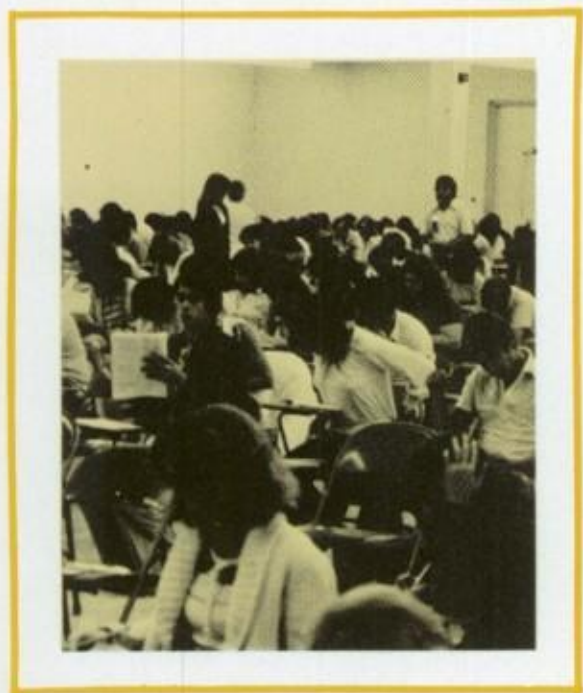

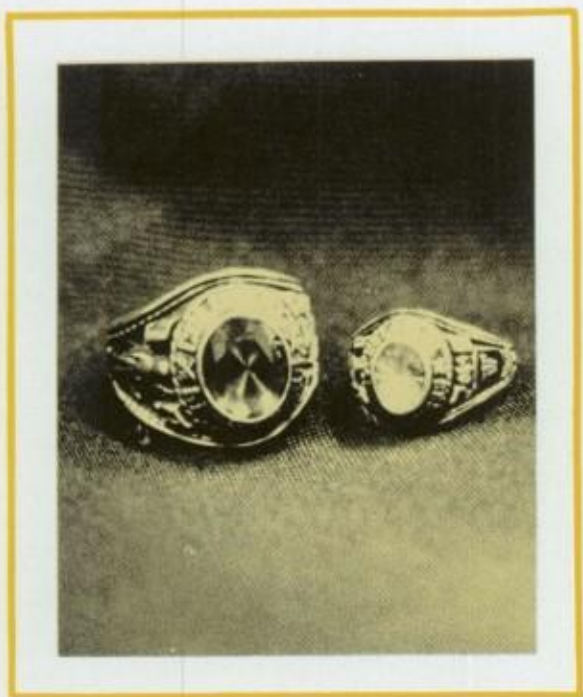

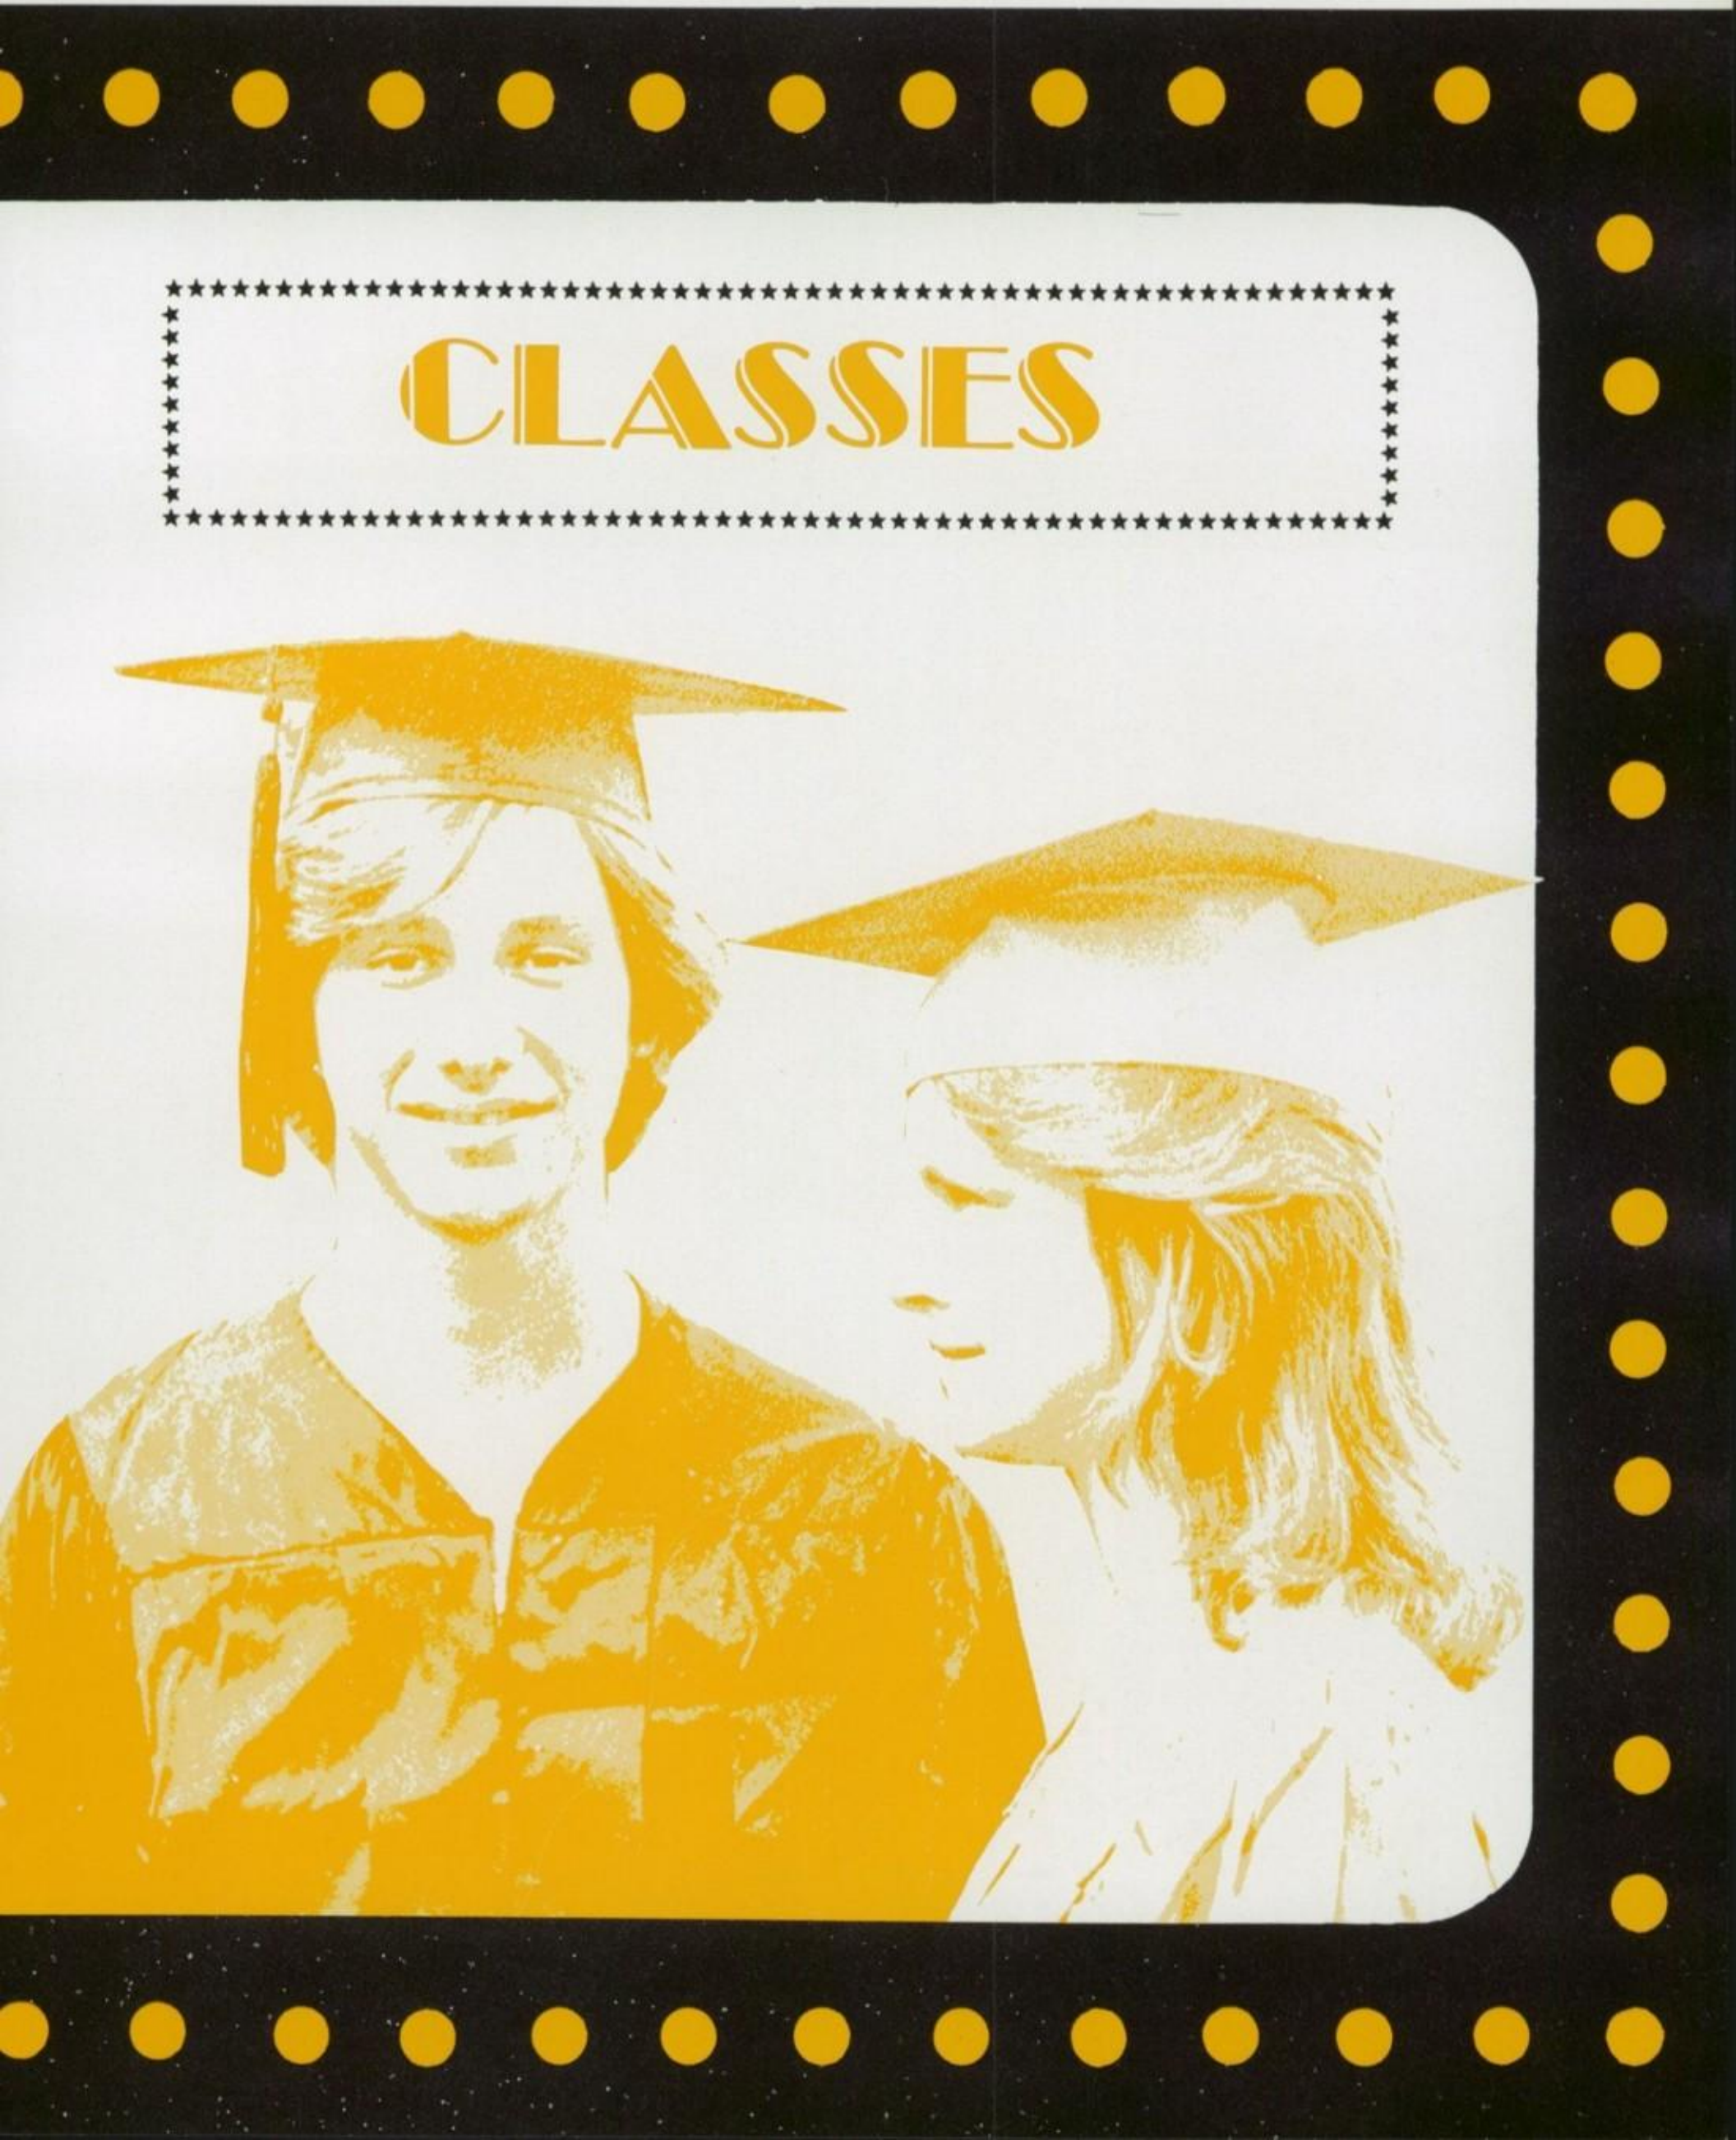

Terri: What are you laughing at, we're going to bomb this test!

Daren: Shut-up and keep writing.

In Memory Of

Ronda Sichler

Vivid memories of her sunny smile, golden hair, and eyes of courage, reflected her future.

Rushing traffic, laughing children, screaming football fans, and no one pauses to realize this tragic moment in a young girl's life.

Life is the beginning of death; death in the awakening of a dream that was all so real, yet so far away.
It's the natural way of life that we all must face.

Her love and soul will be dedicated to her new beginning.
We shall remember and never forget her last words of death,
"I am not afraid to die."

(As we glimpse into the S.C. Banquet, we spot the Student Council Officers speaking reminiscently.)

As the 1979 year comes to a close, we look back. Whoever you may be, whatever you may have done, the Student Council has touched all of you.

On the very first day we guided the sophomores, and led the Student Body into a dance. Then we brought giving and sharing thru the holiday season. As the new year dawned, new ideas arose. More dances, more sales, more community improvements, more life long memories that will follow us well after we graduate into a new life.

("There is a group of young creative writers headed by Mrs. Fagin, called REACH. Each year Reach puts out 5 issues of literary booklets. They collect poems and stories, from the student body. We take you now to their workshop.")

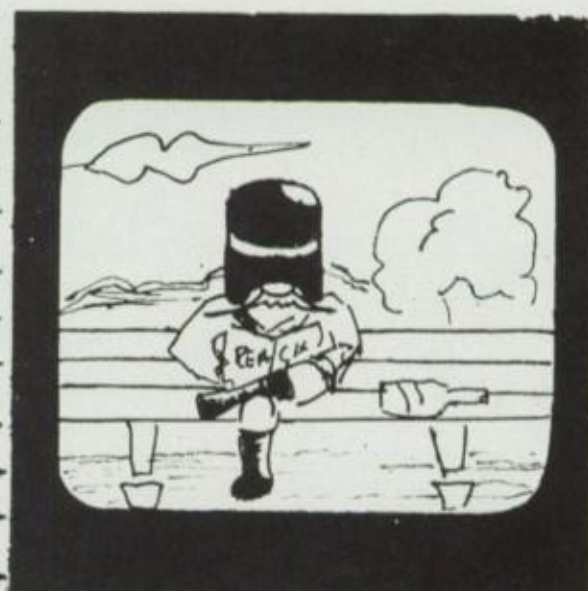

Mrs. Fagin, I have to go to the bathroom! I know this is the deadline day, I'm almost finished. I only have 63 more stories to read. If I'd known it was going to be the month for love poems, I would have started weeks ago! I can't wait until tomorrow when we go from class to class selling this issue of Reach. It sure is one of our best, but then again, all of our issues are the best.

("Two students look into room 68, the fourth period yearbook class instructed by Mr. Klingmeyer. They are amazed at the number of people working diligently. They begin to whisper.")

Gosh Kim! I always thought yearbook classes were goof-off classes, huh? Oh yea, for sure! That's what I thought, but they sure don't look like they're just twiddling their thumbs to me. Just look at that, they're all doing something. (She points vaguely at a table inside the room.) Look at that table over there, it's smothered with pictures, they're all smothered with pictures. Oh wait! Sssh, be quiet. Someones walking over here. (Sentry editor Elaine approaches the two girls.) Uh, who? Us? Oh yea, you can help me. I just need to get some photographs. Uh, huh. By the way, do they work like that all the time?

scene 27

("As we look into the bustling newspaper room of Colonial, we catch someone yelling "STOP THE PRESSES!" Another great article is to be born.")

Hey, Griff, what happened? How did it happen? I see, you were hit, sat on, and stomped over, but why? You went through all that to get a story. Is it good? You don't know?! (He snatches the paper). Let me see this. U-huh . . . u-huh . . . u-huh! O.K.! Print it!! It is nice to have such dedication on the staff.

Hey, what's the scoop on the comic strips?!

(It's halftime on a chilly October night. Our Colonial Band marches proudly onto the R.E. Jennings football field. As they take their position on the field, the crowd cheers them.)

Strike up the band and cheer Colonial! What would a football game be like without our great band? Onward to victory. Without our band to promote school spirit things would be pretty boring. Give a rah, rah, rah, to the boys who play. Under the leadership of Mr. Potter, this years' band was better than ever. And a sis, boom, bah, to send us on our way. Strike up the band and cheer Colonial . . . Each year the local high school bands come together in head to head competition. Give us a do or die, Colonial proved superb talent, as they were designated superior ratings. When the game's all done and the victory is won, To you the Colonial High School Band, what would we do without you? We'll sing out Colonial, shout out Colonial, sing out Colonial High!!!

("Did you ever wonder how members of the Choral Society keep their sanity, after staring at notes most of the day? Here is how!")

David, how do you say calm in front of all those people? I get the weebie jeebies just thinking about it! You do what? Oh, I see, just imagine that they're not there, and that you're at practice, (a girl walks up). Oh, hi Teri, what? Your head is spinning notes and music? Same here. I think the only way to get rid of that is to just take a break and rest.

ACT 2

scene. 34

(The Act II Players here at Colonial, are a tribute to our school. Their dramatic talent, make them one of the most recognized groups in the state.)

Hey Mary, tonight is opening night of Count Dracula, are you going? You are, have you bought your ticket yet? It sounds like it's going to be a real sell-out. What's that Karen, am I going? Yeah, but not tonight. What do you mean, you hope it's good? Have you ever seen an Act II play that wasn't? They have ben practicing for weeks. They were really choosy when selecting the cast. The crew also spent alot of hours working to fix the stage for the right setting. I can't wait to see it, maybe I will go tonight after all.

OH! You do have manners! you are very nice and intelligent! May God Bless you!

Diane, are you coming to the fiesta on Thursday? You are!? Super! I'm glad we've got the Dimensions of Sound to sing there, and entertainment! How we ever managed to get the machete dancers, I'll never know. What an asset! Hey Caroline, what is your favorite part of the fiesta? That is mine too! The food is always the best!!

Oh, wow! Muy bien! Gracias. This is the happiest day of my life. I MADE IT! I MADE IT! Spanish Honor Society here I come. I worked hard for this honor. I attended all the Spanish fiestas. Ate all kinds of Spanish food, danced around a sombrero, and made A's on my tests. It really wasn't too hard. My parent's will be so proud of me. All that talking in Spanish around the house that drove them bananas, it was really worth it.

They had all sorts of activities, such as trips, international goodies night, car washes, etc . . . I sure hope that in the near future, Colonial will have the privilege of having more students from other countries.

The National Forensic League of Colonial High School, has been quite busy this year. Between traveling from different debates, and tournaments, they managed to put together a project of license plate sales. Each license plate said Grenadier Country with a Grenadier figure head, done in red and white. They were extremely limited editions since they only sell them every four years.

The NFL also sponsored a Student Congress this year, which is another tribute to Colonial's high intellectual capacity.

Where is the National Honor Society "munch out" going to be held at this time? Oh, wait, is it going to be the same place we went to last time? That was a nice place, wasn't it? I think the more students we top, the more mandatory it becomes to get a larger room. With our luck, our National Honor Society luncheons, will end up with the good ole Colonial style food, at the Colonial cafeteria. Do you think that keeping our grades high and selling all that candy is worth it? I guess that being one of the elite does have it's responsibilities.

(A girl hovers over a green foliage, and discusses her minor problems.)

"Lily you sure aren't looking to good today. What the matter? Is the weather getting you down? Your leaves are even drooping!"

Do you find yourself talking to your plants? Well join the club. Horticulture is the art of growing plants, fruits, and vegetables. Our club actually plans and designs Colonials landscaping. Without them we would have weeds growing around campus.

The flowers and foliage make the outdoor halls look alive and fresh for starting a new school day.

Now, tomorrow is the tricycle race. We want to win, don't we? Yes, we do. Alex, how is the main vehicle coming along? What? A flat tire!?! Well can it be fixed? We need it for tomorrow! Without a tricycle we will be unable to win the race. Well I sure hope you have it fixed by tomorrow after school, because if not . . . we'll lose the race. If it takes you all night, it will be all night! Right? right. Now let's get on with others matters at hand. (The day of the race.) Come on go faster, faster, faster, over . . . the . . . line . . . We did it! We won the race! This proves the fact that the Exchange club is on the move!

The spanning interest of new scientific breakthroughs, established a need for the science club which we all know so well.

Whew, that sure was a rough speech! Huh, well the Science Club is very active with science fairs, and with other things we stay busy.

(P-A-R-T-Y, the typical motto of the Civitan Club. This is what we mean.)

You know Debi, all this football and swimming is really making me tired. I think I will go check out the cook and see how he's doing. (She walks over to a guy slaving over a grill, making hamburgers.) How is the good coming along? Almost done? Super, I am starved! How much longer? Only fifteen more minutes. Well I think I can hold a little bit longer. Boy, Mr. Barksdale sure has a nice home.

Paul: You're out of line mister.

Eneida: Somebody took my chair.

Hey Patty, what time are all of you going to get wood this weekend for the Homecoming Bonfire? Around 10:00 A.M.? Saturday? When is the bonfire anyway? November 2? That is next week! Well, how much wood do you think we'll need for a good bonfire? Three times more than what we have now? Yikes! We had better get busy. How many loads do you think we'll get from that location? A pretty good amount huh? O.k. well, let's see if we can get ahold of a supply somewhere.

Well, I've really got to be going. But I think if we all get a few more loads of wood from other locations we'll have a pretty good size fire. See ya! (Thursday night comes along, the night of the Bonfire.) Thanks to us, the Key Club members, we made this bonfire one of the greatest in Colonials' Homecoming History!

(Looking on the patio, we see two girls discussing school news.)

Are you in FCA, Laura? You don't know what it is? If you'd like, I could tell you about it? O.K. Well, FCA stands for "Fellowship of Christian Athletes". No, you don't have to be an athlete to join, you just have to be interested in people. Activities? Oh, all the time. We've had meetings practically every week, and are always welcoming new members. I think FCA is one of the most outstanding clubs in the school. Oh, it never gets boring, because there is always something new going on. Like what? Well, let's see, we've had many guest speakers, cookouts, and we have even had visits from Captain Nemo.

I couldn't help but feel good inside after each meeting because not only do you get closer to people, you get closer to God. When's the next meeting? Tonight.

scene 59

(As we glimpse into one of the Biology halls we see two students talking in front of Mr. Holt's room.)

Hey Scott, where does Campus Life meet on Monday nights? Huh? They don't meet? Oh, I see, they don't meet at school. Where do they meet if they don't meet on campus? Your kidding? That's great! I never thought of having meetings in someones' home. That really must be something special. Without the atmosphere of school around you. Getting a more meaningful feeling of friendship with the other members sounds so much easier.

Mrs. Branchini! Will you do me a favor, and pass a couple of those silver stars to me? Huh? Oh yea, please! Thanks alot. It sure was nice to get the gym this year, it is so much larger than the Grenadier Playhouse.

I wonder what time the D.J. is coming? Oh, sometime between five and six. I sure hope that will be early enough. He has all that equipment to set up. Hey Laverne, will you pass me a few more of those stars? Thanks. Well, this is about it. Now all we have to do is wait for the dance tomorrow night, the big night . . .

I really ought to be getting home soon. So, I guess I'll see you all later. This sure is going to be a great Homecoming Dance!

(Two people sit in the school library, at a table and begin to whisper.)

Hey John, did you know that to be in Interact Club you have to receive an invitation? I didn't either. Can you imagine? Now that is class. I think they are the only ones in the school who do that.

What? I don't know. But I do know that they are a very particular, private service club. Do they help any? Oh, for sure. I would just love to receive one of those invitations to join too!

OPENING WEEK

("Here it is, the first day of school. For most, it is returning to a familiar setting. Then again for others, it is a whole new world.")

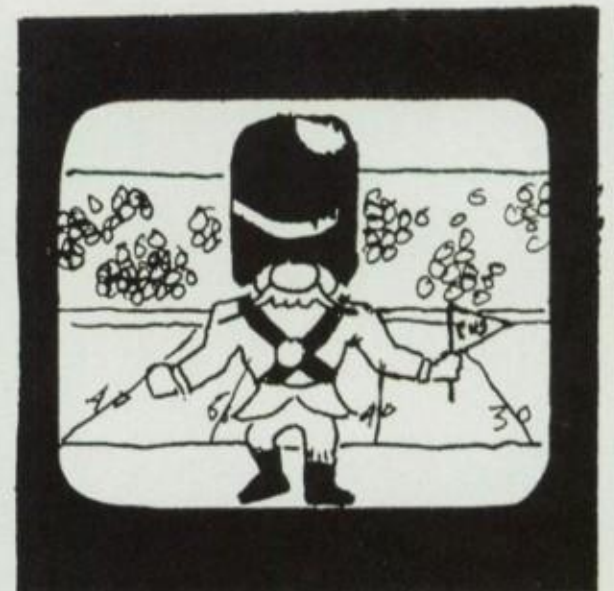

"Hey, Sherri, can you believe the size of this school? It's a monster! Are you kidding? This place is five times the size of our old junior high. I don't even know where to go. If we could only find someone who knows where things are. Wait, that person there looks like a senior. Let's ask him. Excuse me. By any chance do you know where room 56 is. What is that again? Go to the main office, go straight to the patio, and turn right. Uh-huh, then continue going straight to the ditch. (They follow the instructions and come to the Junior Parking Lot) I don't understand, I can't see anything but cars!!!!"

NIGHT LIFE

(Did you ever dream of sinking your teeth into hot delicious food, seasoned just right? Well, keep dreaming, because you're not the only one who feels that CHS food, compared to Mom's home cooking, leaves much to be desired. Here is what we mean:)

I can't do anything about it, Kirk, here at Colonial Cafe, they don't serve gourmet food. Now, calling it a leftovers paradise, is not going to help. Like I told you all before, they don't serve duck. Well, the closest thing you will get to duck here is chicken tetrazini. Now, Ken, I don't even know what it is. I don't cook the stuff; that's just what they call it. Fred is that all you are having for lunch is M&M's, brownies, Snickers, Twinkies, nacho cheese Doritos . . . Mr. Kidwell, oh, Mr. Kidwell, yoo-hoo Mr. Assistant Principal. Ah here we are. Get a load of the nutritional balance here at this table. What do you mean, everybody eats like this?

Chuck: Tracy, I found my Cinderella!

Michelle: It's my diet or my job.

Julie: You scratch my back and I'll scratch yours.

Mr. Whitlaw: Howdy folks!

Wow, isn't this exciting!

Who will rule?

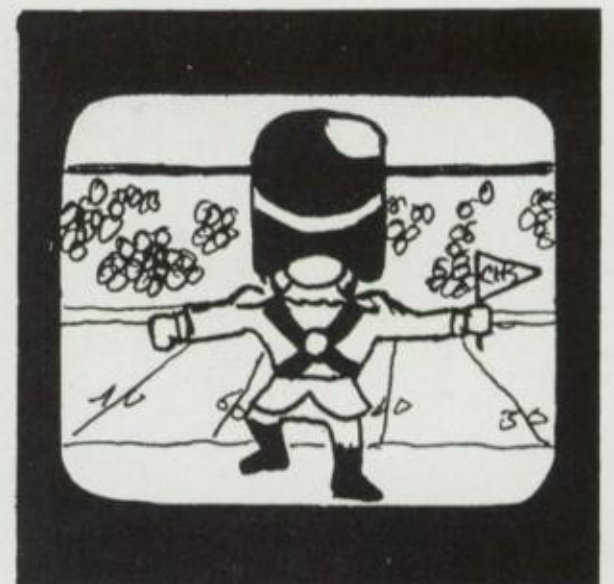

Hey mister, my finger is stuck in this hole!

scene 5 ASSEMBLIES

(It's the Thanksgiving Assembly, and prizes for the food baskets are about to be given. Two people are talking in the bleachers.)

Look at all of that food! Look at that far one over there, it looks like . . . it looks like an old fashioned covered wagon. It is an old fashioned covered wagon. It is just packed with different kinds of edible goodies. What? Where? It's a microwave oven. That's a neat idea. Oh wait they're about to announce the winners. (Someone approaches the podium) It's Chorus!! Chorus just won the most food award. Oh, that's great! I kinda figured they'd get it. They have all of those people in their class, and if all of them were to bring in a can of food each, they could feed twelve families! Oh, hold it, they are about to announce the best decorated basket, this is sure going to be rough. Coach Clark has won! He was the one who had the covered wagon. He must have some first period class. (bell rings) Well, that's the end of that . . . let's go to LUNCH!!

Come on people, toot your horns.

First prize goes to Choral Society for biggest box.

All aboard!

I see you are interested in our fine, sweet, merchandise. Would you like to buy a lollipop? They're only fifteen c-e-n-t-s. Oh come on, you can afford a little bitty fifteen cents for a little bitty lollipop, can't you? What? You only have enough for lunch you say? Well . . . skip lunch! Just this once. Now just, wouldn't you rather have a juicy, sweet, teeth rotting lollipop?! Well, o.k. then, just forget it. This money isn't for me you know. It is to help fix up our school. What? You'll buy one? Great! You'll never regret it, because you made a very wise choice.

scene 9 JR. TESTING

("Two girls arrive at the location for the Junior Assessment Testing.")

I can't believe we finally made it. We are actually here.

Karen, can you imagine what education must have been like to people back in the old days? Back in those days, people must have thought of education as a special privilege. And college! Can you just imagine what they thought of college? Absolute dream! Probably very few had the money to send their children to some great big school! (They both walk into the building and continue their conversation.) Oh I know, nowadays, everybody thinks of school as a prison. Yea, or a big chore. Un huh, . . . how many friends do you know, actually want to come to school everyday, to learn Math and English in a classroom? Now, you have to be tested to see if you learn anything in school. And you know what, I'm kind of glad they do.

Pedro: I'm a picking and we're a grinning!

Mr. Ashford: As I said, Number One.

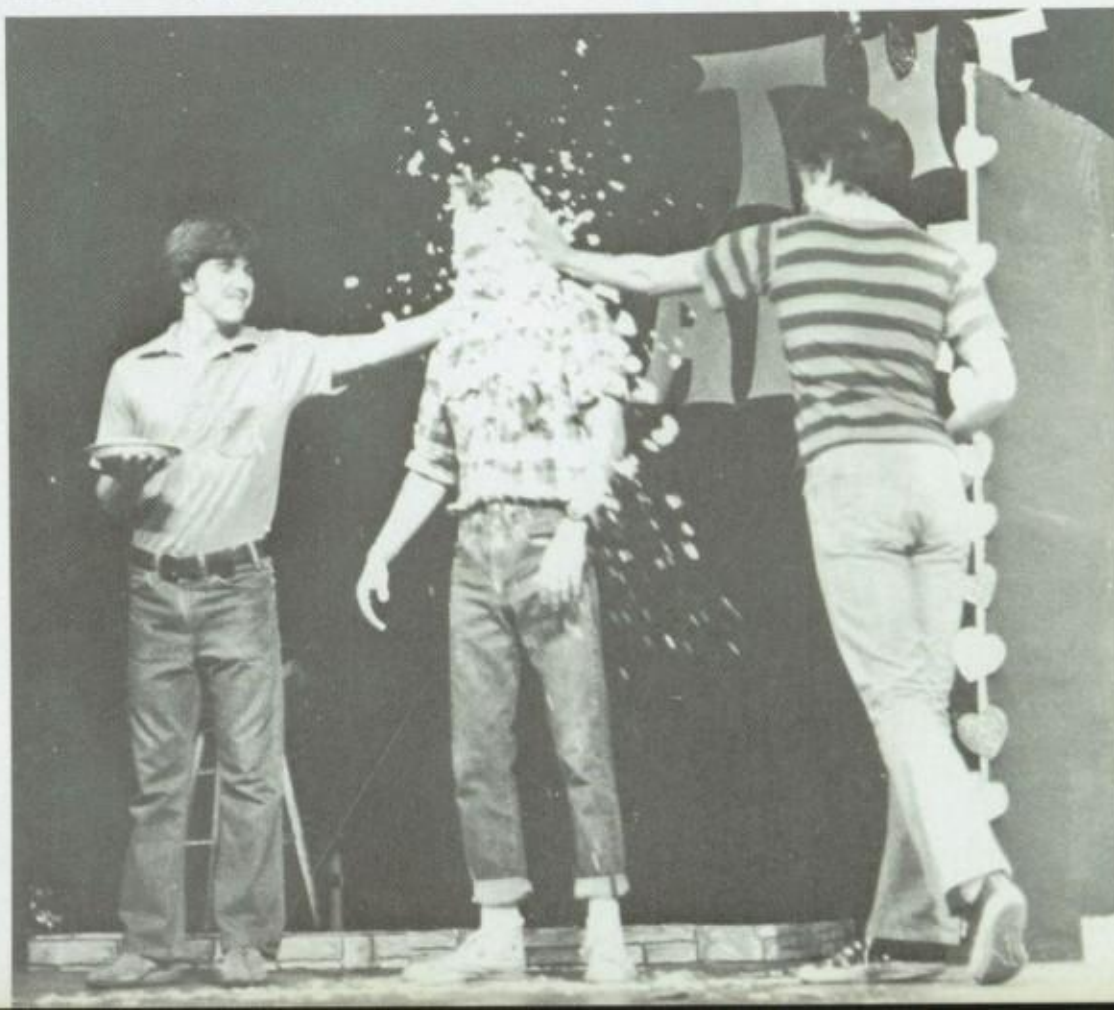

Mike: These girls won't leave me alone.

Paul: Technically speaking, SHUT UP!

Hey, Diane, have you ever noticed all of the twins we have here at school? I bet there are over 15 sets of twins here at Colonial. How many schools come complete with a set of triplets too? I don't know, but I wonder what it would be like.

Hey Jan, I hear you have a date tonight with a twin. I hope you don't end up with the wrong one.

Oh, what did you say Brian? You wish you were a twin? I think I would too, I think. Think of the advantages. What would it be like if we were both from a set of twins. Can you just imagine the fun we could have?

PEP RALLIES

("We walk into the gym and hear the CHS band pounding away!")

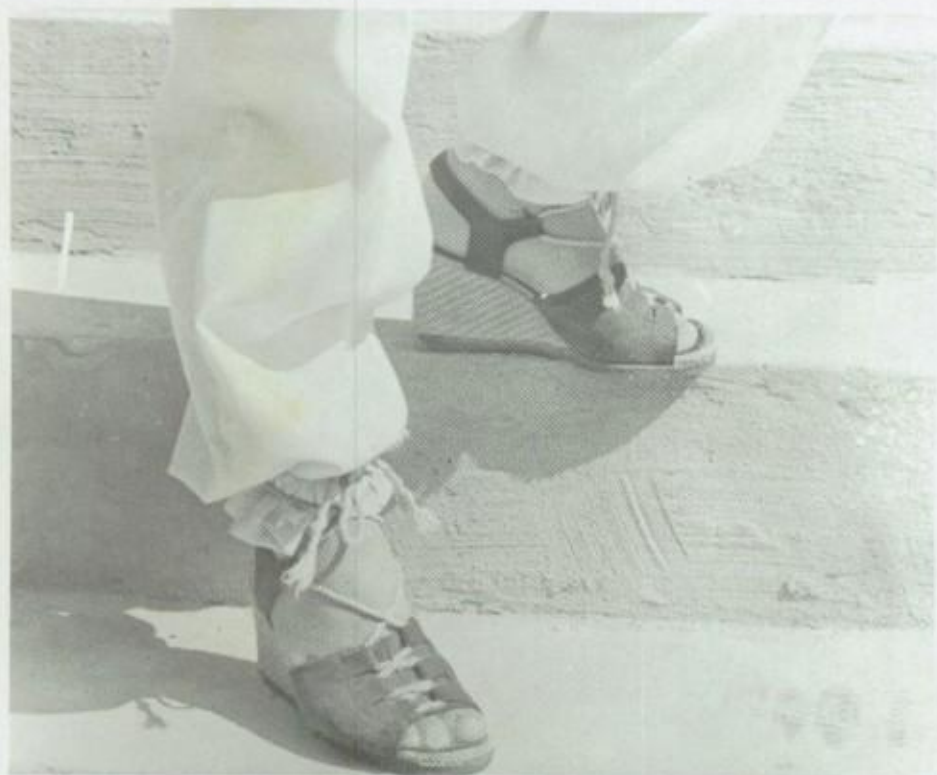

You know Caroline, this year is really different from last year. How many pep rallies do you think we had last year? Oh, I don't think there were as many as five. I'd say it was more like two or three. I know, this year it is really great! So many pep rallies and so much Spirit! I just love it when everybody yells and screams and claps and stomps, oh, and I especially like the SPIRIT BAND!

Those drums, horns and trumpets, get everybody going. Nothing would ever get off the ground without the super cheerleaders. (The spirit band begin to play another tune) Oh, fantastic, now it'll get started. GO BIG RED!! FANTASTIC! (One of the cheerleaders starts talking into a microphone, everyone stands up and yells.) Ouch! Hey Caroline, someone just stepped on my foot!

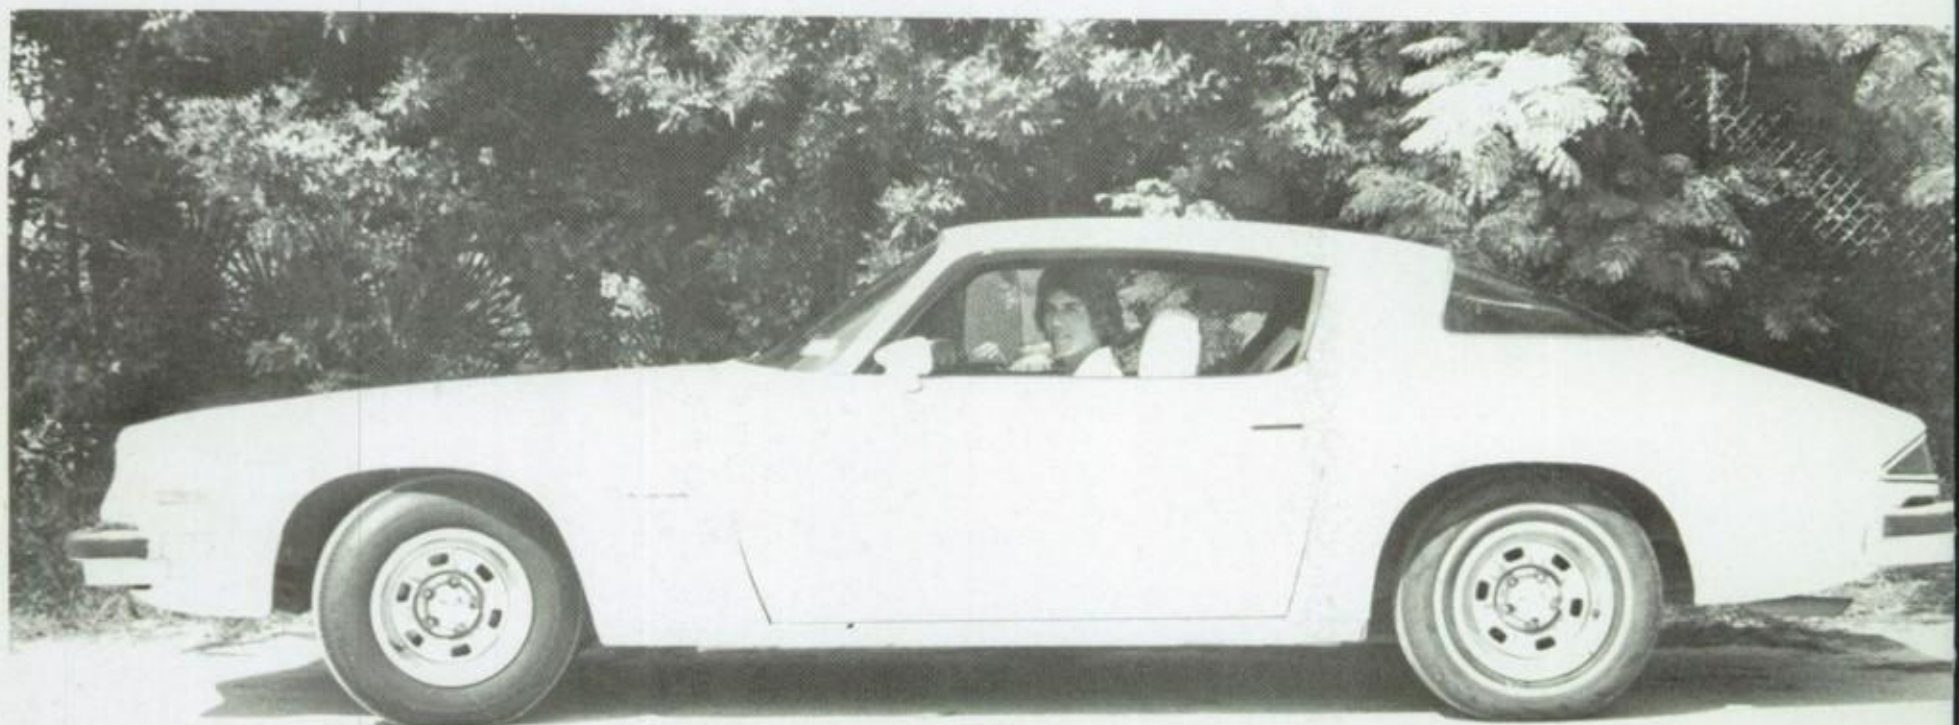

This is the style for cold days.

I'm all tied up!

Karen: Who says I'm not in style?

Dean: Let's go cruising in my new Camaro.

Robin: Our Father, who art in heaven ...

Sandy: Give my regards to Broadway.

n: Student Council sponsored me.

Nanette: Bet ya by golly gee!

("The lights dim, as the "Sound of Music" fills the room. The emcee's appear in a circle of light at the top of steps.")

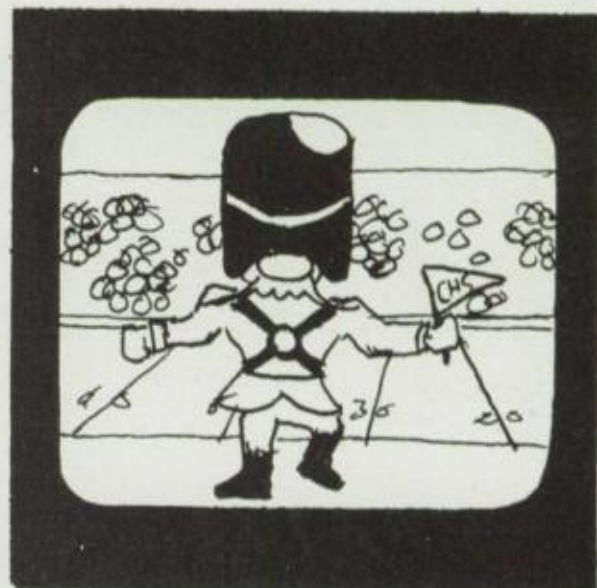

Tonight, the Act II players will present to you the second half of the 1978-79 Mr. and Miss Colonial Pageant. Kicking up their heels to the music from the production "State Fair", are the twenty-four semi-finalists. In order to be a contestant, each person had to be sponsored by a club or organization. Each of the semi-finalists were chosen on their grade point average and involvement.

This evening our panel of judges will select twelve finalists, two will emerge victorious as Mr. & Miss Colonial.

And now for your entertainment, we present to you Teri and Bill, who will sing music selected from Roger and Hammerstein productions. (The night goes on.) Before we announce the 1978-79 Mr. and Miss Colonial, we would like to recognize a few people with some special awards.

And now, and now, and now, ... if I can get the envelope open ... And now the moment we have all been waiting for, the 1978-79 Mr. Colonial is ... David Kiser. The 1978-79 Miss Colonial is ... Sandy Lahew. Congratulations.

Let's meet the people behind the scenes. Patty Crotty for her dedication, lights, and the theme idea, Steve Bickley the director, Assistant Directors Teri Murphy and Pam Widell. Thanks to Miss Warner and the entire cast and crew the pageant was better than ever. Good Night.

SPIRIT WEEK

(Each year we have the womens' traditional battle of the classes. Powder Puff Football. We see a few Junior girls talking during one of their practices.)

"Oh my bones! I don't know if I will be able to take this running much longer. Hey Amy, when is practice going to be over? Only another forty-five minutes? Whew, I sure hope I can hold out that long. Oh ...! What are we doing now?! You know, I don't mind passing the football around and stuff, but all of these wild calastenics are about ready to kill me! What? You're right, the only thing we should be concerned about now is practice, and winning the game. But I can't help worrying about the cheerleaders we are going to have. I hope they will be able to stay out of trouble. (It's the night of the game. Struggle after struggle continues. The coaches send in replacements. Fighting to the finish, the juniors are swept away.) Well, at least we have one more year. We'll have to beat the Juniors next year. Sophomores, just you wait!"

Tracy: Now we're not ones to go 'round spreading rumors.

Sandy: I wonder if Cheryl Tiegs started this way?

Gloom, despair and agony on me.

Mary: This is a K-Mart blue light special.

Carol: Whenever I'm down in the dumps I buy a hat.

Lisa: Like my new hat?

Eric: I'm struttin my stuff ya'll!

Miss Ackley: Have you ever seen a bunch of nuts in hats?

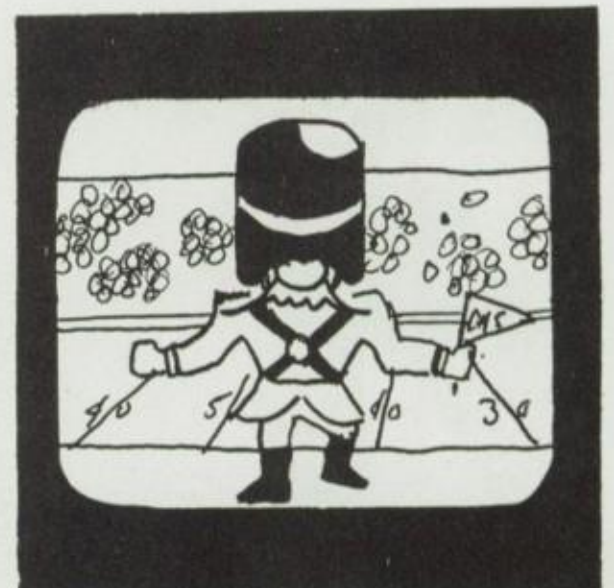

(Two students are looking at the 1978-79 calender in the library.)

These last few weeks have seemed longer than the rest of the whole school year. Remember the week of Homecoming? I don't believe some of the things we did.

Did you see that guy wearing a bucket on his head? He couldn't be like the rest of us and wear a DECA hat. I was looking for Karen on Hillbilly Day, she said that she would be wearing overalls, a red checkered shirt and braids. There must have been a hundred people dressed just like that!

There was so much going on. Remember how a certain "high county executive" was almost decked when he saw the spirit of Colonial students on Halloween? Some people just don't have a sense of humor! I wonder what he said about the seniors' togas?

If we had to do it all over again, the only thing that I would change would be the weather. Running an obstacle course on a tricycle is hard enough without having to do it in the rain! At least it cleared up for the game. Lake Brantley was no match for the BIG RED MACHINE. And they say Colonial doesn't have any spirit. BOO!!!

Mr. Klingmeyer: Welcome to my animal house!

Stacy: Hurry, let's not hold up the parade.

I think I'll hang around here for a while.

The band gets into the homecoming spirit.

Start your engines!

Steve: The Red Baron strikes again!

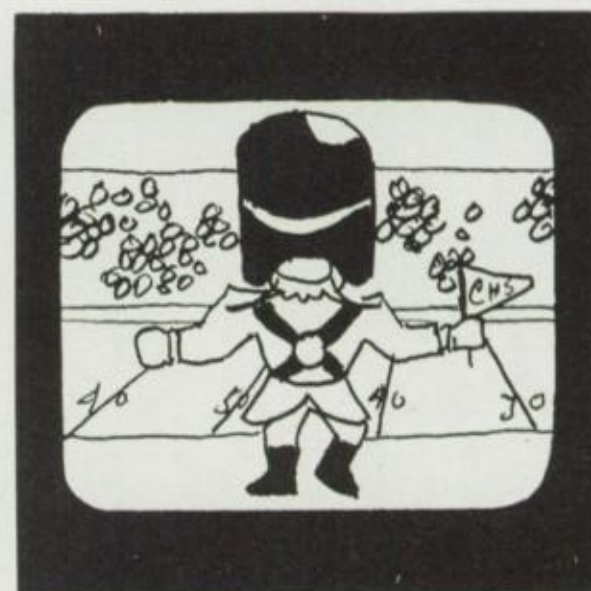

And coming around the first curve . . .

John: Hey wait for me!

And it's a race for the finish . . .

Bob: This is what you get for playing football in the house.

Theresa: This is a good place for a stick-up.

Wow, what a crew of firefighters!

Sally: We rolled into first place.

David: Ready ... aim ... fire!

Linda: Two heads are better than one.

Dean: This place gets to you after a while.

Dianne: Hey look, the mirror cracked!

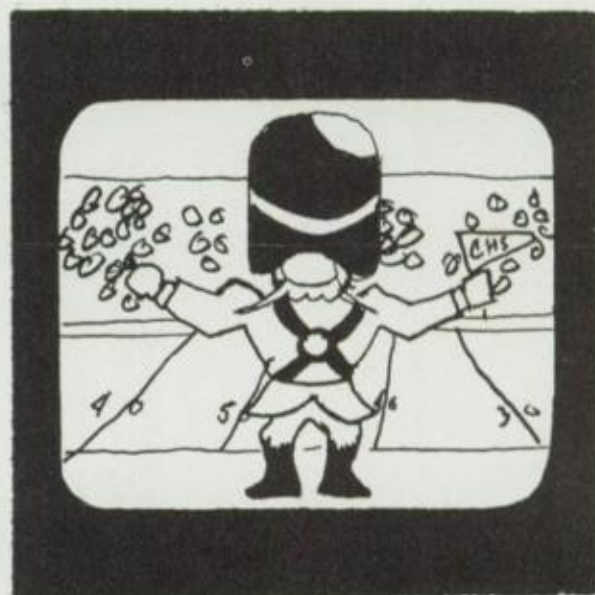

Toga! Toga! Toga!

Robin: Let me bite your neck!

Phonda,
Well French hasn't exactly been a normal,
run of the mill class.
Especially with all those smart people who sit on the other side of the room. Inspector made it pretty exciting
We'll have fun next year
See ya in French
Love Jacqueline W.

Kim: We've been waiting for twenty years!

Dan: I found my thrill on Blueberry Hill!

Gwen: Let's all go to the hop.

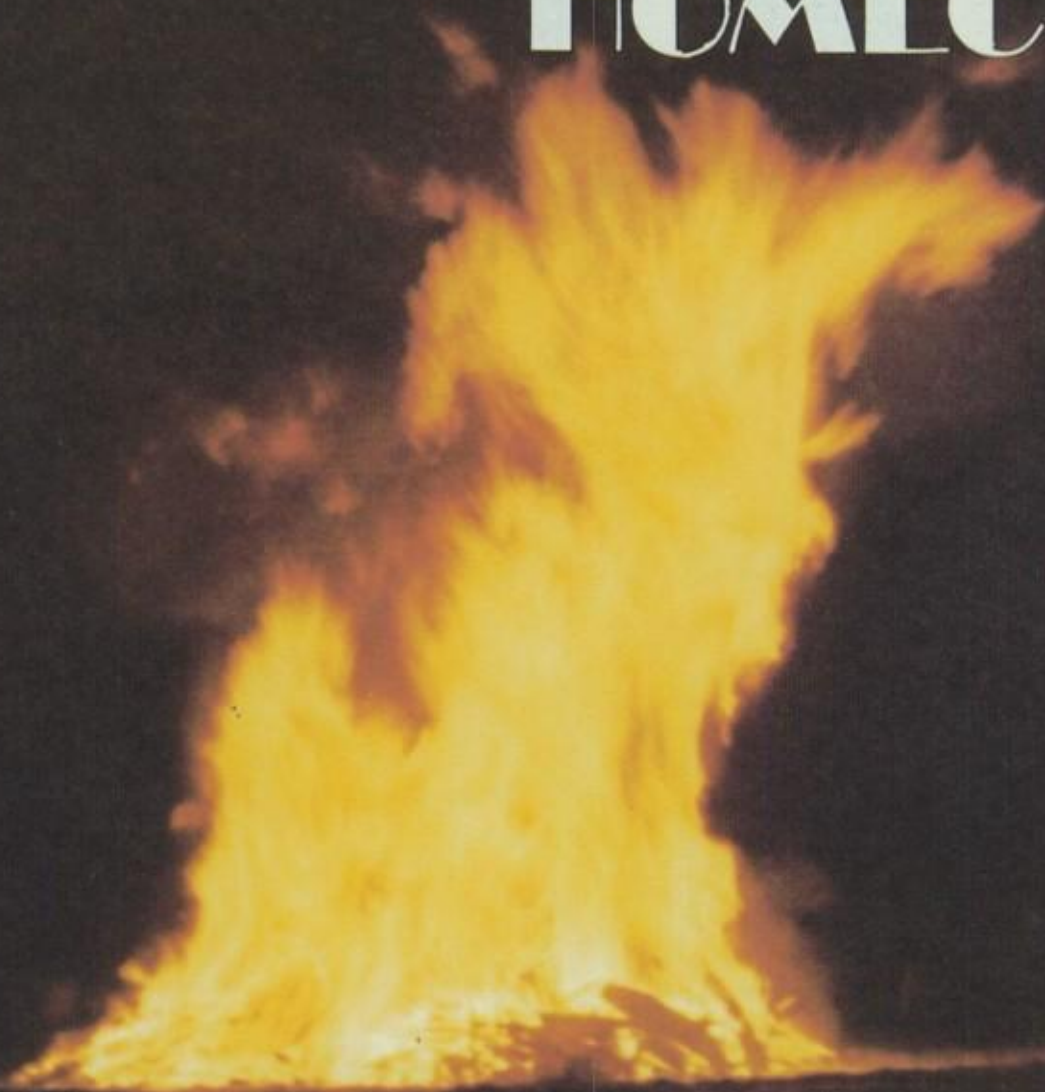

Pattie: Hey Fonz,

Suzanne: Who's taking you to the malt shop tonight Gwen?

HOMEcoming '79

All during the week spirit ran high. This year we had the traditional spirit week. It started with hat day, extending with hillbilly, mix and match, spook and toga days, and finishing with grease day.

Thursday night there was fire, fire, and more fire, at our annual bonfire! Key Club sponsored the Big Flame this year, and gathered firewood continuously for a month. Our terrific band set the spirit by playing marching songs. Special Thanks to BHS for fueling our Big Red Inferno with a carved indian head.

Friday night our football team took on the Lake Brantley Patriots and showed them just what Colonial was made out of as they rolled in 14 points in the first quarter.

Then came halftime, the main event of the evening, the Homecoming Court of 1978-1979. The tension rose as everyone awaited the crowning of the king and queen. And now the Homecoming King is . . . Joe Losch!!! And now, the moment we've been waiting for, Colonial's 1978-1979 Homecoming Queen is . . . Allie Pope!!! Listen to that crowd roar!!! Let's see if we can keep the mob off the king and queen long enough for them to circle around the field. As the court is dismissed, we bring you back to the game. The third and fourth quarters are very close, but in the last seconds Colonial pulled through to win 21-20 over the Patriots.

Coach Ziglar: Let's boogie baby!

Dr. Feelgood: Let's do it!!!

Allen: I could have danced all night.

Mark: Come on baby, let's do the twist.

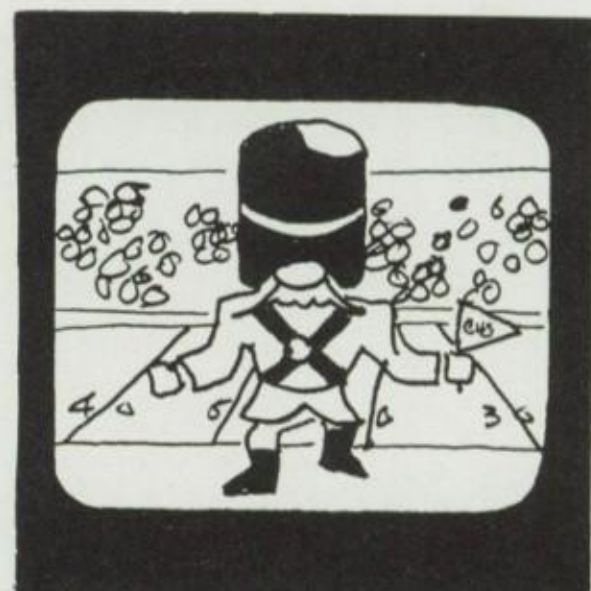

Tony: May I have this dance?

HOMECOMING DANCE

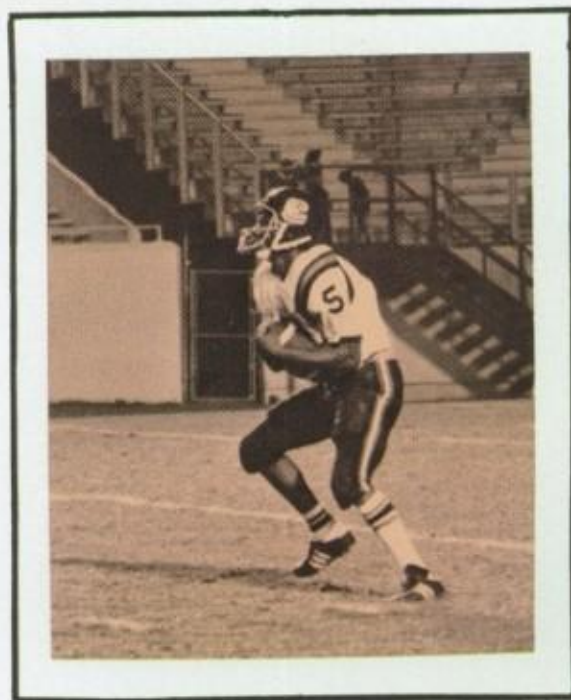

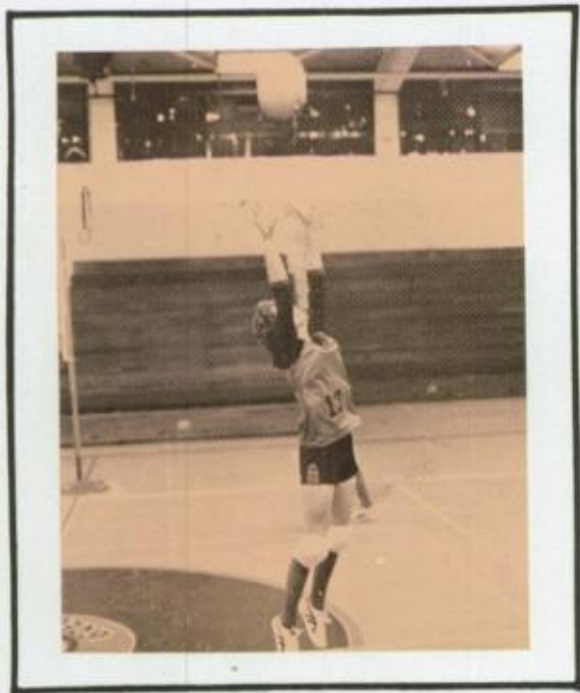

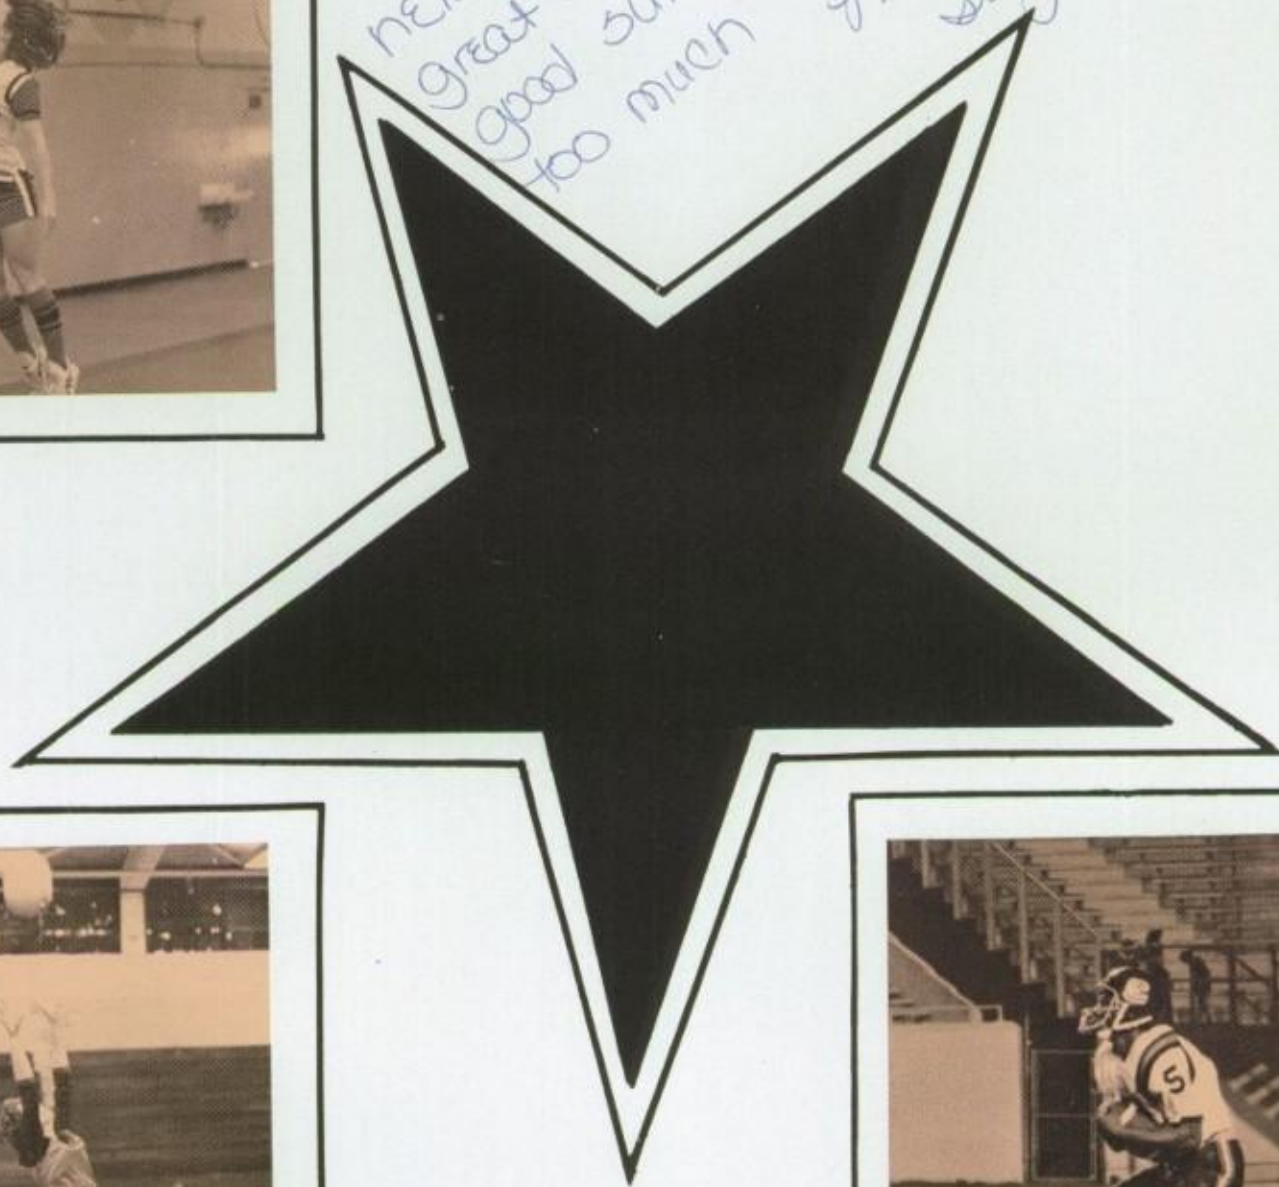

(The 1978-79 Homecoming Dance of Colonial High School was held on November 4th in honor of the Homecoming Queen and King and their court).

"I just love to go to Homecoming! Who are you going to ask Joe? What's that, you don't have enough nerve to ask any one! Don't be silly, of course you do. Now who's your dream girl? Karen! You can't ask Karen, that's who I'm asking. How about Patty, you like her. What do you mean she's too tall. She's the same height you are. What's that Larry, last time you took Patty out she wore 6 inch spiked heels and when she opened the door you were starring right where you're not supposed to. Well what's wrong with that? Joe's not as shy as you are Larry. What's that Joe? Have I ever tried to dip or pick up and twirl a girl 6 inches taller than I am. Well I can't say I have but if that's what you're worried about you could always dance solo.

Rhonda, fun
It's been fun
in band with you hope your in symphonic next year cause you're a great clarinet player. Have a good summer and don't get into too much trouble.
Love ya,

Coach Nelson: I want to sell you a football player.

Can I have this dance?

We got a Tiger by the tail!

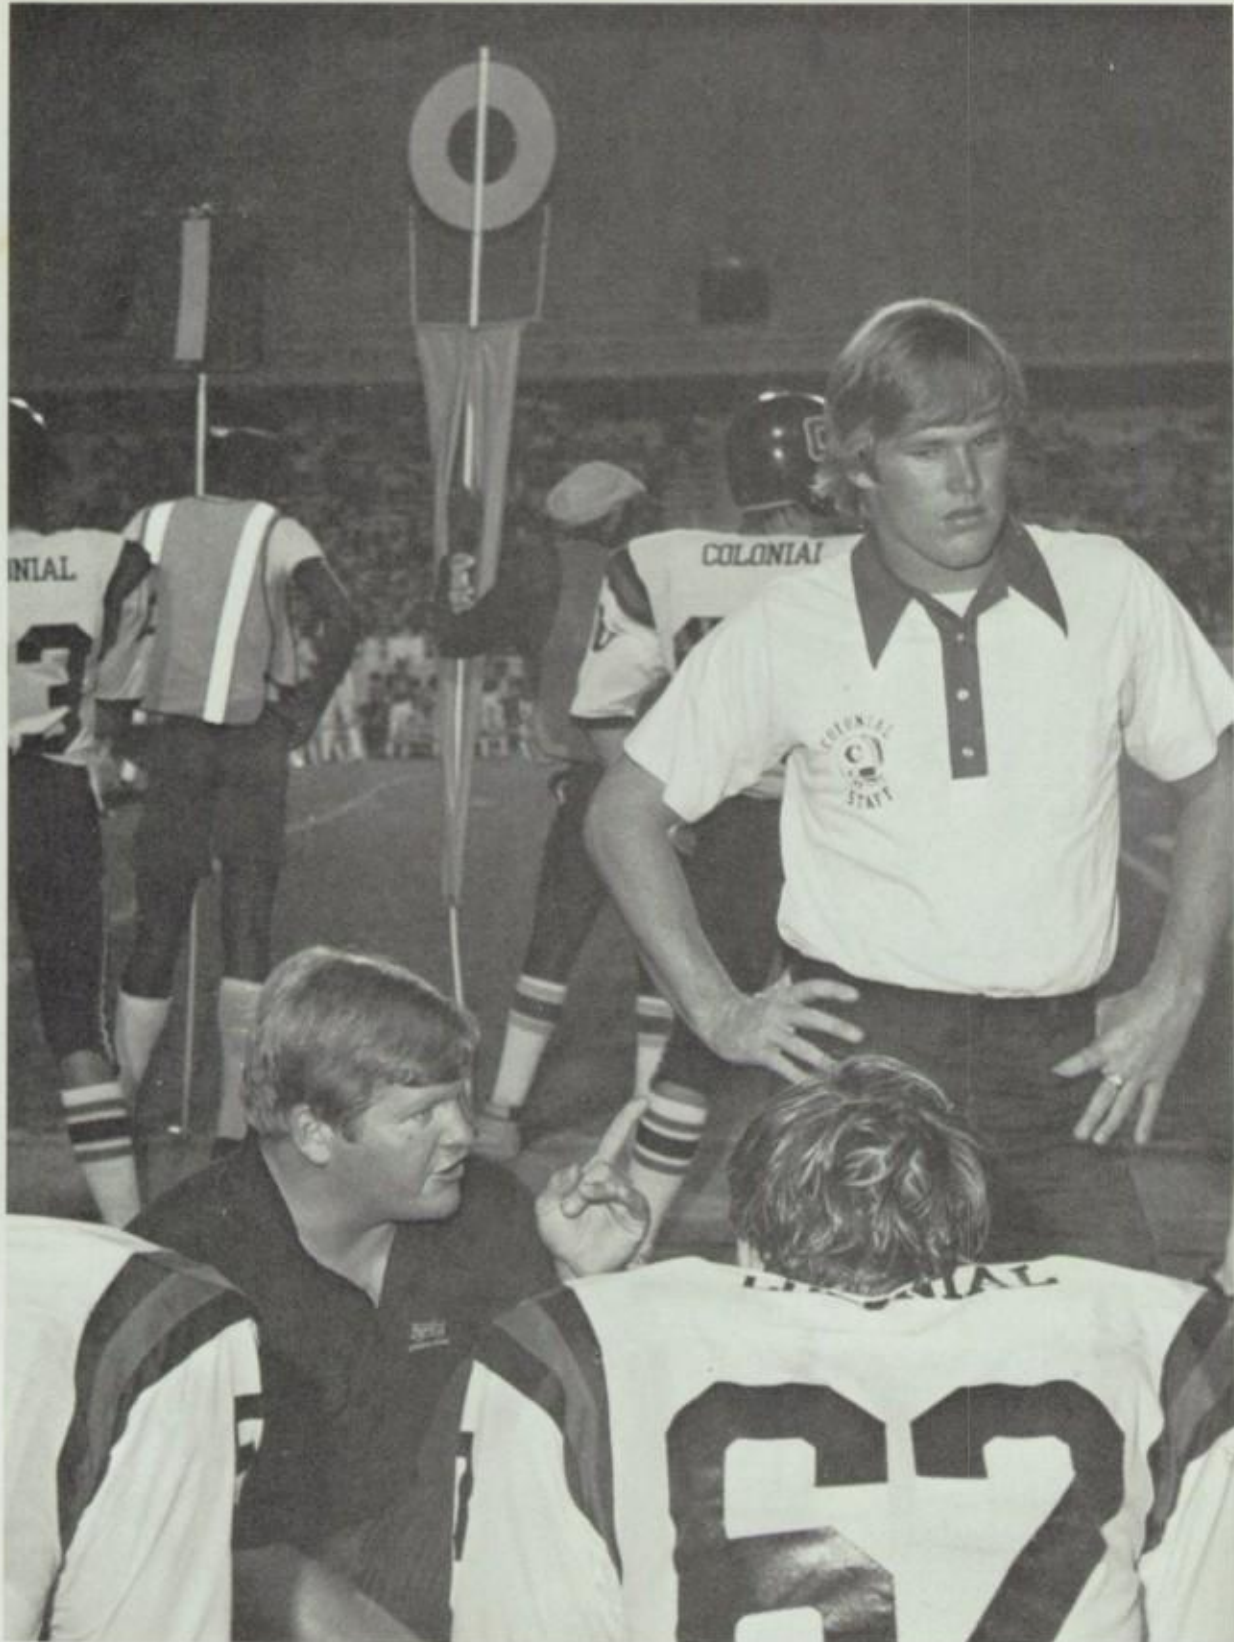

Coach Jones: Matson, lets get things straight!

FOOTBALL

(It's a Friday night, a spirited night, it's a Colonial High School football game! Screaming and yelling are typical sights, as we glimpse through the packed stadium. This is one of the most crucial games of the football season. Our guys are really prepared, because of the great coaching staff. We are taking you now to the press box.)

And it's a hike! Carlos Sanchez is fading back, number 40 Tim Foskett, is in the open, and it's a complete 49 yard pass! Oh, no, wait, where did those two 265 pound Pioneers come from? If only Tim can make it past them. HE'S DONE IT! He has slipped through the two ferocious Pioneers! Now, he is going all the way! The GRENADIERS have done it again! It's a 79 yard touchdown! The bleachers are quaking, the fans are going wild! What a game, what a team, what a school!!!

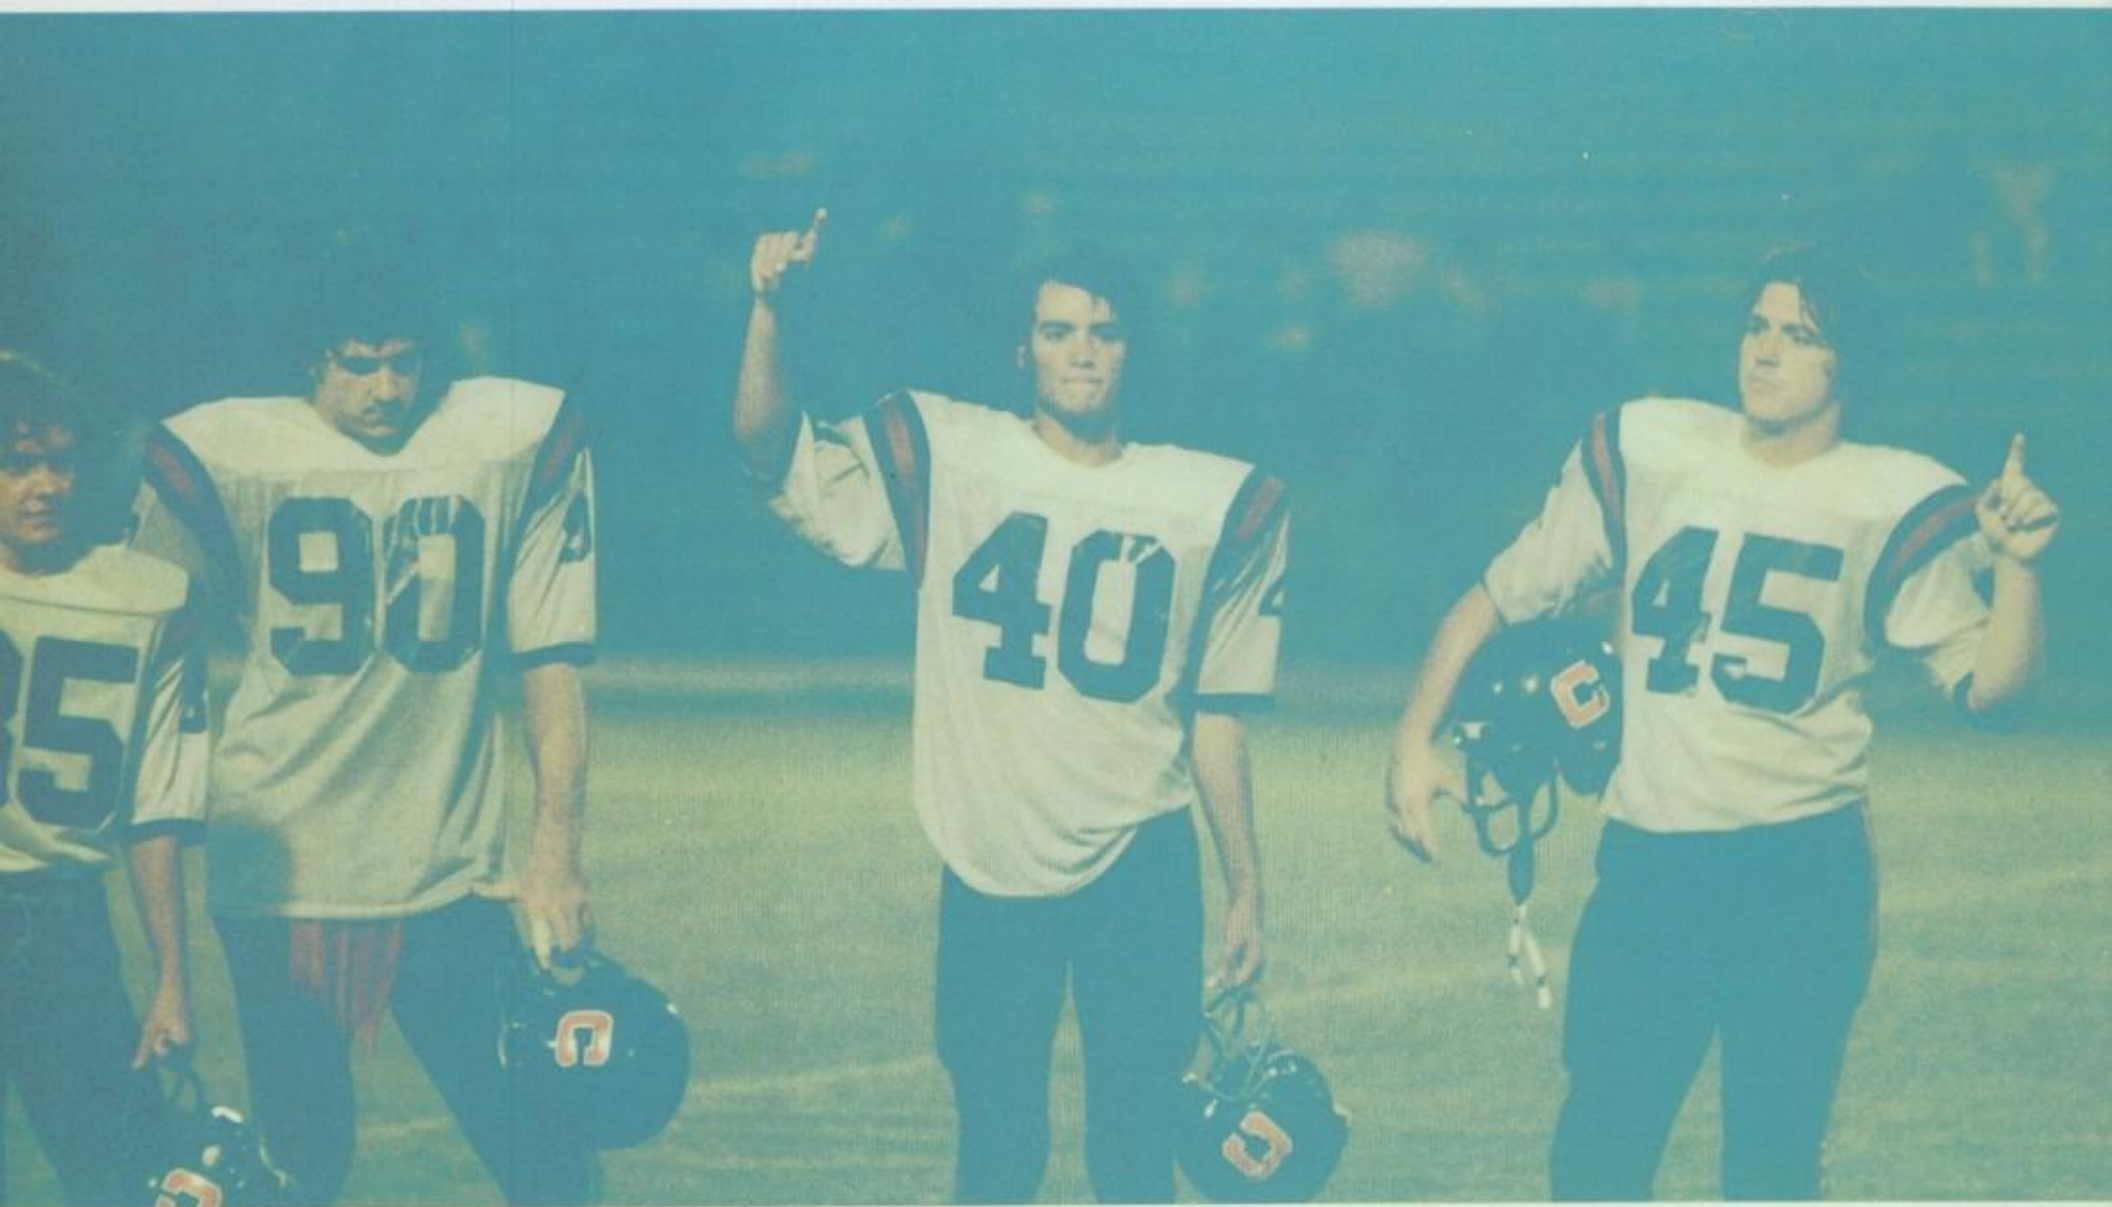

Coach Ziglar: (Coach Rick Semple looks on) Do you understand Luscuskie?

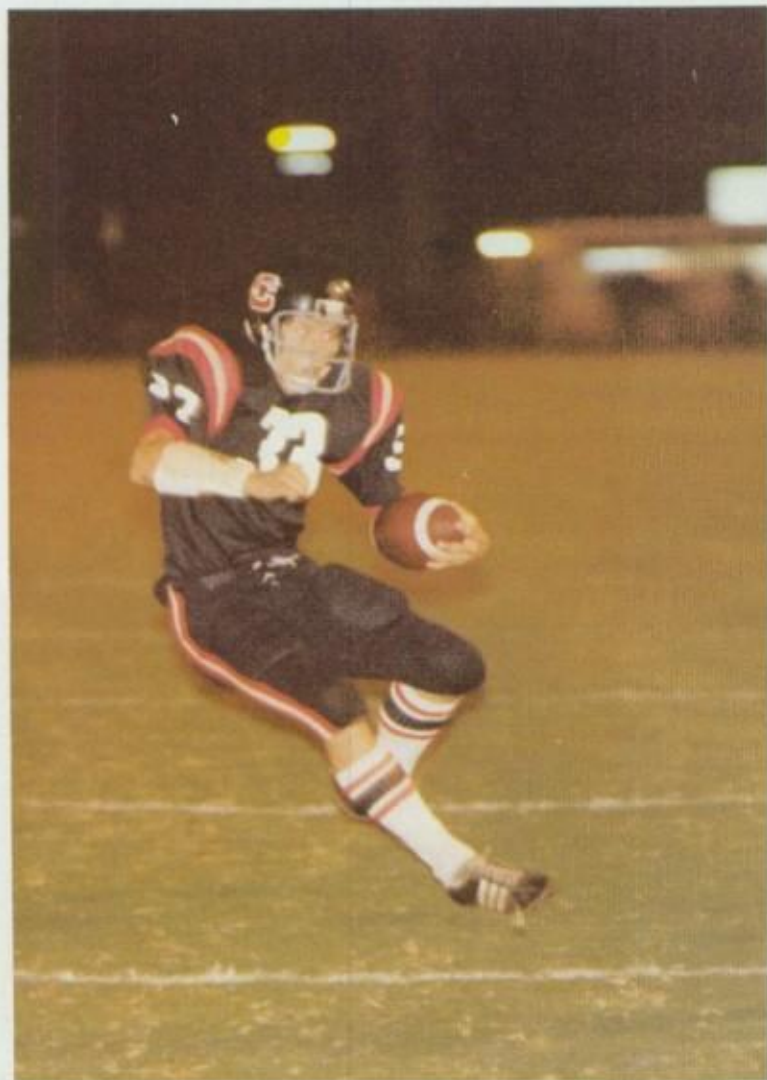

Dan Smith: Watch out, here I come.

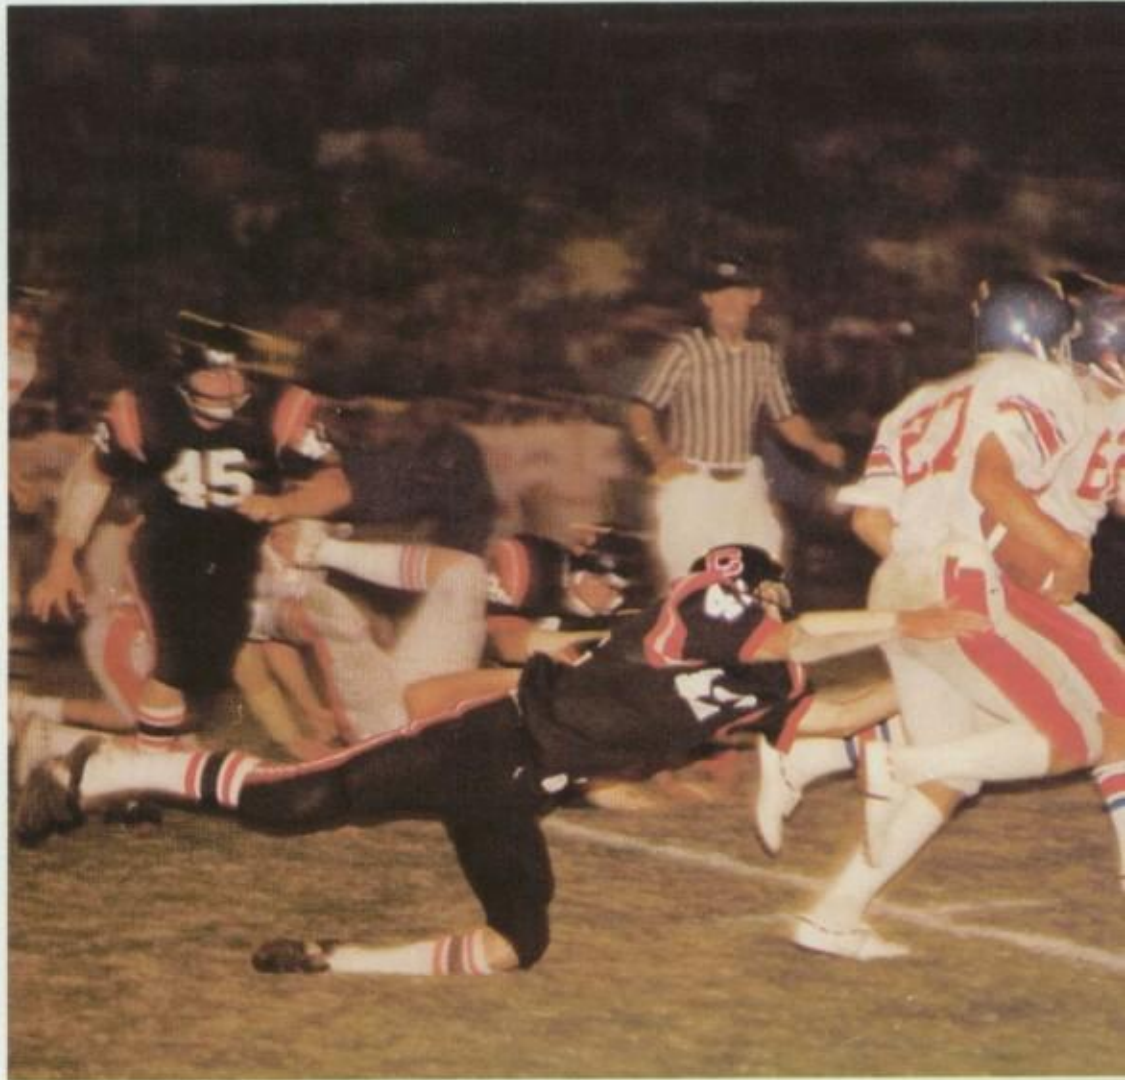

To Thee Alma Mater

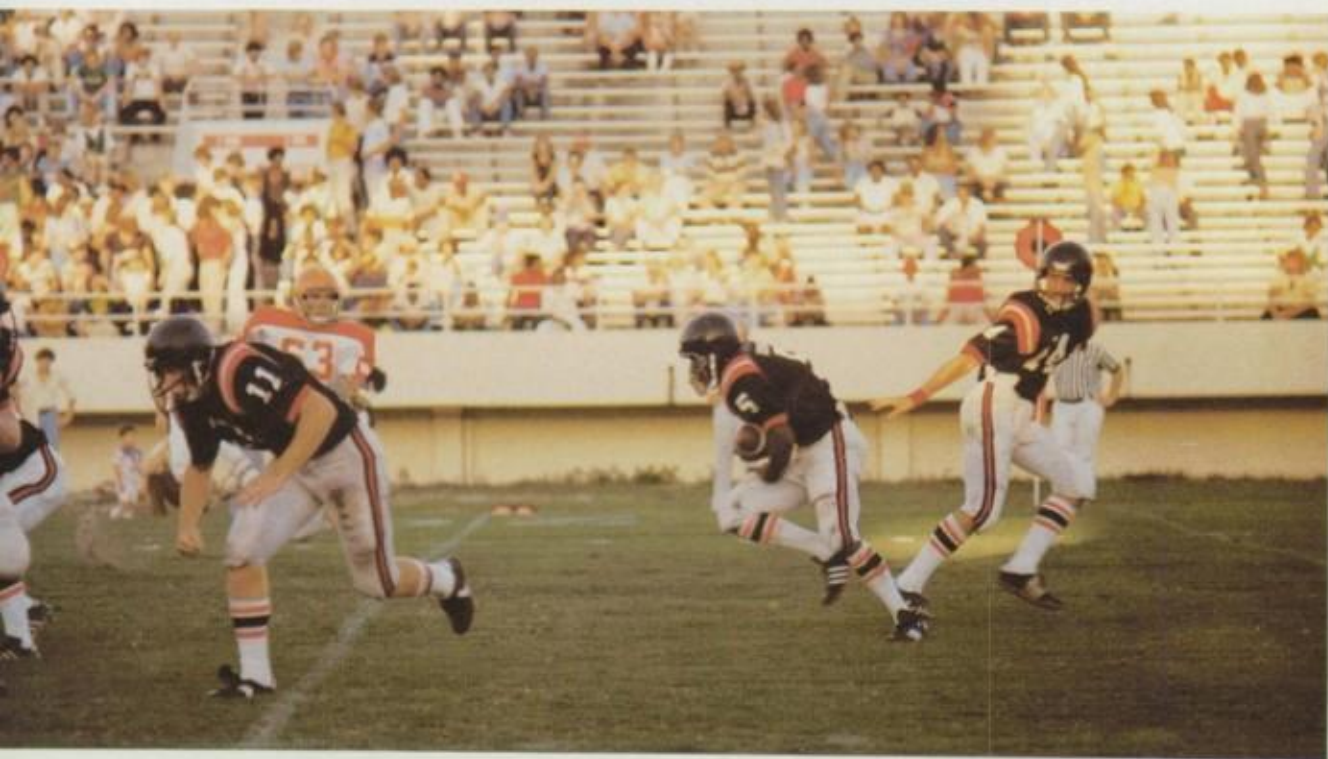

Dan Smith: Now it's my turn to move the ball.

Russ Thompson: I'm going to take him from behind.

Vance Broome: I'm gonna kick this baby high and long.

Carlos Sanchez: Now move that ball, Kenny.

I'll get him ... No, I'll get him ... No! I'll get him ...

Kemal Hall: Their defense is really rushing Sanchez, so use the screen pass next and we'll have a sure touchdown.

Robert Addonizio: Let me in on the action.

Kemal Hall: Come on guys, block so I can get through.

Grenadiers shoot down the Pioneers.

First Row: John Tomaszewski, Mike McCreary, Rick Young, Danny Lott, Tim Durden, Mike Matson, Greg Waters, David Hemmings, Leonard Van Cleave, Ken Grazilla, Steve Argas, Second Row: Coach Roberts, Mgr. Crunch!

Ken Grazilla: Hey, Jones throw me the ball.

Danny Smith: Hey! Another touchdown!

Ken Grazilla: All the Way, Kenny.

Sack the quarterback!

All the way Big C, All the way.

Darren Fahlbusch: Hey, this is my best shirt!

Marty Casselman: When I do my thing, I do it right!

JV FOOTBALL

(Colonial field. 3:30 in the afternoon Boone enters from the far left. The Big Red Machine thunders onto the field as the fired up crowd screams it's support).

"Hey Tina, did you go to the J.V. football game? The way Darren Fahlbusch tackled the offensive backs you'd think it was a new disco dance step! The longest pass that Timmy Dawkins threw looked like it went 60 yards in the air and when it left his arm I thought it was another Kennedy Space Shot. The Boone cheerleaders weren't half bad, considering they second time failures from the Weight Watchers Club. J.V. may be a spark or two now, but next year they will be so fired up, they will set the Metro Conference in flames!

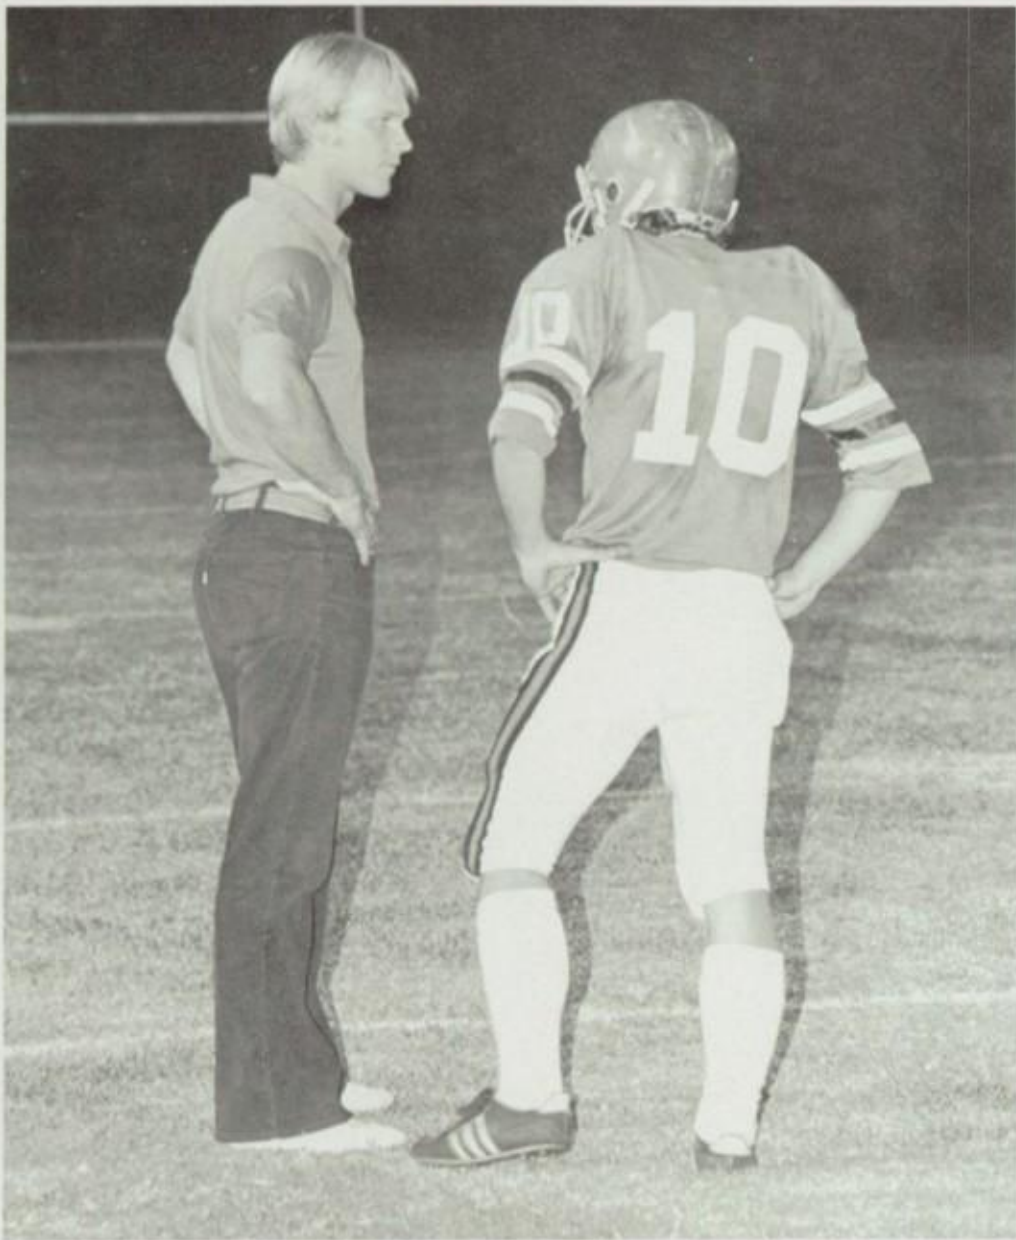

Darren Fahlbusch: I sure hope that the blocking holds up.

Move on down, move on down.

Row 1: Chance Boles, Billy Bibby, Joe Farias-Rios, Keith Linsley, Steve Iannini, Curtis Alexander, Jim Brock, Jeff Lee, Ed Johnson, Steve Bolton, Darren Fahlbusch, Todd Kendall, Patti Parker (Mgr.), Row 2: Coach Clark, John Gibson, Jorge Cruz, Ronnie Storey, Mike Duncan, Kirby Johnson, Jody Ogaz, David Sheehan, Chuck Huston, Tim Dawkins, Jim Bott, Doug Simmons, Mike Shaw, Jim Moore, Jeff Henson, Row 3: Bill Bradshaw, Brett Caslow, Alan Zembower, Doug Schaare, Marty Casselman, Bobby Martin, Roy Newman, Billy Todd, Clayton Miller, Alex Martin, Jerry Fuqua, Mark Crawford, Jim Ulrich.

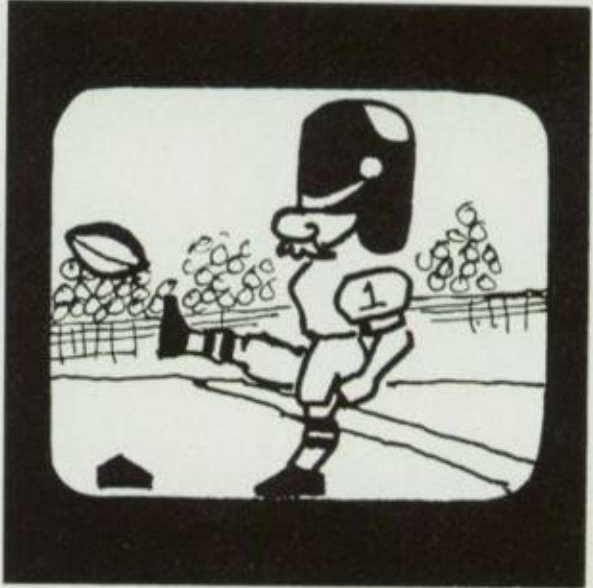

Tim Dawkins (to Coach Carlson) Let's try another play Coach. This one isn't connecting.

Tim Dawkins: I'm gonna burn it in there.

Crash, Bang, Smash 'em up!

Row 1: David Wersinger, Kenneth Lee, James Brosche, Arlie Brown, Tony Slechta, Darrell Pamel, Tim Rice. Row 2: Coach Martin, Glen Crees, Danny Rivers, Bart Morrison, Mark Thompson, Delino Heim, John Nickerson, Pat Merlet, Tony Harmon, Paul Mazzillo. Row 3: Ed Gabriel, Gary Osburn, Randy Brown, Larry Baird, David Demianovich, Tim Dalzell, David Cole.

Danny Rivers, David Cole, Delino Heim: We're almost to the finish line!

Ready guys ...

... nap time!

Paul Mazzillo: I feel like the "Loneliest Runner."

David Demianovich: "Hey, I did pretty good . . . I came in 37th."

Oh, I'm glad I use Dial . . . but I wish everyone did.

scene 16 CROSS COUNTRY

("The grueling sport of Cross Country, requires intensive practice and a strong mental condition.")

Well, tomorrow is the big meet we have been waiting for. From the way we have been practicing, I'm sure we will do well in every race. At least I can say we'll put all of our Colonial spirit into it. I can see it now. Waiting for the gun to go off, and thinking to myself what more do I want to do than win for Colonial. Then, coming to the finish line, I look behind me to see how good of a chance I have, knowing I am going to prove to myself that if there is something I want to do, I am going to do it! That is when I win. So Mike, if you ever feel that you can't win say, hey I can do it! Will it work?!! Of course it will work! Now just say to yourself that we are going to win tomorrow! Oh, skip it! Let's just get in shape.

Sunday Brown: Watch out Boone, here I come!

Coach Shuttleworth: Come on girls, I know you can do it.

Row 1: Cheryl Robichaud, Marie Donnelly, Shirley Harmon Row 2: Ann Oliver, Sunday Brown, Karen Moore, Yvonne Haron

scene 17

(Colonial cross country 2 mile run. Temperature: 80 degrees. 250 girls warming up for the long trail ahead.)

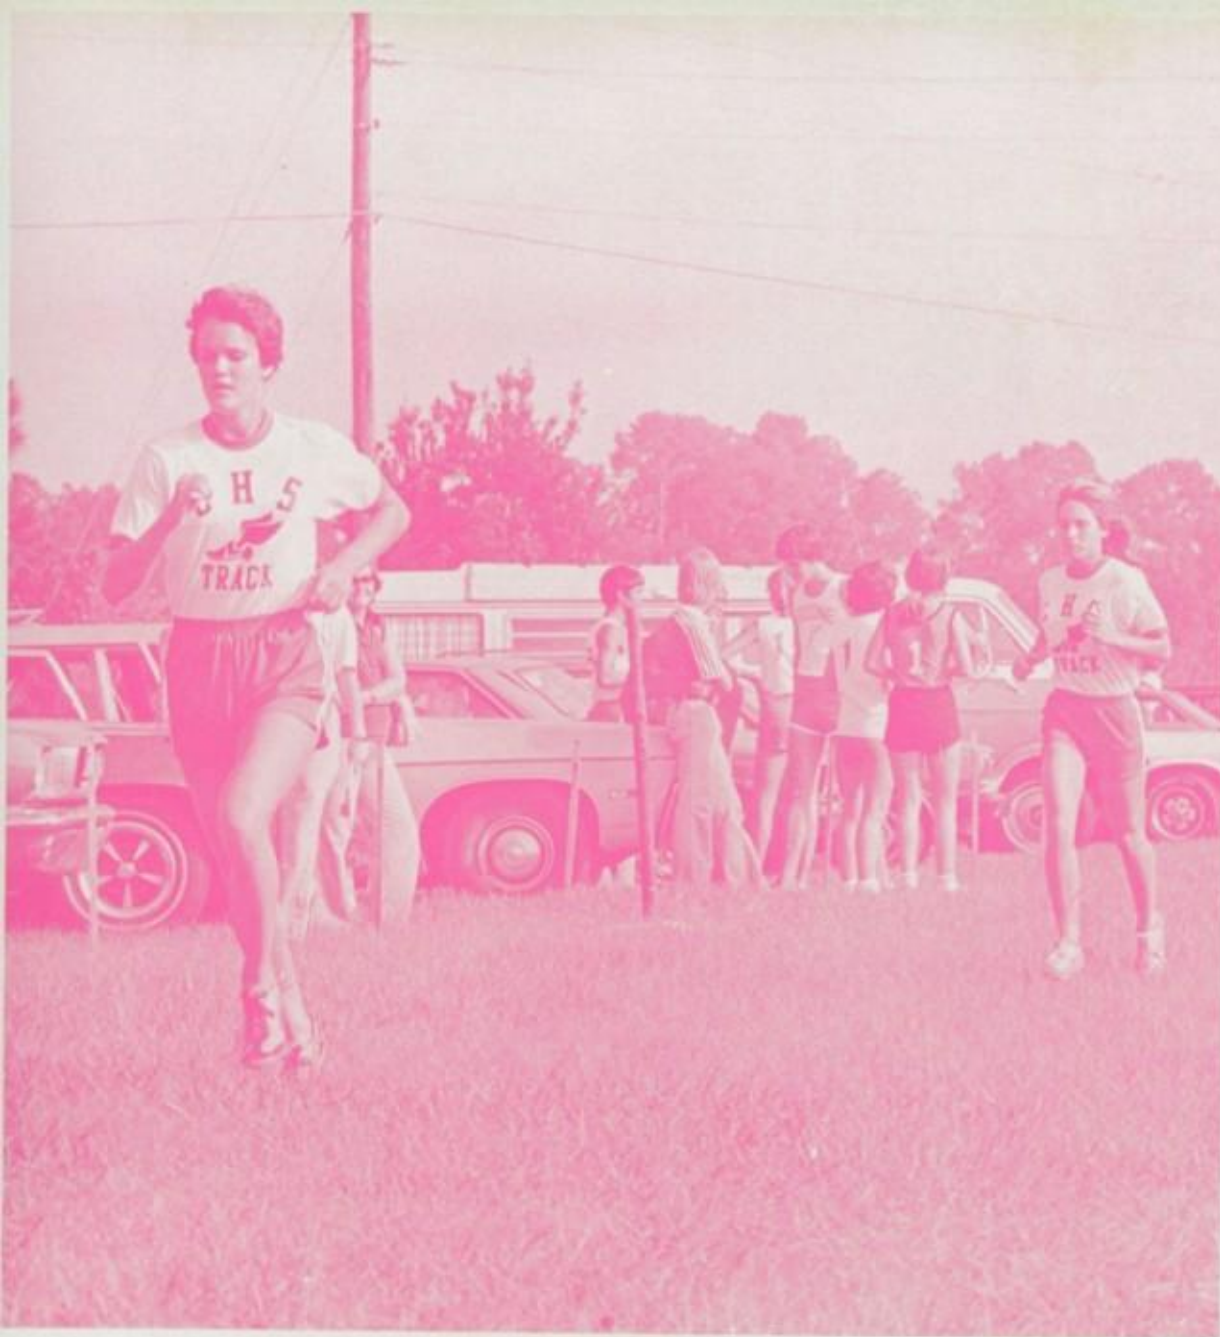

Hey, here I am running through the breeze like lightning through a cloud! The repeated swift movements of my legs striving for victory. I can hear the fans yelling "Colonial" as I approach the finish line. My heart beats faster and faster, my body's adrenalin is pushing me toward the scorekeeper, only 100 yards left.

Oh God, I sense someone approaching faster by my left side. No! Get away! Stop! Fall! Do something, because we're going to win.

The vibration of the screaming fans becomes more distinct, causing me to pump faster. There's Marie ahead of me. Come on Marie, we can do it! The figure behind me fades back as her running steps become fainter. Alright!

We got it. I can see the red finish line. "Marie, hold on to my hand."

I catch her hand as she swings her right arm back and we break the victory ribbon for Colonial.

Cheryl Robichaud: Wait up, Sunday . . .

Marie Donnelly: Which way did she go now?

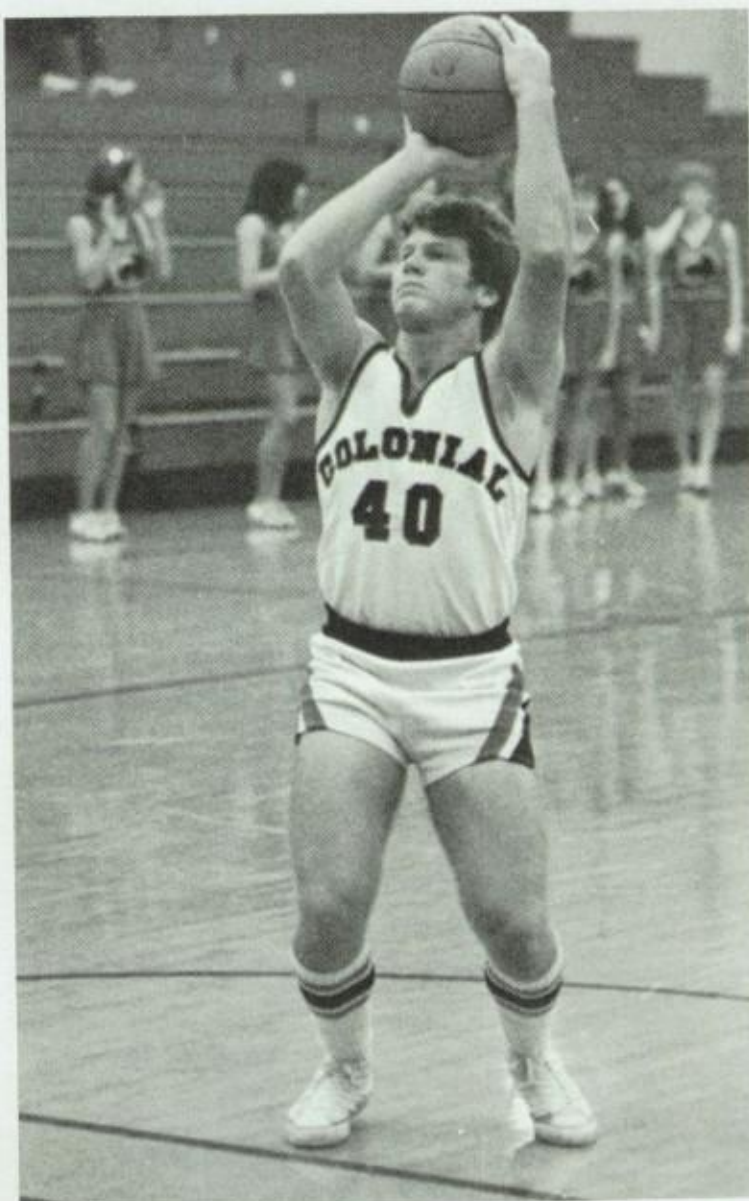

Ann Oliver: I think I could use some Gatorade!

Henry Way: All I have to do is concentrate.

Joe Losch: This ones going in one way or another.

Fred White: Check out this style.

Robert Rodriguez: I'll put this one up with ease.

ando Virelles: Just try and block my shot.

ke Kalafut: Ring around rim!

scene 18

BASKETBALL

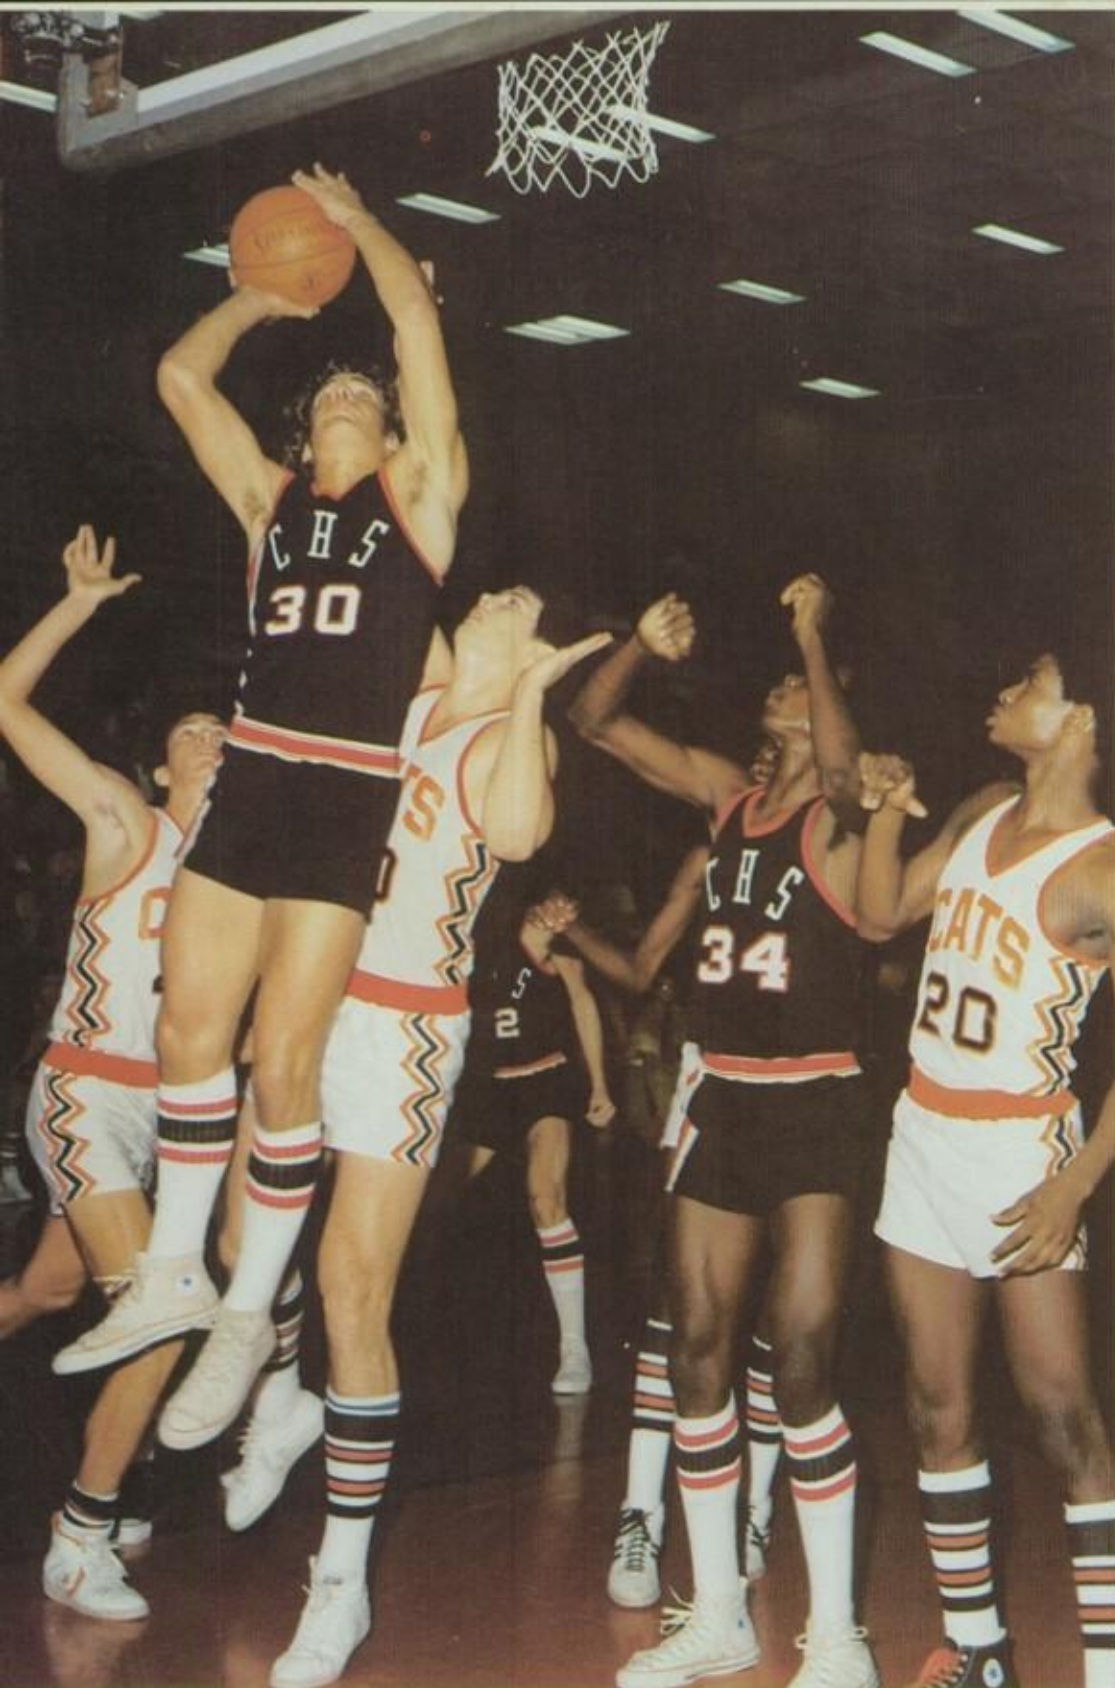

The sun has gone down and Colonial's gym has come alive with excitement. The noise builds as the team comes onto the floor. (Team enters from locker room). Cheerleaders chant, Go Big Red!

This year I feel our Basketball team has potential. We strive to win coming within a few points of every game but tonight this one is special because tonight is our rival game.

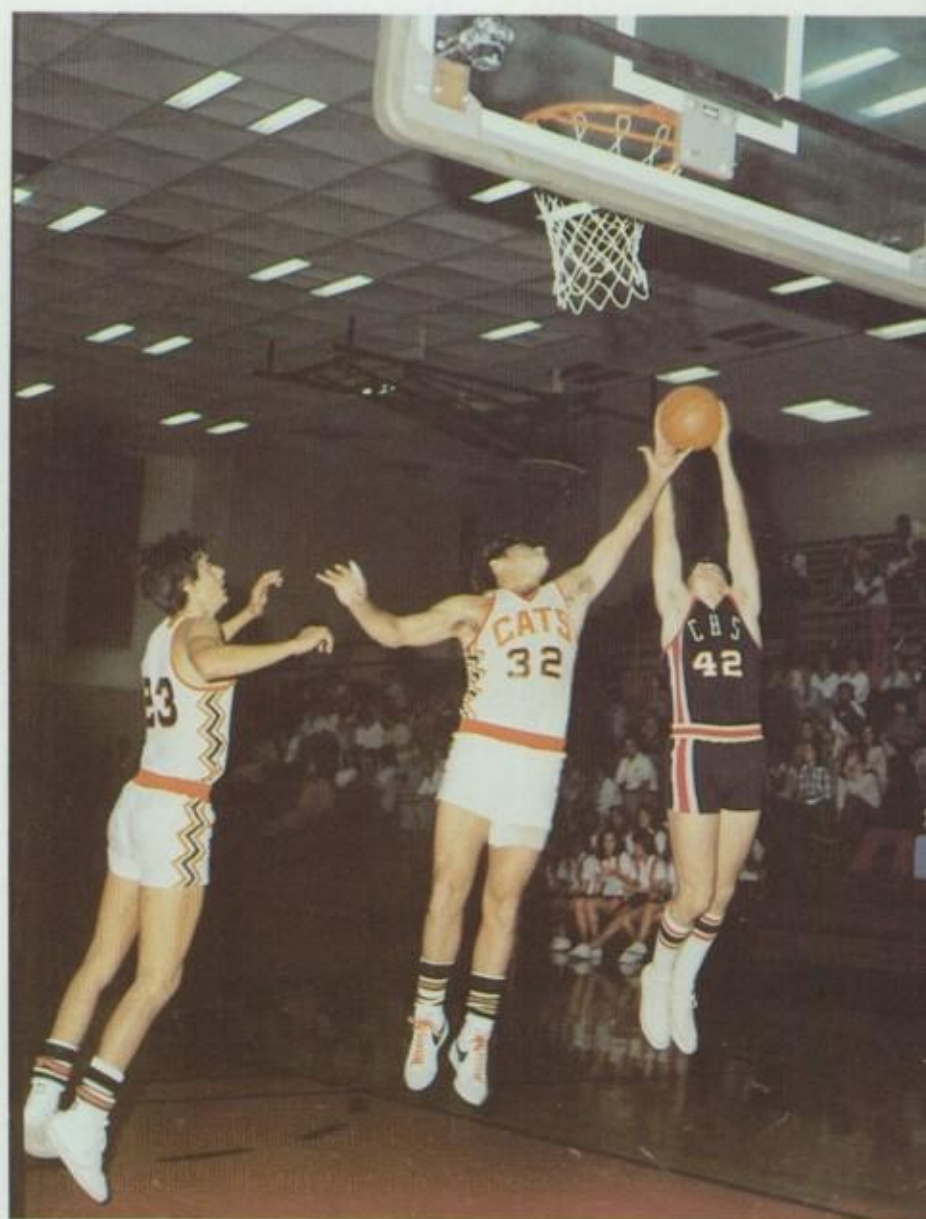

As I sit waiting to go in, I'm studying the strategy of the other team and working up my own.

This time the game depends on me. Striving to shoot these two foul shots and concentrating, with four seconds on the clock I make the two points. Yea! It's another Colonial Victory!!

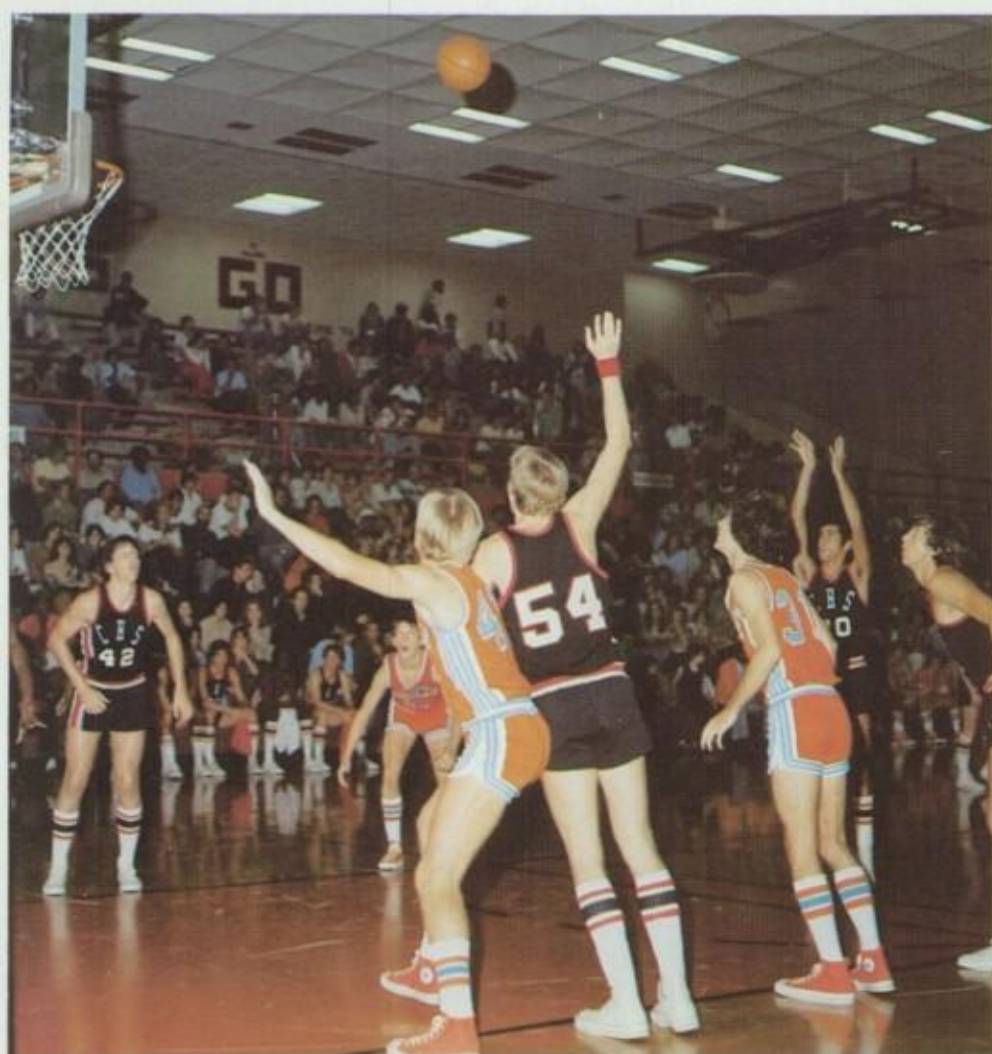

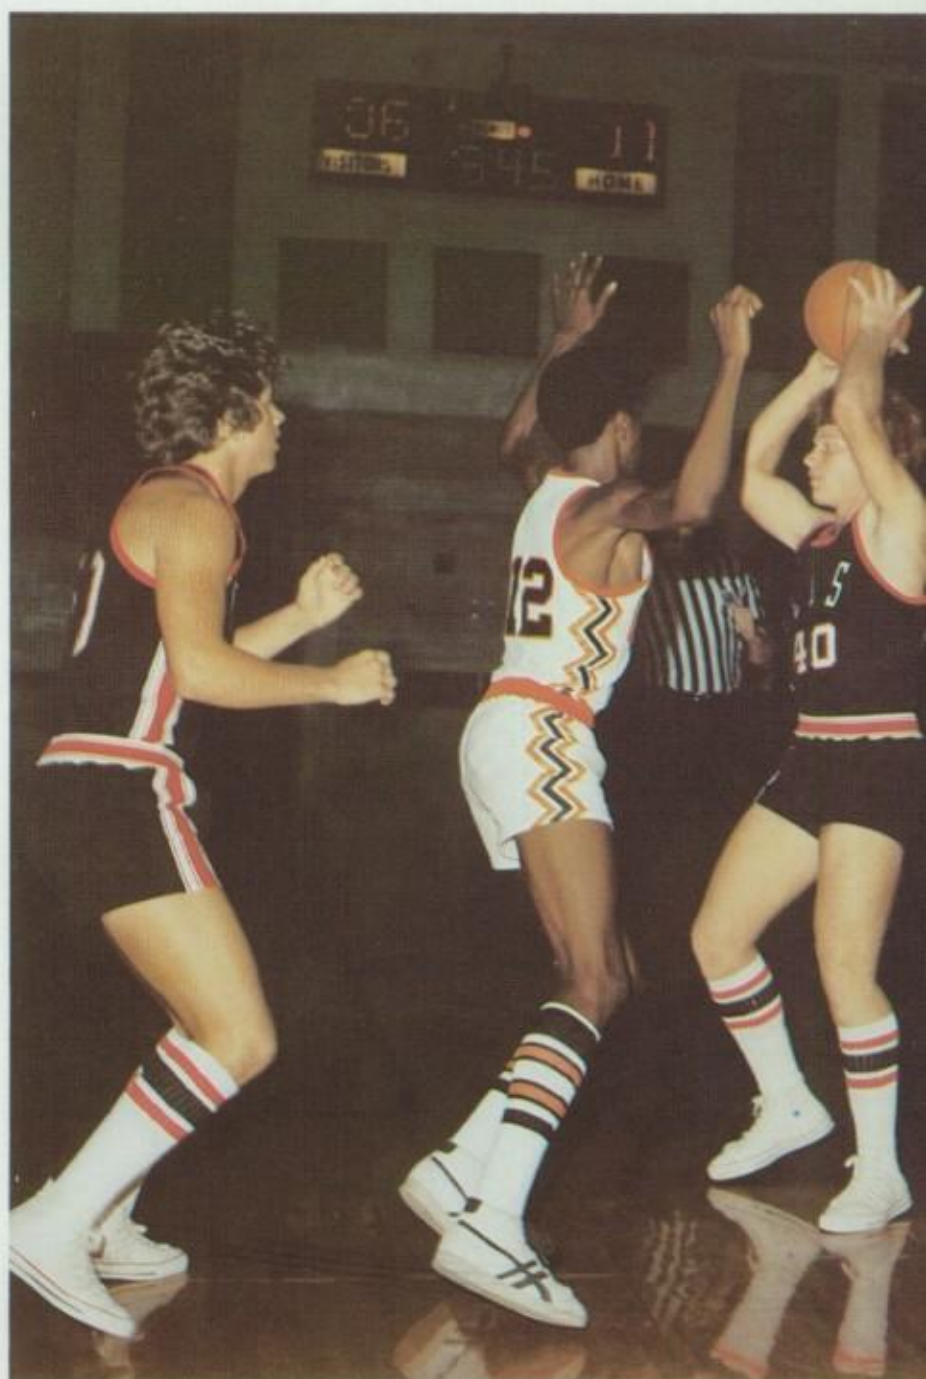

Jeff Williams: Easy two!

Mike Adams: This rebound is mine!

Robert Rodriguez: I could do this blindfolded.

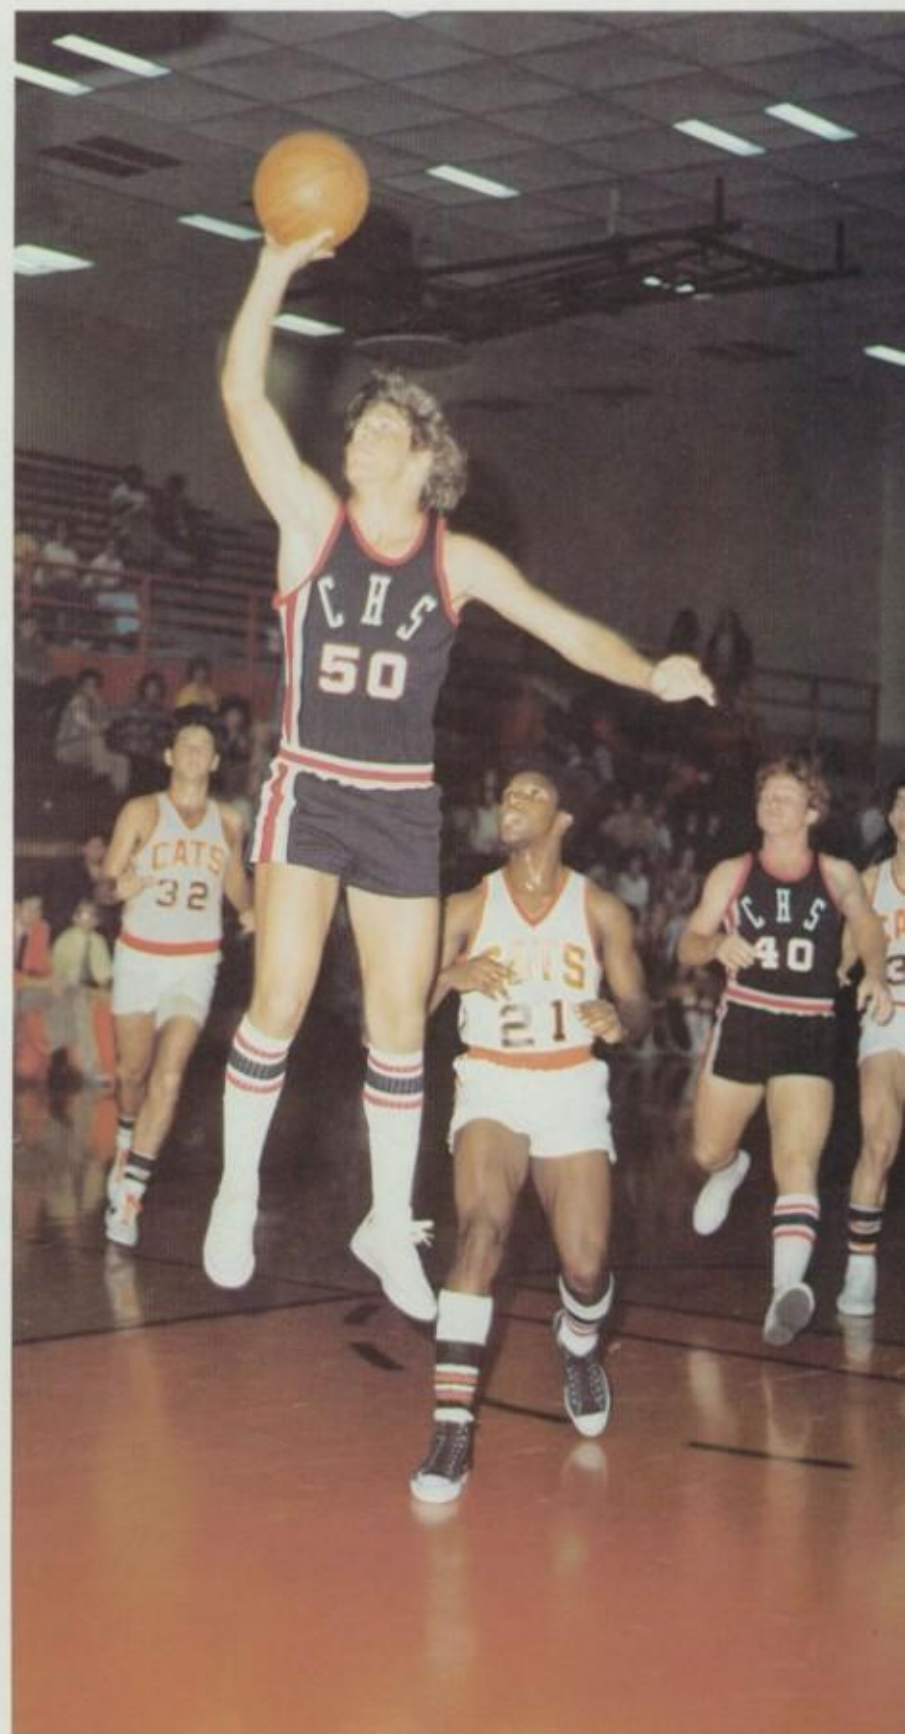

Fred White: I'll have to reverse pivot around this guy.

ave Stimmell: This one has to go in.

Richard Galloway: I'll have to stretch for this one.

Vance Broome: Look Mom . . . One hand!!

Jeff Williams: Between Mike and I, we're bound to get it.

Mike Kalafut: Eat your heart out "Dr. J"!

Row 1: Mike Herdegen (Mgr.), Mike Kalafut, Rolando Virelles, Robert Rodriguez, Steve Yadloczky, Rusty Haynes (Mgr.), Row 2: Coach Jucker, Vance Broome, Jeff Williams, Mike Adams, Fred White, Henry Way, Larry Hicks (Mgr.), Row 3: Coach Larson, Richard Galloway, Dave Stimmell, Ken Grazilla, Joe Losch, Coach Kinney.

Joe Losch: Hey! I'm open over here.

Coach Kinney: Looks like our defense is shaping up.

Dave Stimmell: I know I can jump higher than him.

Robert Rodriguez: Up and in.

Mark Williamson: I'm going to give it all I've got.

scene 19

JV BASKETBALL

("There's :42 seconds left in the fourth quarter. The score is tied. Any two points would decide the game. Coach Kinney sends a rookie onto the court. We wonder what kind of last minute thoughts might run through his head. This is what we think.")

Come on legs, you can do it. All you've got to do, is put all that practice everyday after school, to work. Be careful, but think of that factor, speed. (He runs out on the court, game begins again. A fellow player goes to pass the ball to him.) Alright hands, you can do it; keep your eyes on that ball. (He catches it, and sees an opening stretch to the basket. Think of jumping, think fast. (He quickly moves to the basket.) All right hands, it's all up to you! Just, get, that, ball, in for two points. (He shoots, but the ball hits the rim, he gets the ball again.) Now, take your time, be calm, yet think fast. You can do it's the game. I did it! I just made the two winning points! That basket just decided the game! Good job Ya'll.

Steve Yadloczky: I've got to burn that net.

Steve Iannini: Hey, this is basketball, not football!

Row 1: George Hastings, Kirby Johnson, Carlos Gonzales, Steve Iannini. Row 2: George Keleuza, Steve Yadloczky, Greg Skrtic, Richard Sava, David Dorminy, Mark Williamson.

Richard Sava: Now is my chance, to prove myself!

Steve Iannini: Another one from the outside.

Pam Wyatt: Hey ref. she's fouling me.

Dorothy Richardson: I'll get in here and loop two.

scene 20

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

("It's the pregame action in the locker room.")

All right girls, we have done it before and we'll do it again. Last time, we pulled out a few new plays and wiped them out. The only way we will be able to get this game together, is if we all work together. All right everybody, let's all go out on that court and win! (All of the girls leave the locker room cheering.)

Dot! Over here! I see an opening! (She catches the ball and makes a basket.) Two points! Sherri go to your left! Just shoot. You did it! Fantastic! Let's keep making those points. (The game continues with the score rising each quarter. Right now the opposing team is ahead by two points.) All right ya'll. We need to make the next two baskets count. If we can make four more points we'll have another victory. Sherri over here! Pass it! Hey Dot, can you make two points from over there? (She catches the ball, 13 seconds left to the fourth quarter, Dot shoots and makes a basket.) We're going to do it. Let's get that ball again! (Sherri gets the ball from the opponent and makes a dunk, two points, game over. Back to the locker room.)

Ya'll we were great! Once again we prove the Grenadiers to be Number One!

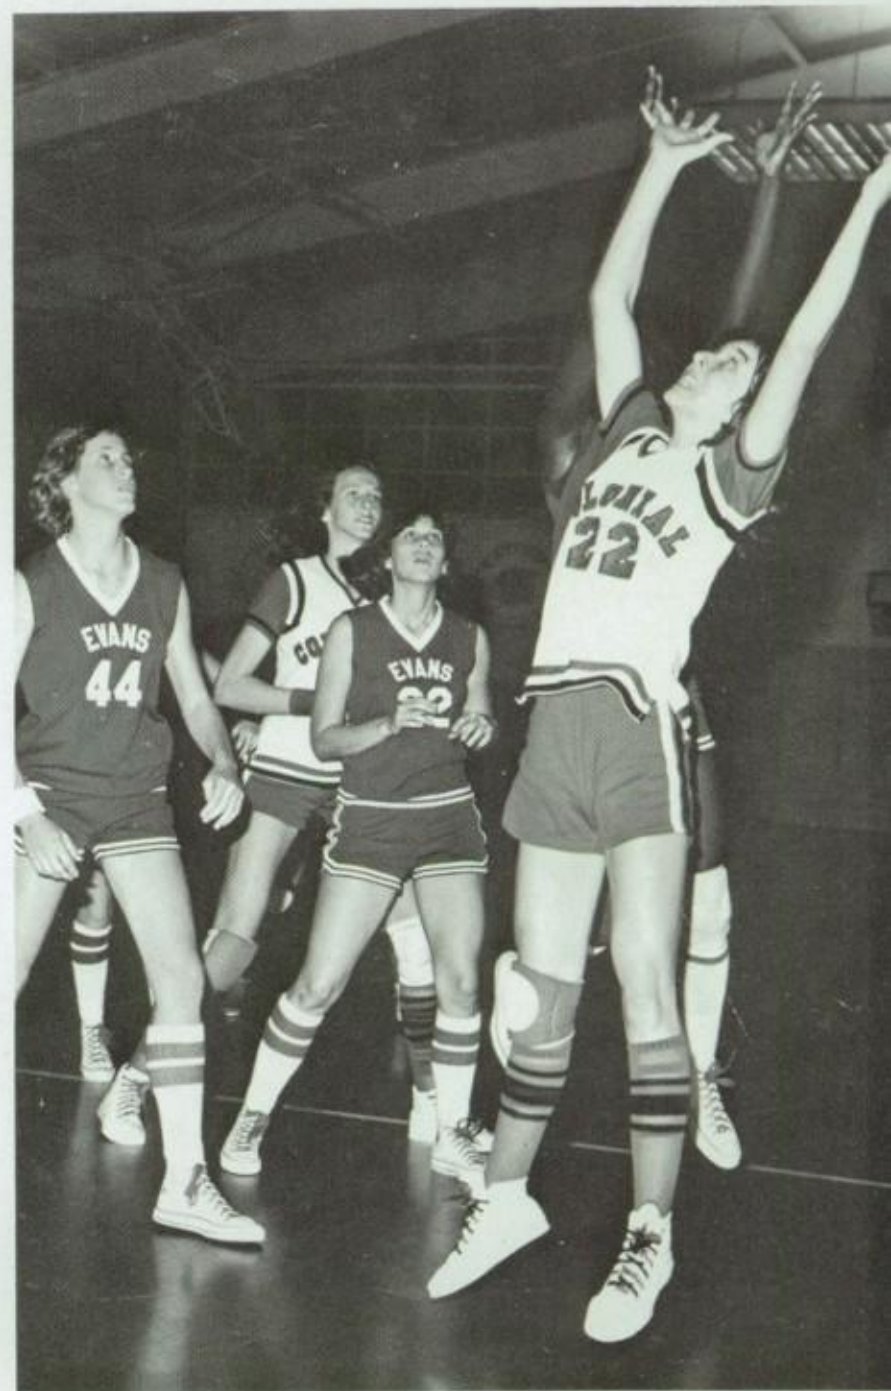

Row 1: Donna Haigh. Row 2: Terri Roach, Robin Kroeplin, Pam Wyatt, Angie Scott. Row 3: Sherri LaCroix, Dorothy Richardson, Sandra Loveless, Kristin Klebacha.

Angie Scott: I gotta make this shot.

Terri Roach: I'll snag this rebound.

Pam Wyatt: This shot could win the game.

Angie Scott: Gotta get out of this mess.

Marilyn Hotaling: Someone better get open, so I can pass it.

Jennifer Fountain: It takes two to cover me.

scene 2 1

JV BASKETBALL

("The score is tied in this crucial game for the lady grenadiers. Let's see what they are gonna do.")

All right girl's, this is it! If we can just make this next basket in the next 18 seconds, it will be the game. So everybody, let's go out and do it! (The ball is passed to a girl standing near the basket.) She shoots, it's two points. We won! Ya'll we won! We did it!

(Back in the locker room.) Boy, I sure can't wait till next year. Huh? Well, all I can say is that I hope I'll be able to make the Varsity team next year. Ya, well, I don't think I would mind too much, being on J.V. again next year, but I think that if I practice enough over the summer, making Varsity should be a breeze.

Row 1: Pam Logan. Row 2: Sandy Reasoner, Jennifer Fountain, Sandy Johnson. Row 3: Marcia Waldron, Lori Lawson, Lisa Martin, Marilyn Hotaling.

Marcia Waldron: Right here, Jennifer!

Watch out Boone, HERE WE ARE!

Sandra Loveless: This one's mine.

Donna Haigh: Another perfect set up.

VOLLEYBALL

(The day of the District Tournaments, with the lady Grenadiers going up against Metro Champs, Winter Park.)

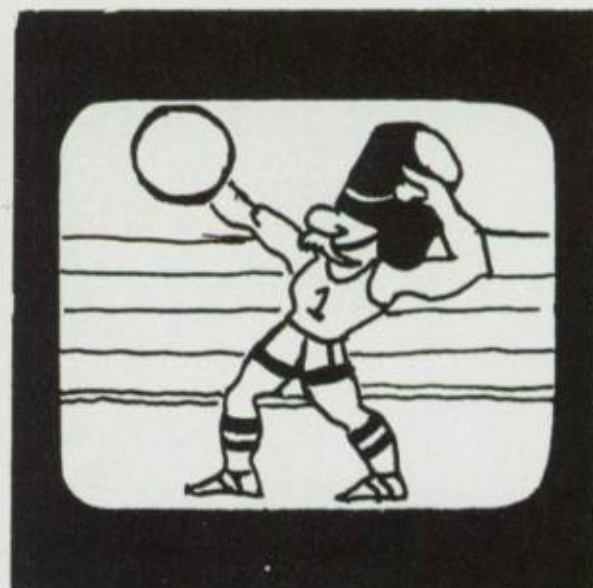

It's really hard to believe we actually made it this far. We are in the District Tournaments! Doesn't that give you a great feeling inside. (She laughs.) Gives you goose pimples, huh?! If we can only catch Winter Park. (Later during the game.) Set it up! I've got it! Kindra! Heads! Up! We only need three more points to take the lead, and the game! Tracy! can you get that one?! get ... it ... over ... Alright it's two more. (The game continues with the score varying continuously. It is now our serve. We are already leading by two points.) We did it! We are the DISTRICT CHAMPIONS!!!

Donna Haigh and Kristin Klebacha: Hands up!

Row 1: Penny Dupont, Debbie Ingram, Angela Scott, Regina Griffin, Sandra Loveless, Penny Stout. Row 2: Dorothy Richardson, Kristin Klebacha, Kendra Lipat, Tracey Heath, Sandy Johnson, Donna Haigh.

Wayne Wright: I should be able to handle these two.

Coach Ziglar: Kick it to the wing!

Kent Henson: It's all in how you maneuver the ball.

Stan Brooks: The perfect chance, the goal is wide open.

David Patenaude: I'm going to give this ball a good kick.

Toby Smith: It's about time you used your head Higgins.

scene 23

SOCCER

("We have spotted two soccer players talking to each other, in front of the boy's gym. Let's see what they have to say.")

Hey David, we play Bishop Moore tonight don't we? Well, yesterday, I heard that we stand a pretty good chance against them. Any way, the game starts at 7:00 tonight, that should give us a few hours to get ready for it.

Well I'm ready for them, how about you? You are? That is great. Well let's get out there and do our thing.

(All during the game, intense concentration fills the minds of each player as the time flies.)

We did it! We really beat 'em! We just made another victory for the Grenadiers of Colonial. Of course we could never give our Grenadiers anything but the best.

Kevin Cox: I'm glad I have all this cush.

Dan Higgins: What a bad trap!

George Concepcion: Hey Hernandez, get open. Let's get loose guys.

Stan Brooks: I got this ball under control.

David Patenaude: I'm gonna take a shot on goal.

Toby Smith: Hey Buddy, eat the dirt.

Wayne Wright and Toby Smith: Alright!!!

Steve Wright: Made a good header.

Dan Higgins: Get ready for this pass.

Stan Brooks: Just one more before the game ends.

Wayne Wright: I just faked out that fullback!

Israel Hernandez: I have the moves of Pele.

Bert Yavorske: Hey, I'm part of the team too.

Toby Smith: I'm gonna kick this all the way to the goal.

Row 1: Johnny Bussart, Glenn Crees, Danny Higgins, Roger White, Orlando Vasquez, George Concepcion, Israel Hernandez, Kent Henson, Scott Finnell, Nick Solomon, Steve Wright. Row 2: Wayne Wright, Toby Smith, Rick White, David Redfield, Stan Brooks, Kevin Cox, Jackie Haun, David Patenaude, Bert Yavorske, Mark Crawford, Jerry Fuqua. Not shown: Arnold Gilmore.

Kevin Cox: Now, I have to kick this one to the center and Glenn Crees: Get the heck out of the way.

Steve Wright: This one's on target.

Dale Haun: I'll clear this to the linemen.

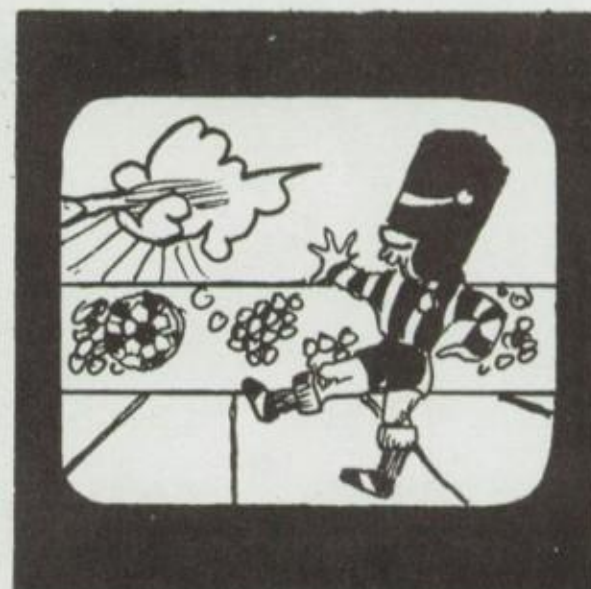

Stan Brooks: Gotta make a good trap on the ball.

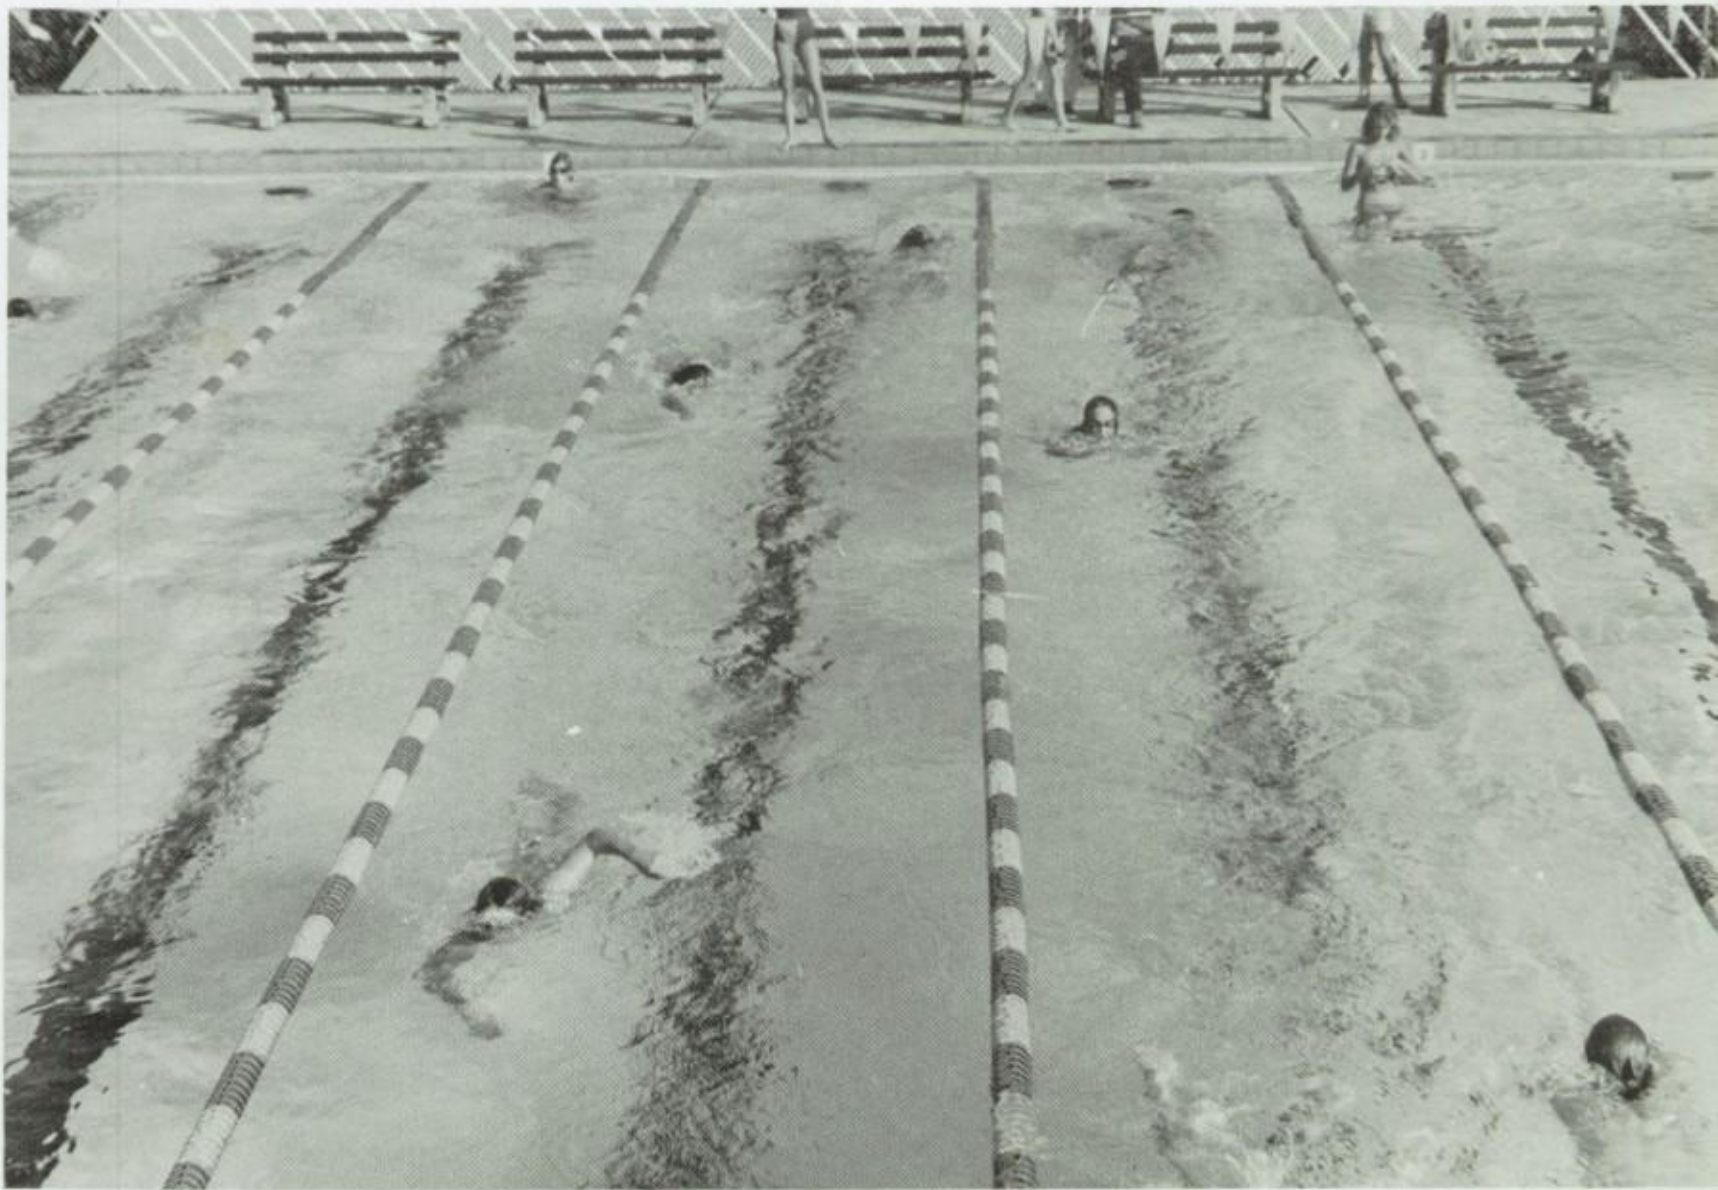

Colonial on the attack!

Bert Yavorske: Break these two and clear the ball.

COLONIAL SHARK ATTACK!!

Ricky Elder: What goes up . . .

. . . must come down.

Tony Tagg: Man From Atlantis II

Coach Carlsen: Do I shoot it like this?

scene 23

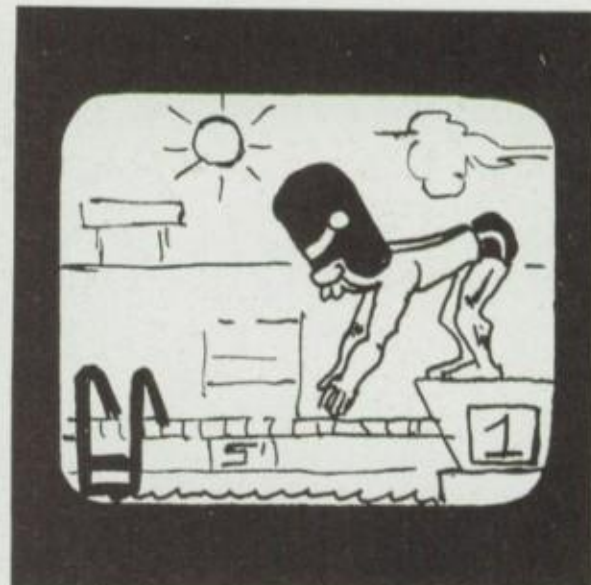

SWIMMING

(Todd and Tony are drying off after the swimteams' practice at Dover Shores Pool. The early morning water temperatures of January are not very inviting.)

Todd, have you thawed out yet? I was afraid the water would turn into ice before you dove in. Anyway, your high dive is great. You've got a good chance for placing in the swim meet in Atlanta this weekend. The girls are really shaping up on their strokes. Lori timed a 53.0 today in the 100 yard freestyle. I can remember when Lori first started swimming, she got all choked up during her warm up laps and we had to throw her a life preserver. Those beginning practices were hilarious! She even tried to swim with one hand holding her nose!

My poor aching legs! I wonder if Mark Spitz ever complained of body pains. With 7 gold medals hanging around his neck, he must.

Well, we had better get going or else we'll wind up swimming to Atlanta.

Jackie Williams: Seems like I've been practicing this stroke all day.

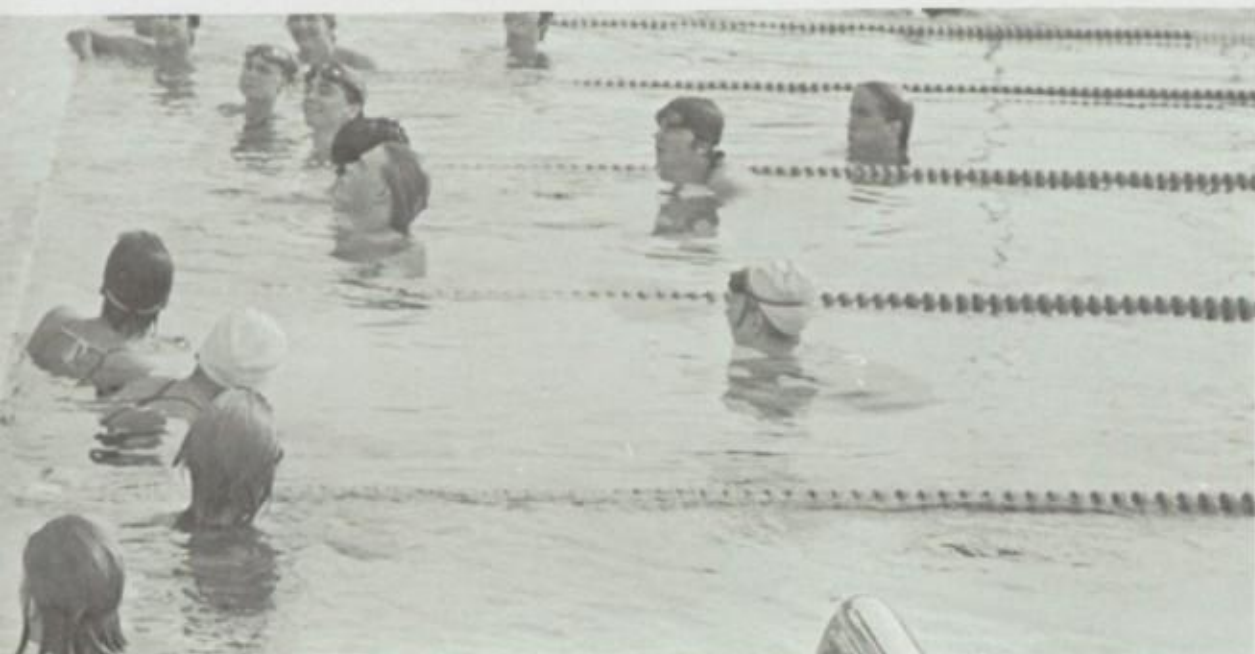

Row 1: Tom Tagg, Tim Hochuli, Mark Mason, Kirk Marshall, Richard Kinas, Coach Wilson, Coach Clark, Row 2: Greg Nester, Ricky Elder, Tony Slehta, Joe Layman, Row 3: Kim Pylar, Madge Hoffman, Lori Hobaugh, Michelle Lyle, Sheri Harmon, Mimi Dixon, Monique Beauregard, Jackie Williams, Lynn Ingram, Row 4: Martin Cook, Jon Radulski, Bucky Duke.

Mimi Dixon: Seems like practice lasts forever.

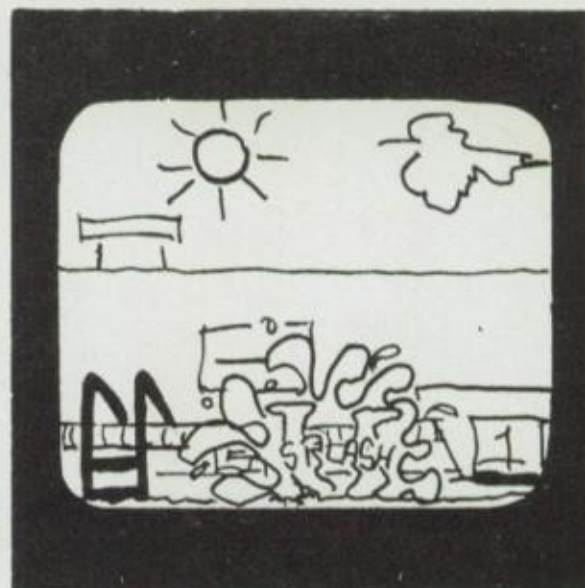

You can't be serious?!!

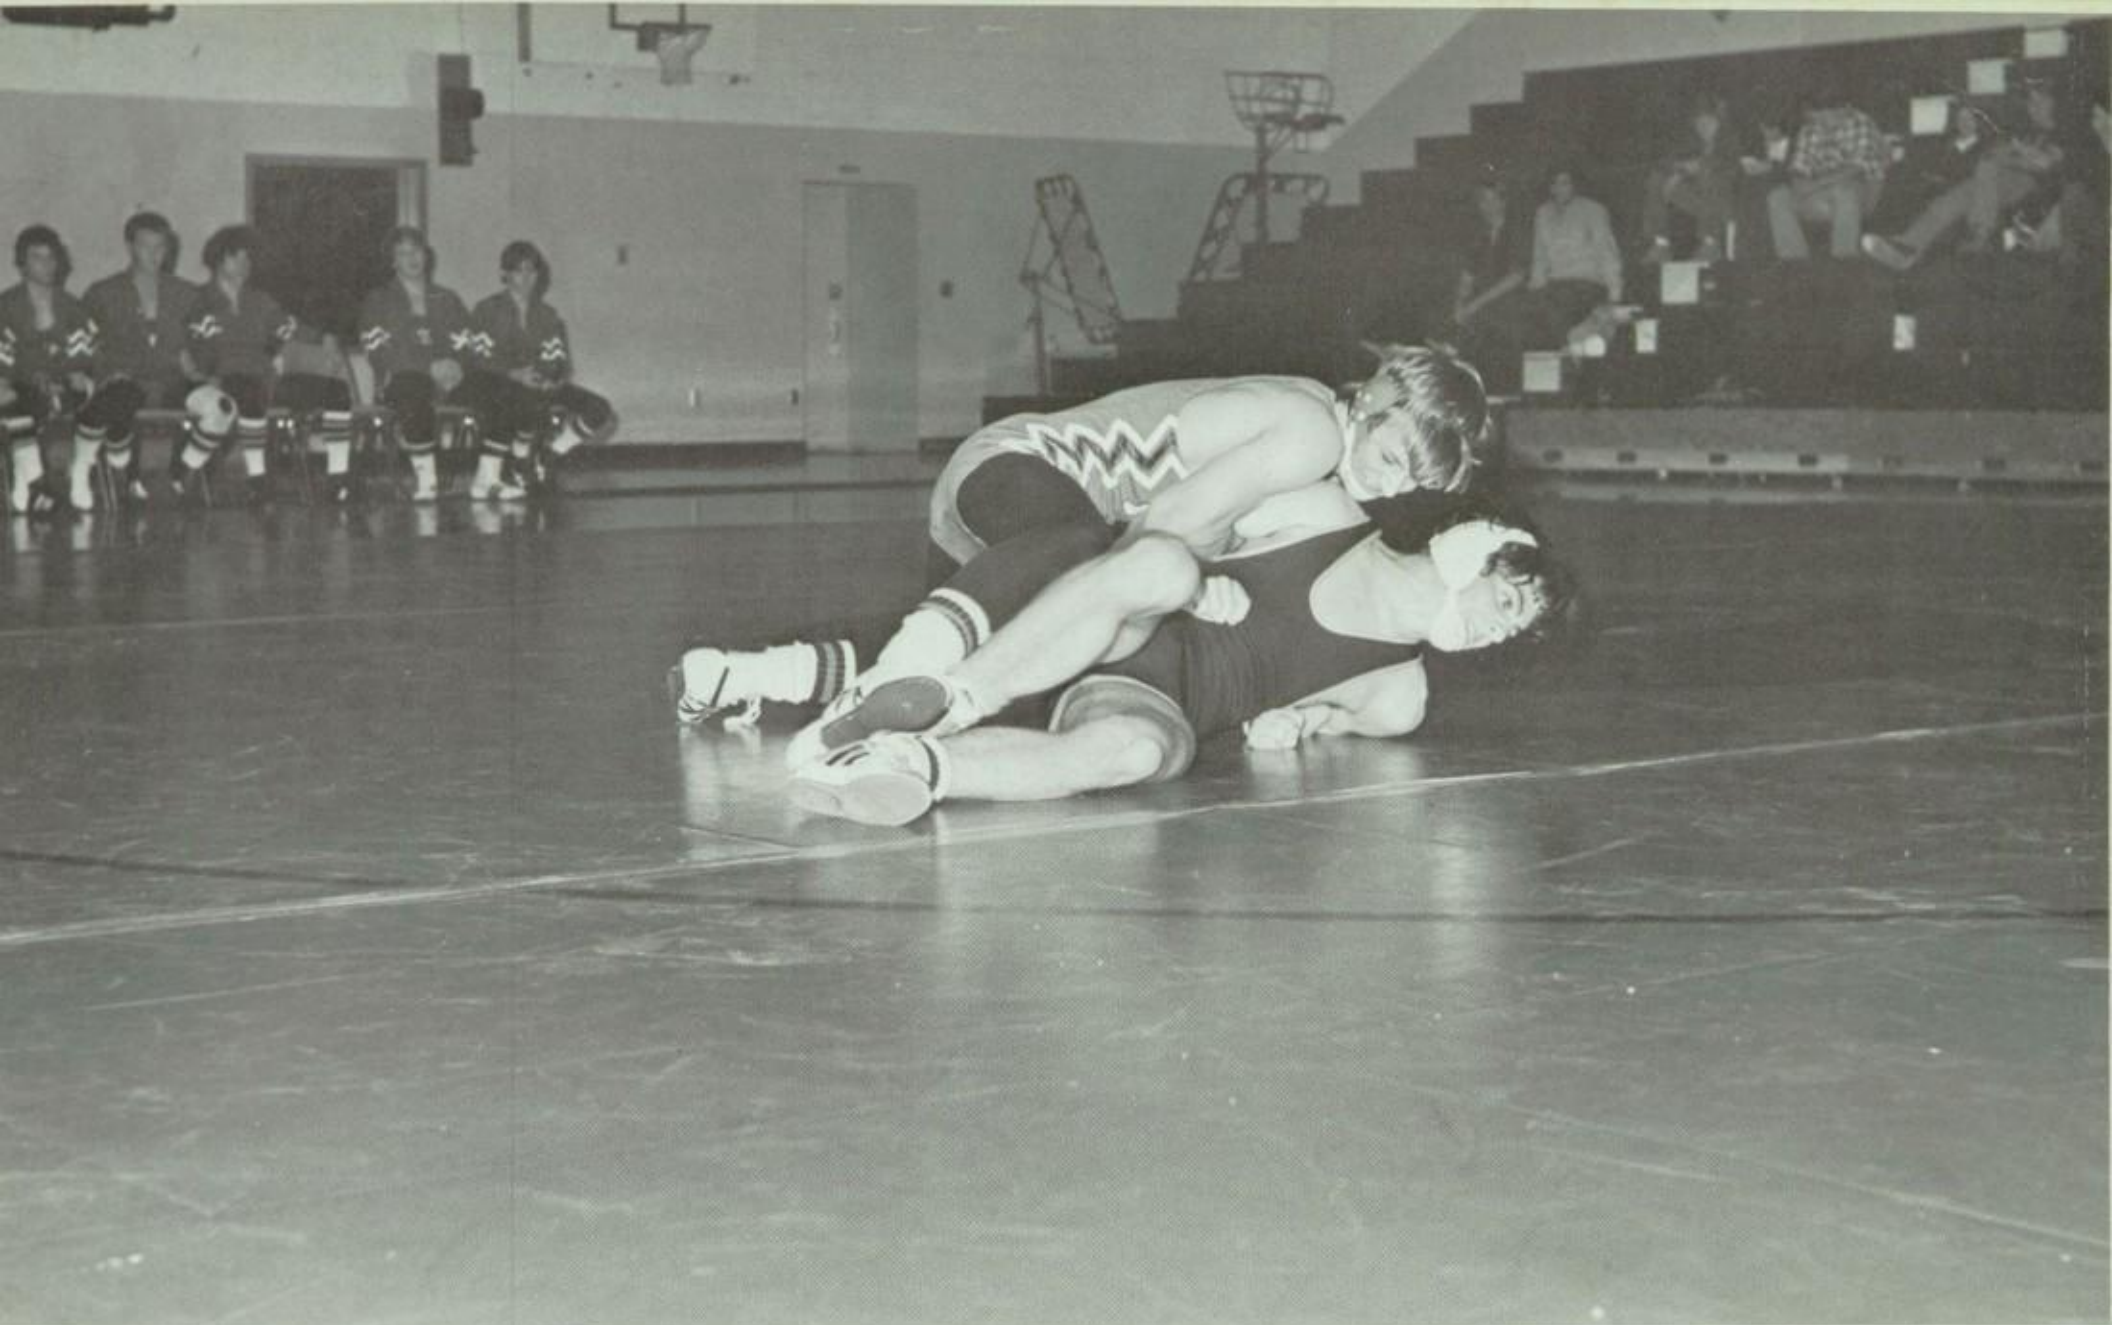

Greg Nester: One more lap and I win.

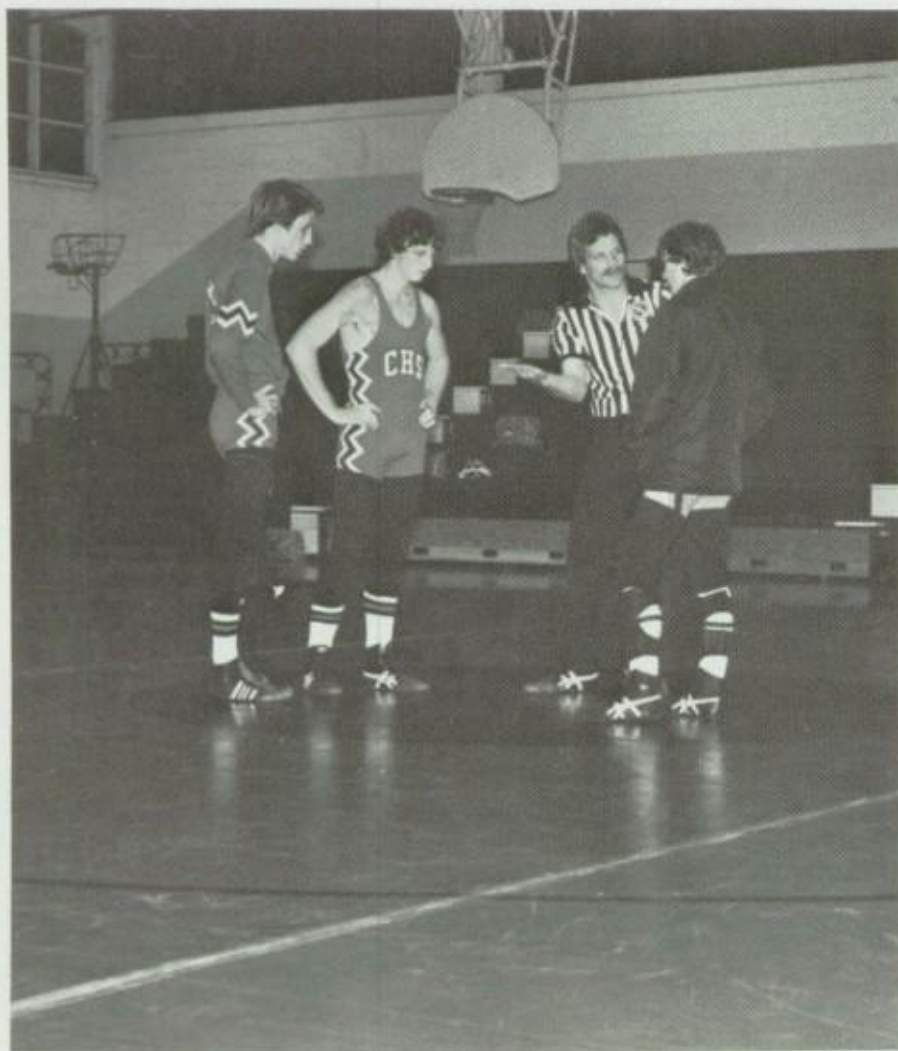

Coach Clark: What do you mean you gotta go now?

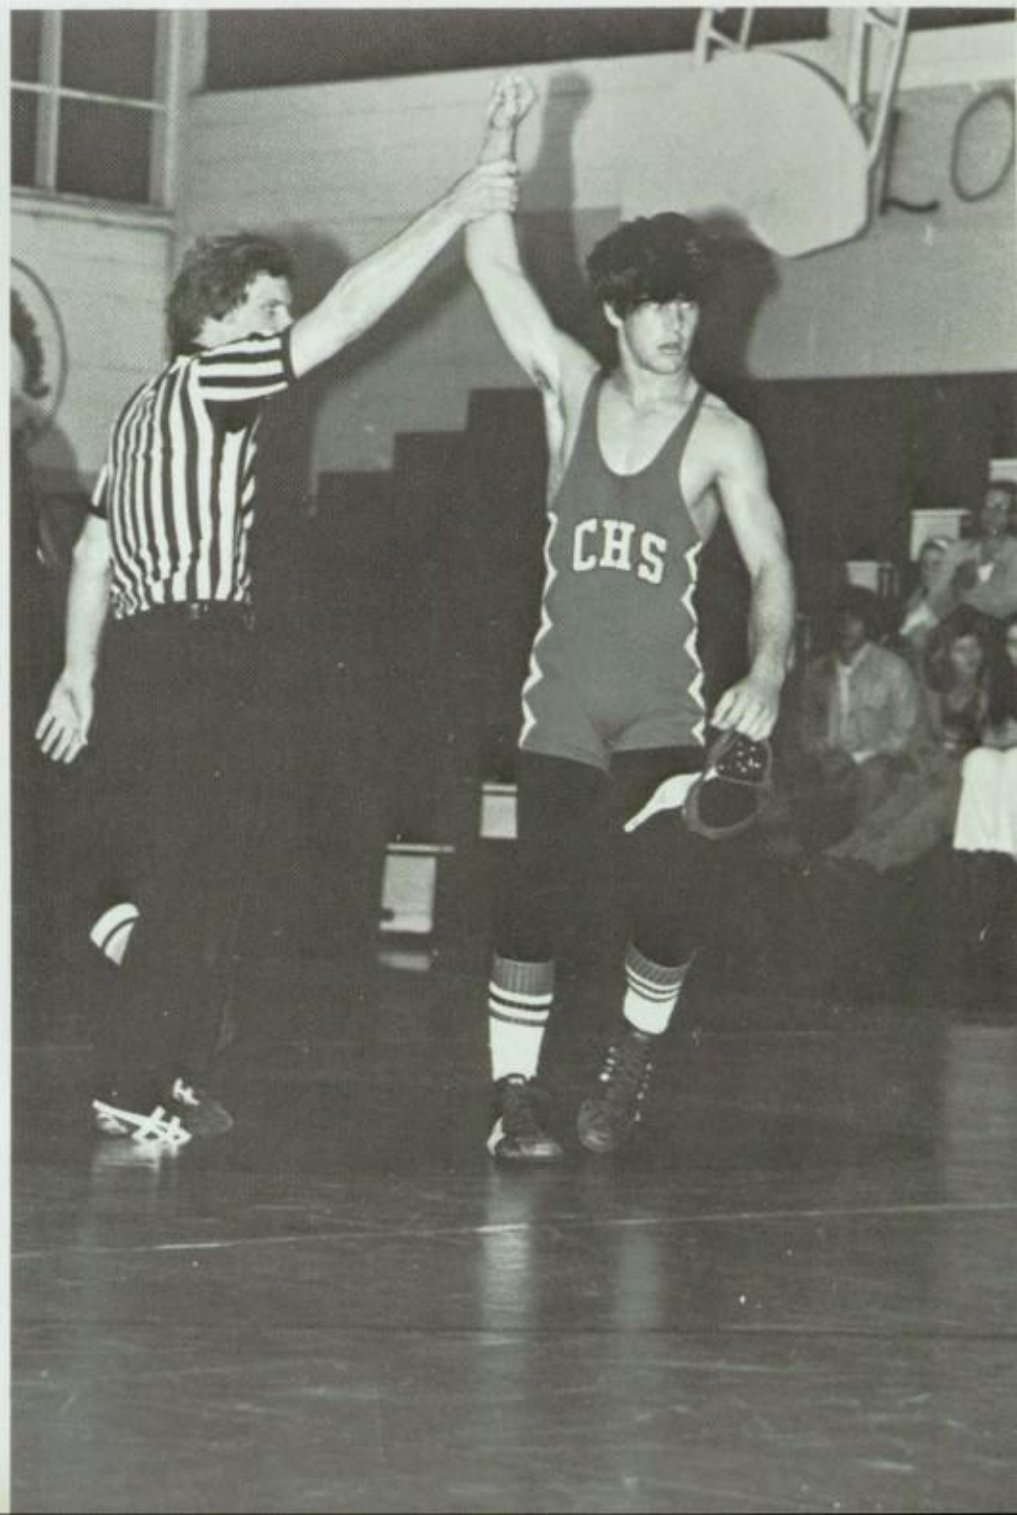

Dana Turgon: Now, if I could only tie him to the floor!

Referee: Believe me, it's not a counterfeit coin.

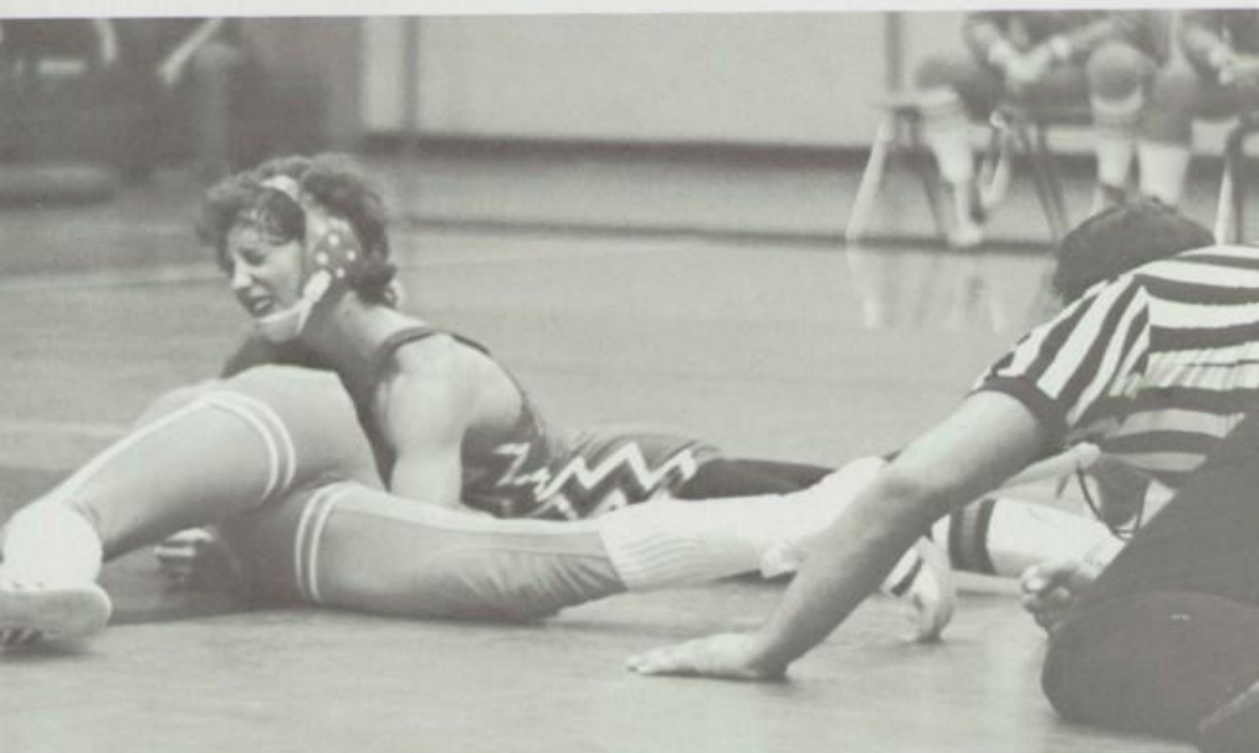

Ron Benefield: Don't look at me like that! You know I won.

Eric Beach: This guy better not try to give me trouble.

John DiDonna: I wonder if Dusty Rhodes started this way?!

Coach Hauser: Just remember, the smaller the dog, the bigger the bite!

scene 24

WRESTLING

(Two Wrestler Aids are concentrating on the wrestlers with watchful eyes.)

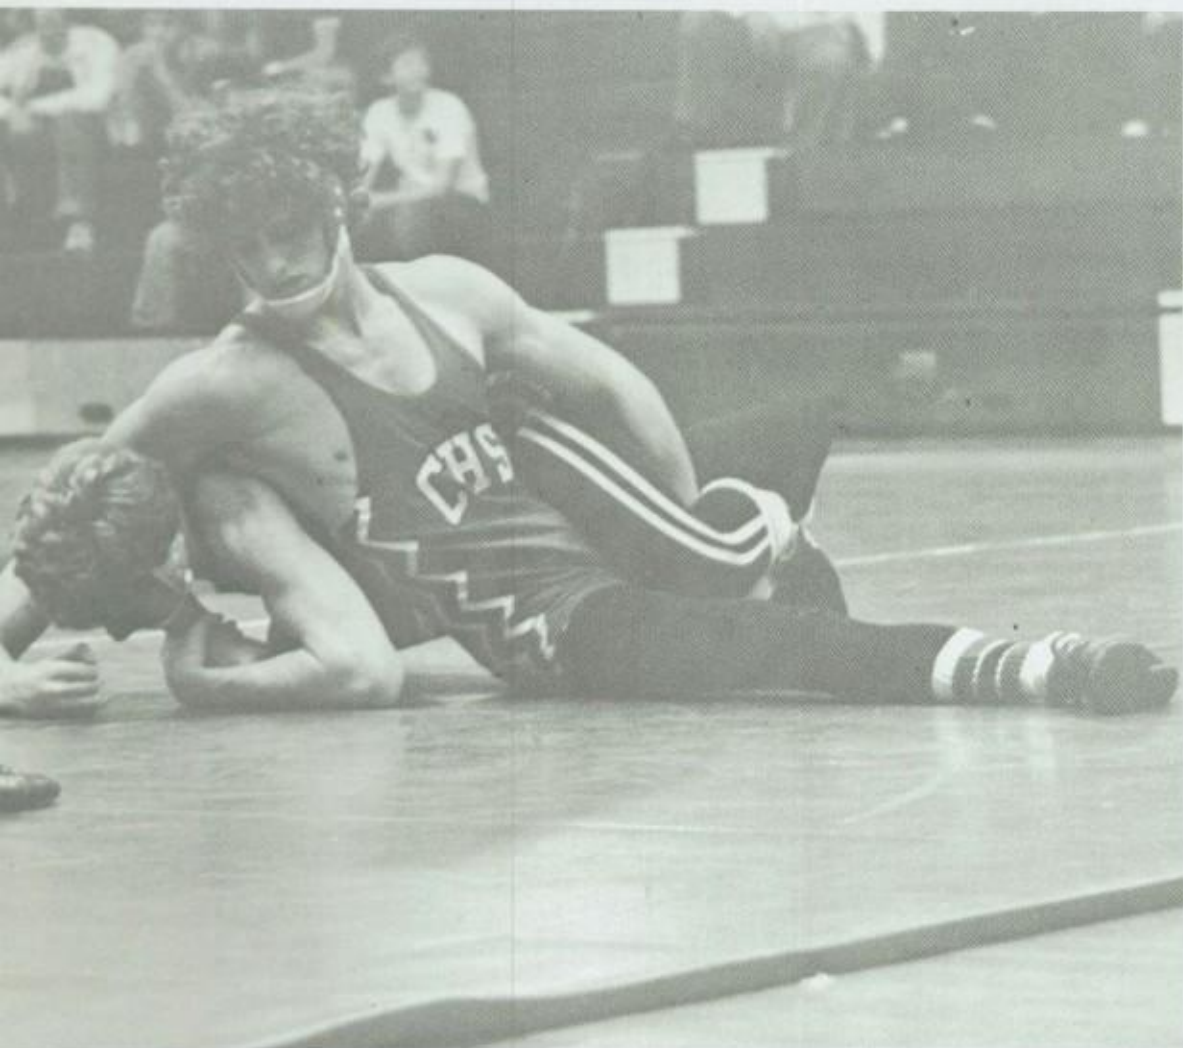

This ought to be a great match Cindy! John Nickerson is going to wrestle next. All we need are six more points to win! (The two wrestlers start the standing switch.) Look at him pin that guy from West Orange! He loves to start the match with the old double leg take down. He's got a great chance with this opponent. I had to make sure he watched his diet last week. You know how Coach is! The team had to run eight laps around the track at practice.

(The opponent slides out and pins John down with a guillotine.) Oh no! How will John get out of this one! (The pressure of the crowd and the events of the match cause Coach to turn his back.) Look, Betsy! John's pinning him down to a "Cross Face" and he's breaking down! (The referee blows the whistle.) Alright!!! What a match! Colonial wins again! Come on Betsy, let's go congratulate the guys!

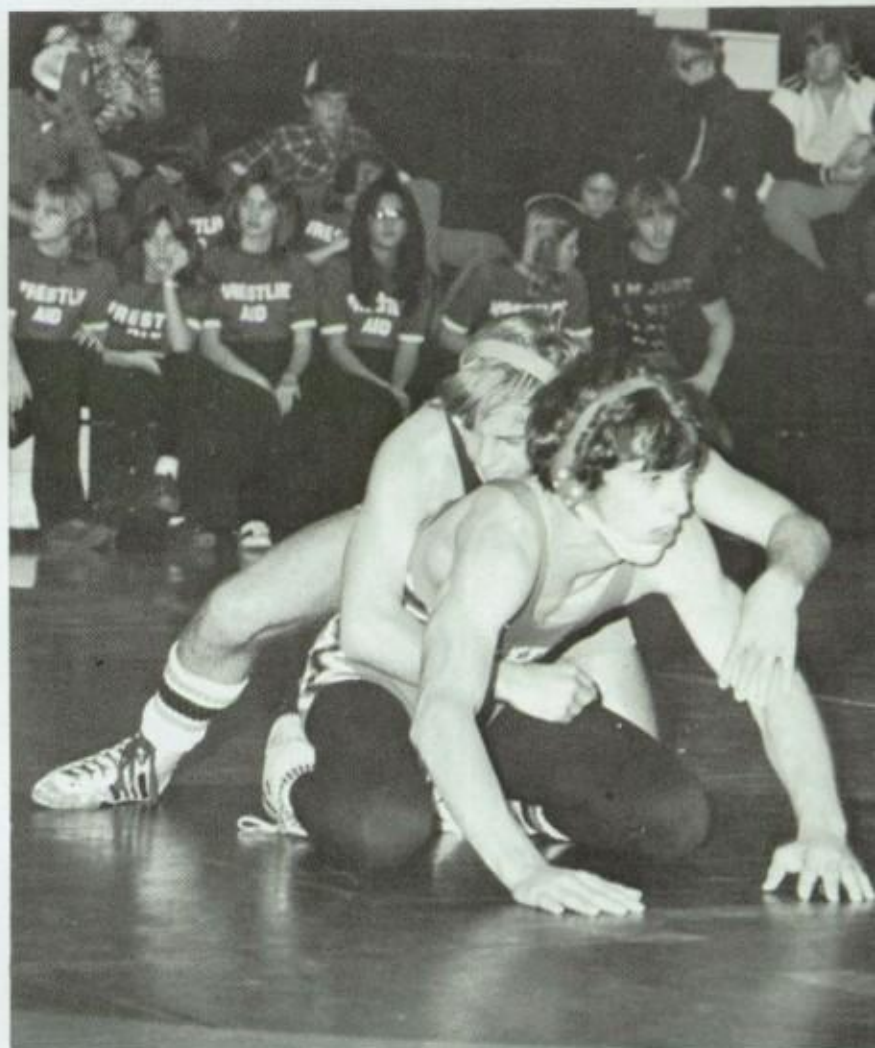

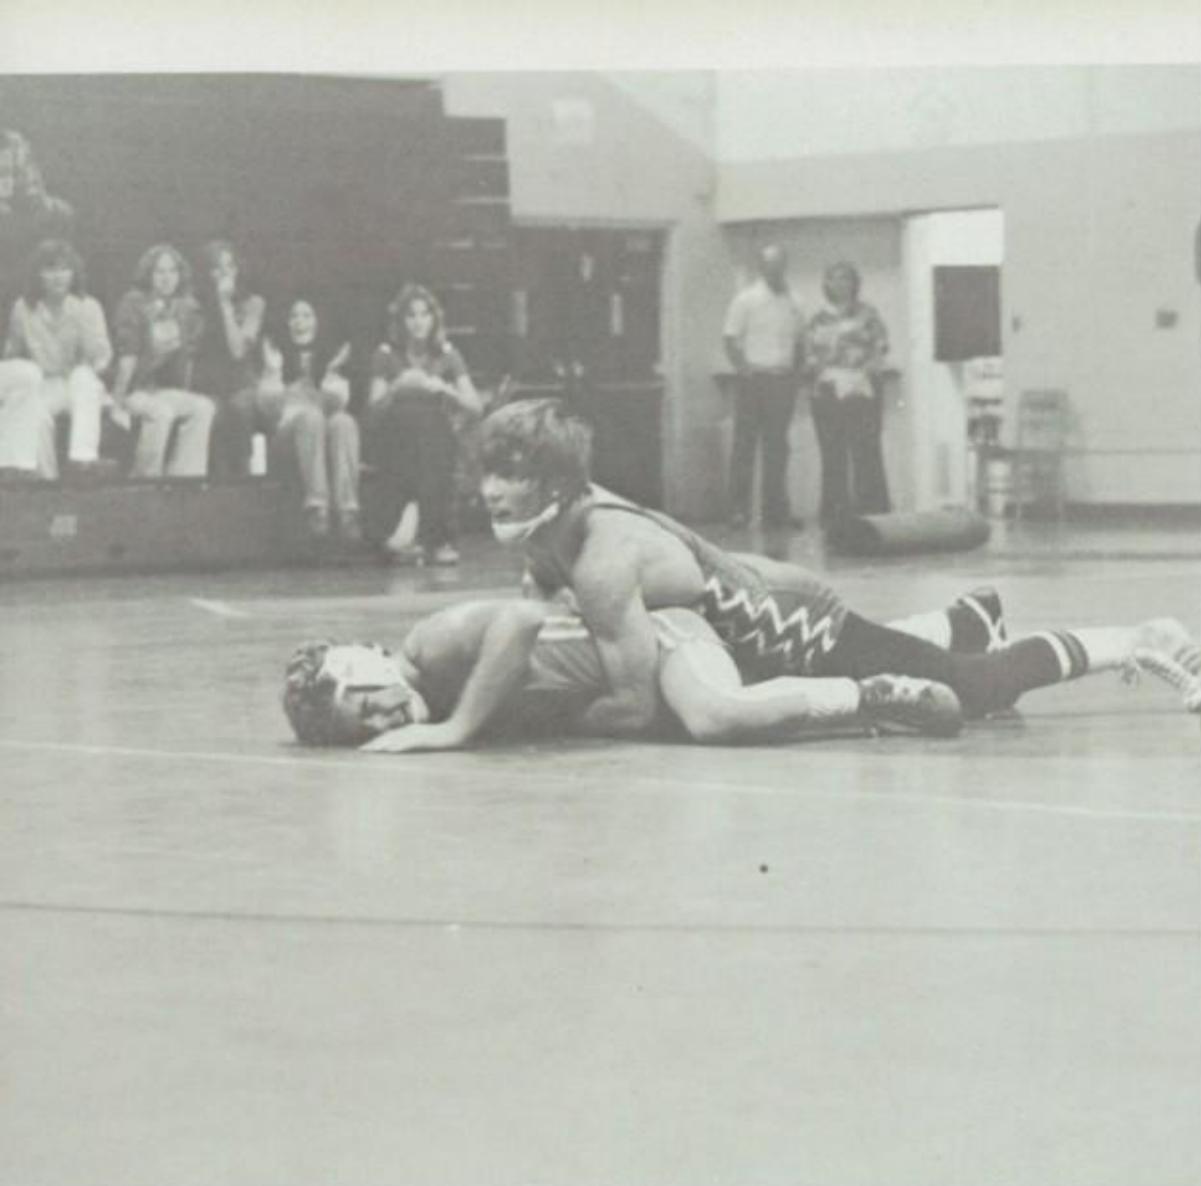

Brad Whittington: Let's just see if you're double jointed.

Donny Corser: I told you to stay away from my girl.

Paul Mazzillo: If I could just pull out of this with a reversal.

Billy Bradshaw: Huh? I wasn't listening, ref!

David Dixon: You're asking for it now!

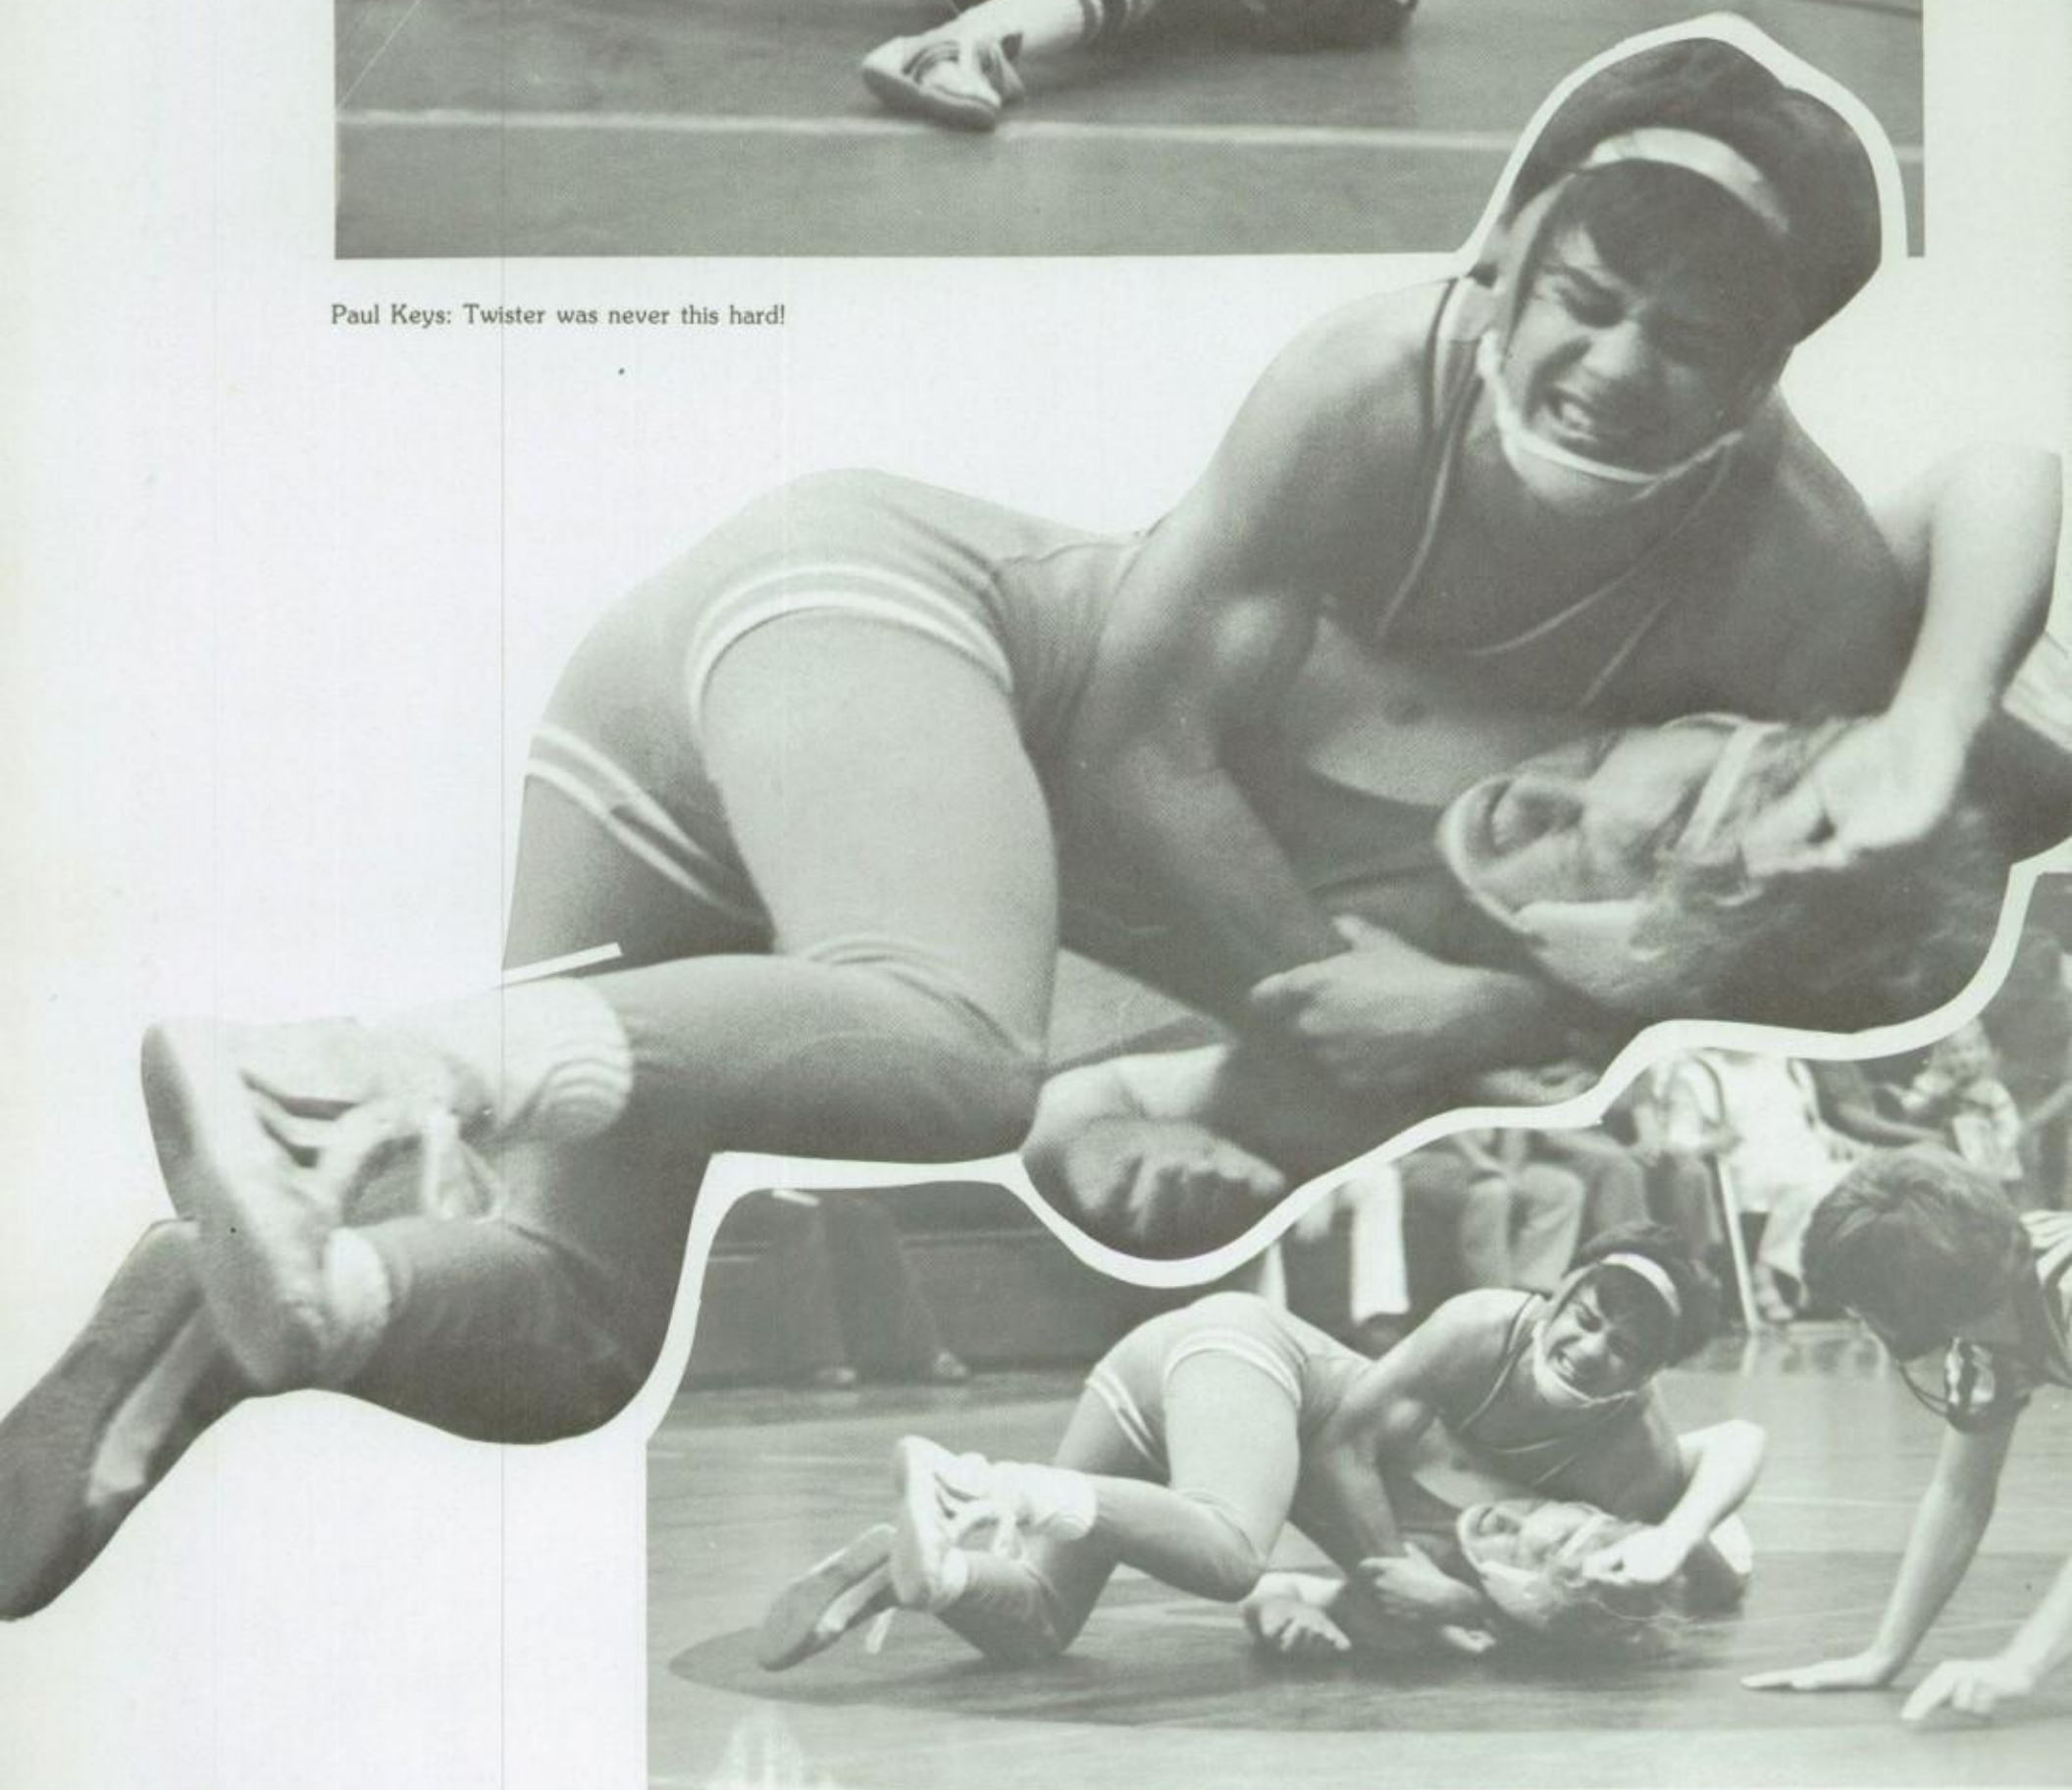

Row 1: John DiDonna, Chris Smith, Paul Keys, Paul Mazzillo, Eric Beach. Row 2: David Dixon, Mike Hammonds, Ronnie Benefield, Paul Humphrey, Bill Bradshaw. Row 3: Coach Benefield, Dana Turgeon, Charlie Knoll, Jerry Flynn, Brad Whittington, John Nickerson, Coach Houser. Row 4: Rick Young, Leonard VanCleave, Guy Chason, Mike Duncan.

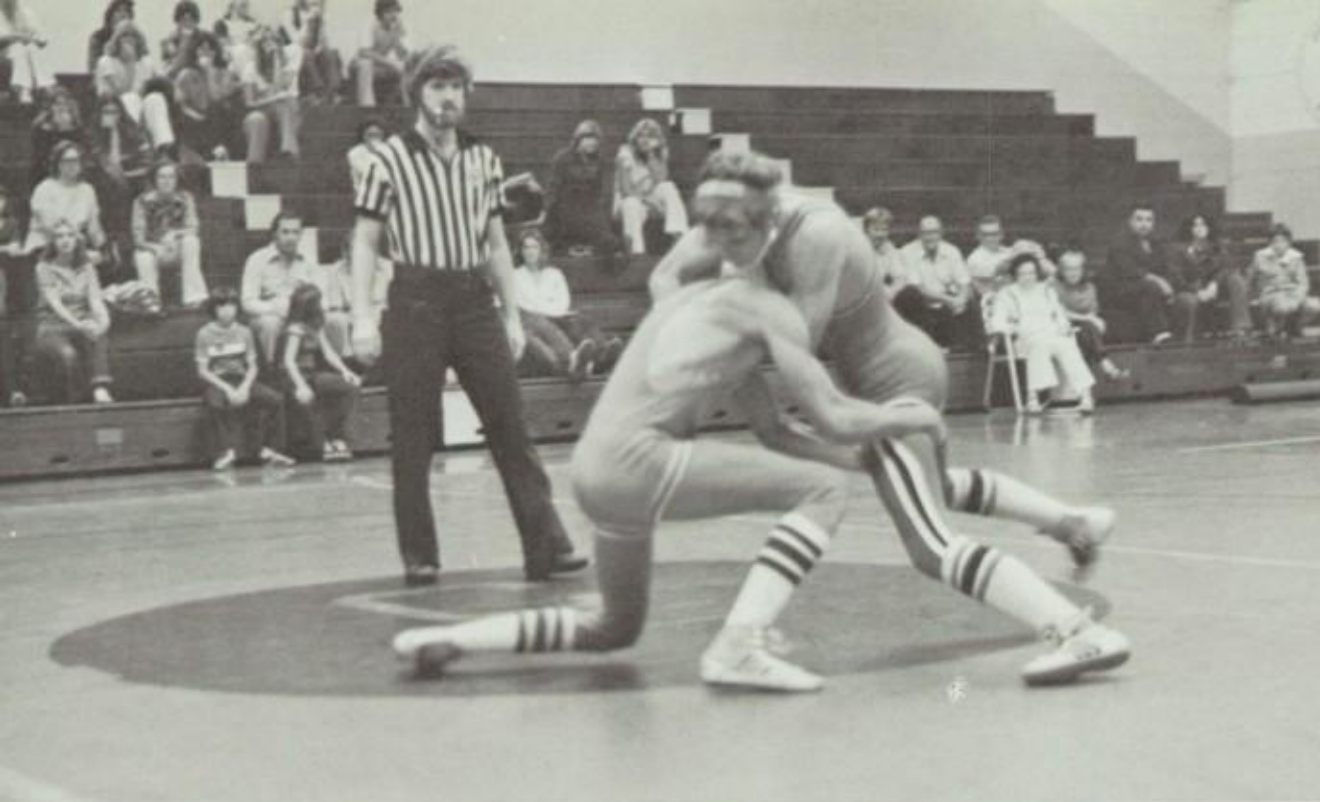

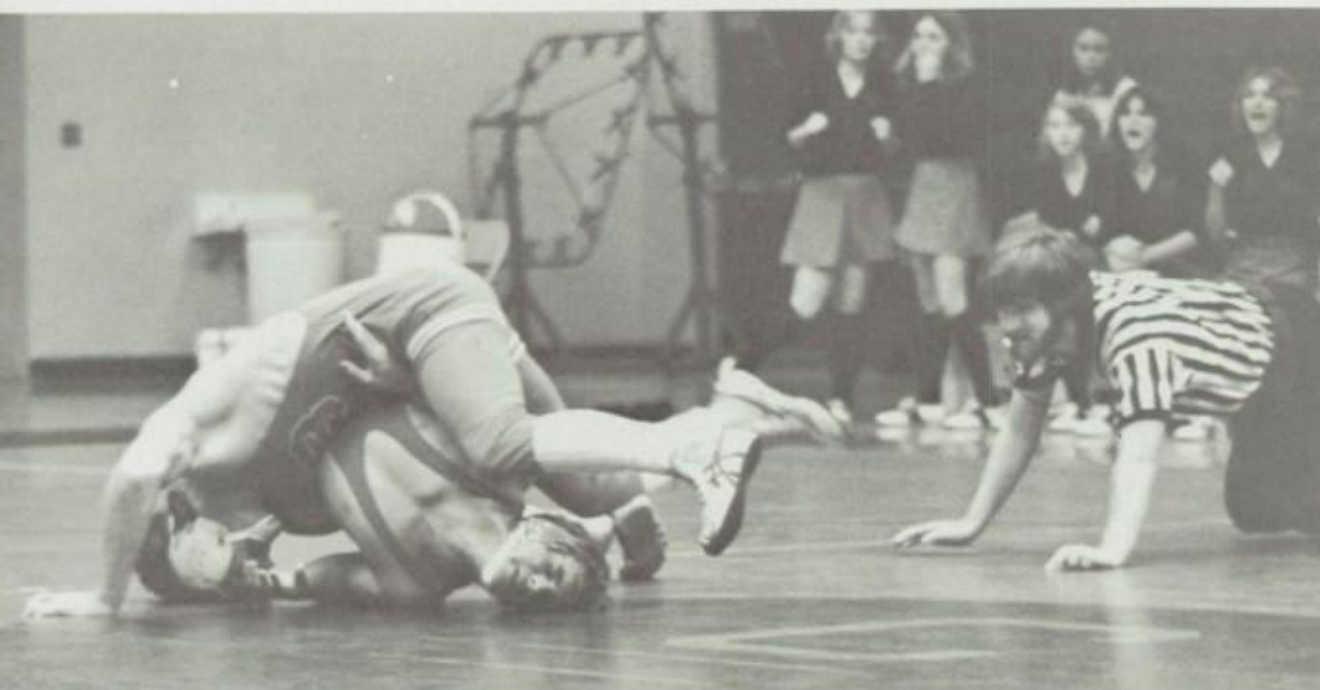

Paul Keys: Twister was never this hard!

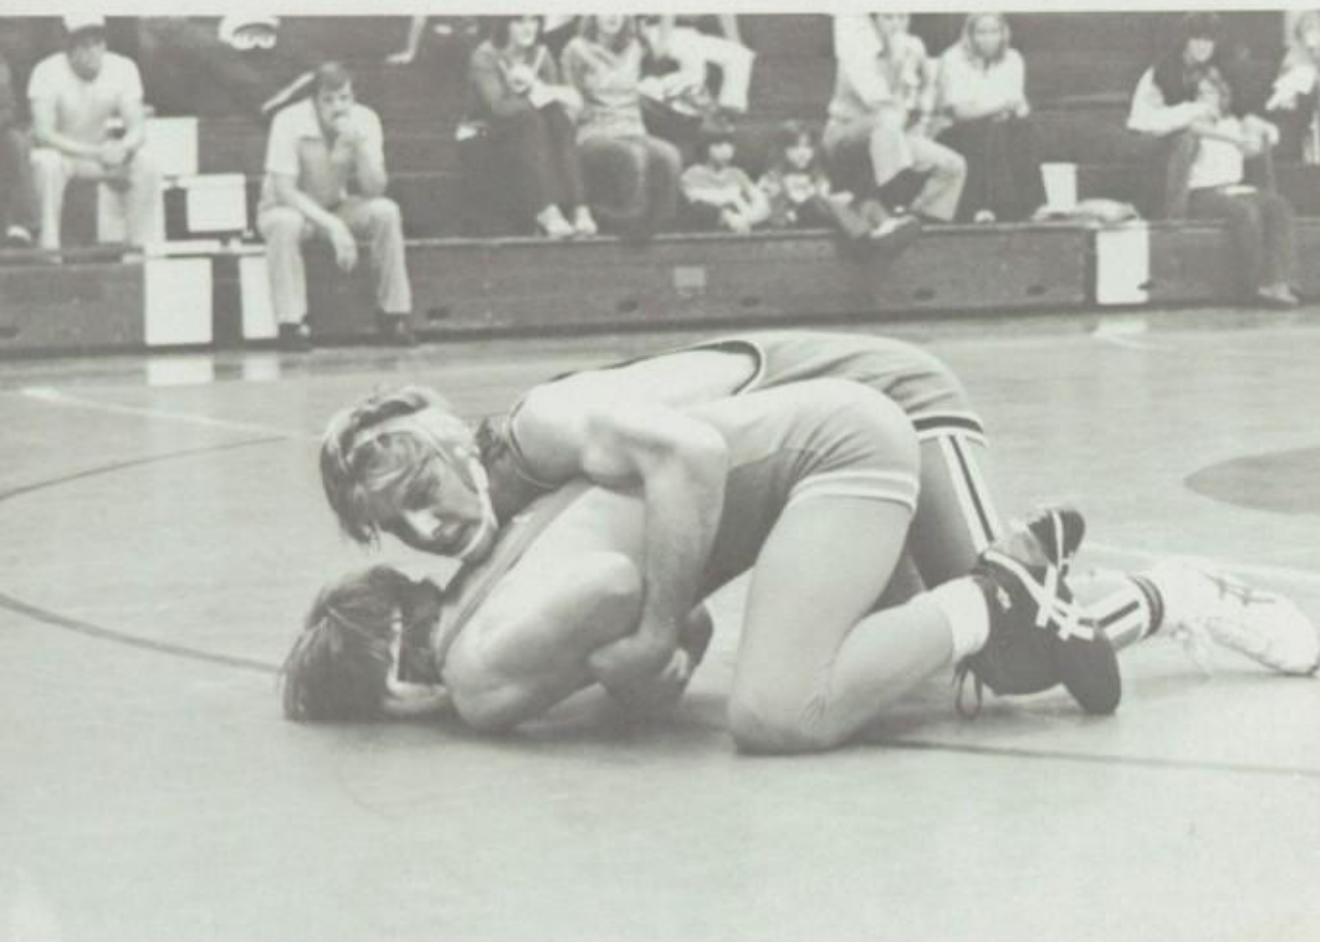

Charlie Knoll: I'll just tie this guy into knots.

Paul Keys: The referee is watching my every move.

Phil Chepenik: I've got to get myself out of this.

Dana Turgeon: If I could only turn him on his back.

Coach Larson: Now that's not too hard.

Mark Garstka: I wonder if Jimmy Connors started this way.

Row 1: Mark Garstka, Todd Radulski, Philip Cooke, Carl Holzapfel, Row 2: John McCormick, Tim Johnson, Chuck Ruddick, Dave Simmons, Tad Sargent, Coach Larson.

Tim Johnson: My hand is as good as new.

Todd Radulski: Ah! What a backhand.

Tad Sargent: I'd love to see him get that one.

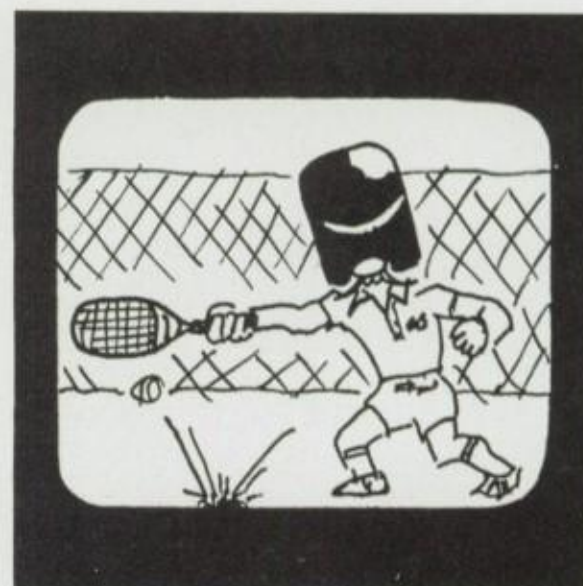

scene 25

BOYS' TENNIS

(Out on the tennis courts after school.)

Get aloof of this! Hey Chuck! Look at this new technique. How many people do you know, can serve a tennis ball while tying their Converse shoes at the same time? Well all it takes is alot of good wholesome practice. Speaking of practice . . . if we want to give Winter Park the brush off next week, we are going to have to get with it and start playing some tennis.

Let's flip a coin to see who will serve. All right, but make sure you get it over here pretty hard. I need all of the help I can get! (Chuck serves the ball.) Oh great. Every time I try to get the ball to go over the net it goes through instead! (“IDEA”) I just thought of a solution to the whole problem. (They both lower the net, Chuck serves again.) I knew it! All it took was a little bit of ingenuity and net lowering, and I can get the ball over every time.

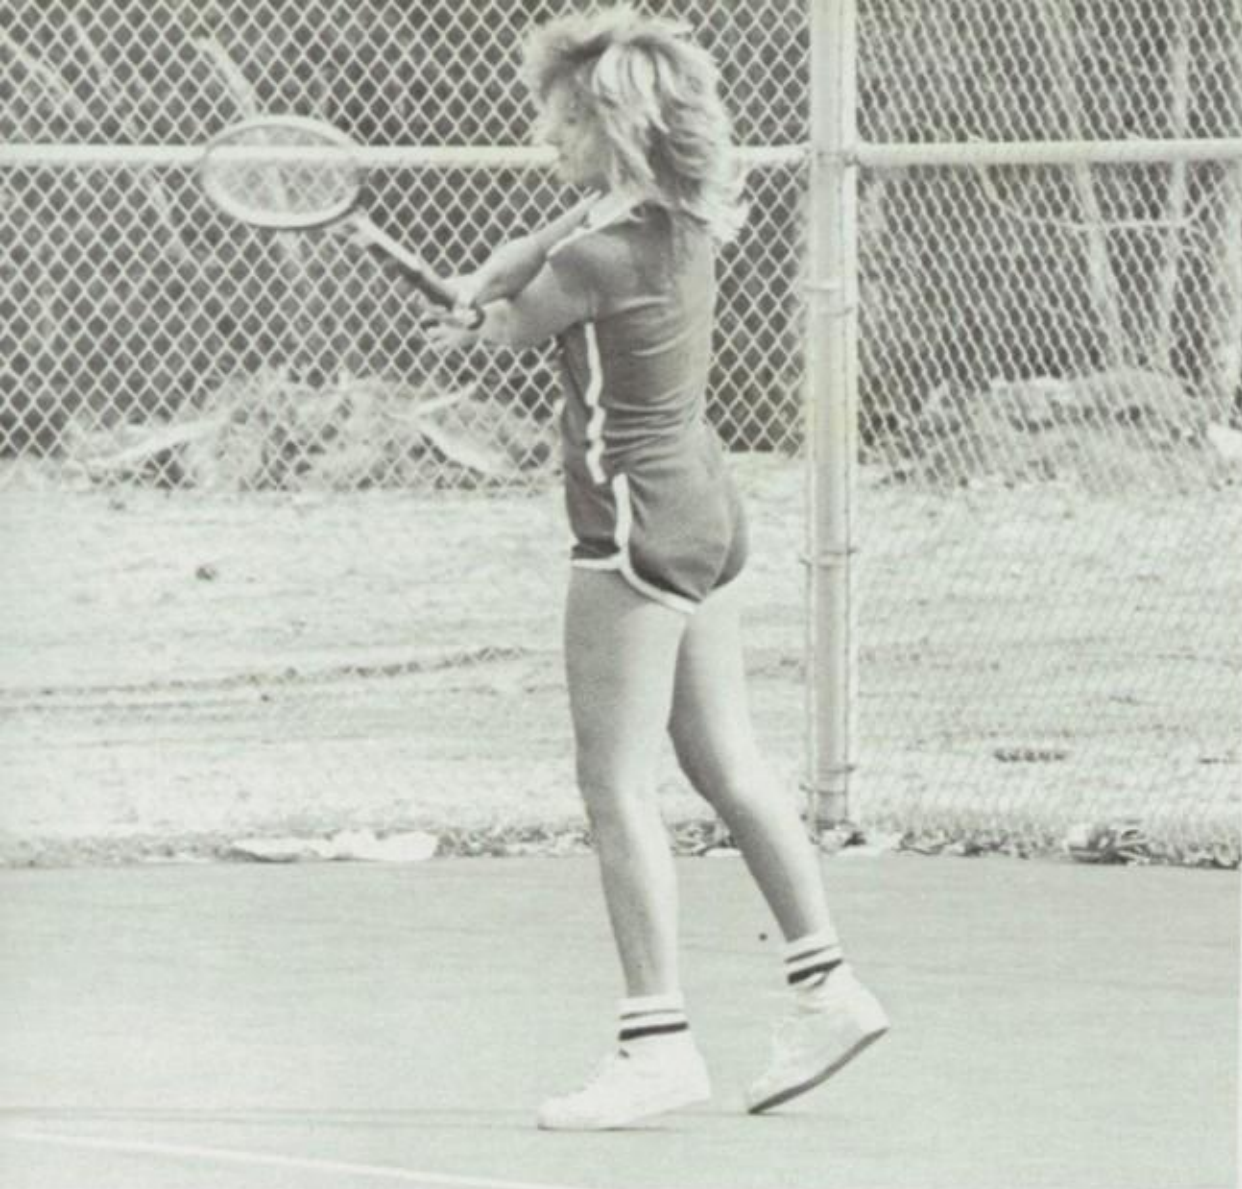

Bridgette Pascal: Well, I've only missed it once.

Leanne Miller: Oh no, I can't see it.

Julie Gibson: I'm ready for the ball . . . now where is it?

Stephanie Winkler: Now that's a power swing.

Row 1: Bridgette Pascal, Julie Gibson, Lisa Serles, Row 2: Lisa Prillaman, Patty Branton, Stephanie Winkler, Leanne Miller, Coach Ackley.

scene 26

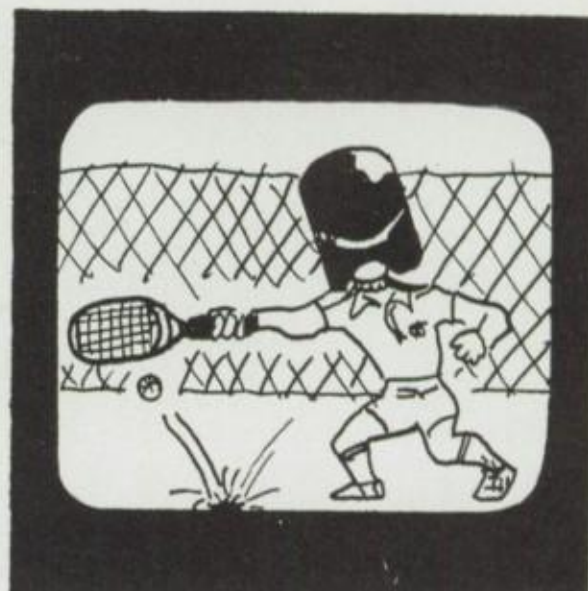

GIRLS' TENNIS

(Two girls are playing tennis on the new courts behind the gym).

Oh no! The tennis ball is caught in the net! I'll never learn how to serve right! Sometimes I wonder if Chris Everett started this way.

Maybe Coach Ackley can give me a few tips. Coach Ackley! Could you help me for a sec.? Thanks. Well, the only problem I have is serving. Look at my tennis ball in the net. That's how good I serve. What should I do? O.K., thanks for the help.

Now, let's see . . . pivot, and swing the arm straight back and stroke out. Oh no! Where did the ball go? Forget it! How about you serving? (Her opponent serves the ball.) Concentrate on the ball. Here it comes. (Smack!) Great. Now all I need is to do that a few more times. (Smack, the ball bounces off the court.) Oh well, it looks like love!

L. to R.: Andrea Calabra, Sharon Lawson, Sheryl Andrews, Nanette Nicoulin, Coach Herman, Diana Turgeon, Christy Meola, Julie Cirone, Susan Taylor.

Julie Cirone: I hope I don't fall from here.

Christy Meola: I hope this doesn't cause split personality.

Sharon Lawson: Look out Olympics, here I come.

Cheryl Andrews: Now I do a swing and a twist then ...

scene

GYMNASTICS

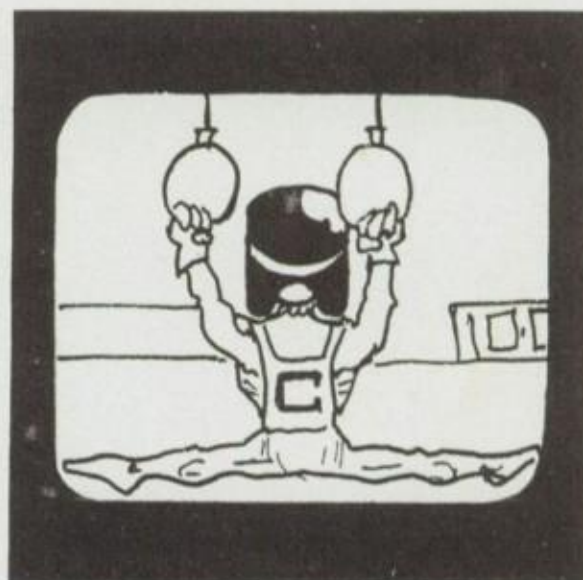

(Two girls are warming up in the gymnastics room.)

Ya know Cheryl, one great thing about exercising and being in gymnastics is that it is as much fun as it is work.

In one hour of doing these stretches, bends, and twists, you can lose 300 calories. If you're on Coach Hermans diet of slim milk and vegetables, you won't ever have to worry about your weight.

Once I get my muscles limber, I will gain flexibility needed for competition with other schools. (The horse, the uneven bars, and floor mat routines are other events judged for grace, technique, aptitude and skill.)

Another thing I really enjoy is when I practice and work out, I keep my muscles toned and it also enables me to have a stronger hand at tennis.

Row 1: Don Sweat, Terry Munroe, Richard Brennan, Gary Wilson, Winn Moore, Travis Meeks, Tom Brennan, Row 2: Andy Conomos, Bob McWilliams, Robert Cowart, Mike Miller, Scott Campbell, Gary Keymont, Coach Nelson.

Scott Campbell: Look at that golf ball sail!

Winn Moore: Eat your heart out Arnold Palmer.

Coach Nelson: How do you start this thing?

Coach Nelson: I wish they wouldn't keep taking off without me.

scene 28

GOLF

(Two young men approach the golf course, where they will practice for a tournament.)

"Hey! Bring those clubs over here! Where are all of the golf carts at? There are absolutely none left. What are we going to do? We certainly can't walk! What? Where? Hey, that's great! For a minute there I thought we were going to have to put our leg muscles to work.

If we plan on getting anywhere on the green, we're gonna have to leave now. (One hops into the little cart.) Well, hurry up! You want to drive? You don't have a license! You don't even know how to drive! I bet you don't even know where to put the key! O.K., O.K. I'm hurrying!

(They drive on and a few minutes later ...) What? Where are the what's? The clubs? We don't have the clubs! You're kidding! You're not kidding. Turn back! We can't exactly play without golf clubs. (They return to the club house.) Either the clubs are getting heavier or my arms are getting weaker. What ever it is, we're late! If Coach notices that we're not there, he'll be furious! Don't worry about the dumb golf balls! We've got to go! (They quickly get into the cart and turn the key) Oh No! IT WON'T START!!!

Tim Weatherbee: I got this bar cleared.

Tim Lafortune: It's hard to get this thing to go anywhere.

Row 1: Tony Harmon, Ed Maxwell, Bill Atkinson, Jim Bott, Phil Chepenik, Chris McLeam, Damon Fountain, Gilbert Garcia, Grant Garcia. Row 2: Kemal Hall, Jeff Muth, Russ Thompson, Richard Israel, David Wersinger, Pat Thompson, Pat Merlet, Jim Driskel, Bob Harde. Row 3: Bart Morrison, David Kull, Danny Rivers, David Demianovich, Russ Bennett, Delino Heim, Troy Hill, Kenny Way. Row 4: Alan Zembower, John Marxualm, Bill Marcella, Roy Newman, Mark Thompson, Ed Gabriel, Alan Clark. Row 5: Tim Weatherbee, Arlie Brown, Randy Brown, Gary Osburn, Jim Bridgman, Jim Brock. Row 6: Clayton Miller, Carl Minear, Mike McCrary, Jeff Lee. Row 7: Coach Martin, Coach Shuttleworth.

David Wersinger: If only I could pull out in front.

Richard Israel: Don't these hurdles seem to get taller and taller each time we run?

Pat Thompson: It's not as easy as it seems.

scene 29

BOYS' TRACK

(Two guys finish up their last lap on the 440.)

All of this running and practicing for the track meet this weekend is really wearing me out. There are so many track and field events, and all of them require so much practice. For instance, look at broadjump. Did you know that there are more than three different types? I always thought the broadjump required you to simply "jump", but there's the standing, running, and some kind of hop, skip and jump type. When I first started in track, I thought that I would do something easy like the hurdles or high-jump. Easy? I knocked the hurdles over as fast as they could stand them up! Coach Shuttleworth would just make me try something else. Now I'm one of the best on the team! Sure, I complain alot, but I wouldn't give up the challenge for anything. Race you to the locker-room?

Richard,
It was great having you in my 5th period class. Maybe we'll have more classes together next year. Good luck in the future and Best wishes always.

Love,
Pat
Thompson

The finish line is just up ahead.

Jim Bott: Give me a minute to get set.

Colonial's "Bionic" Men!

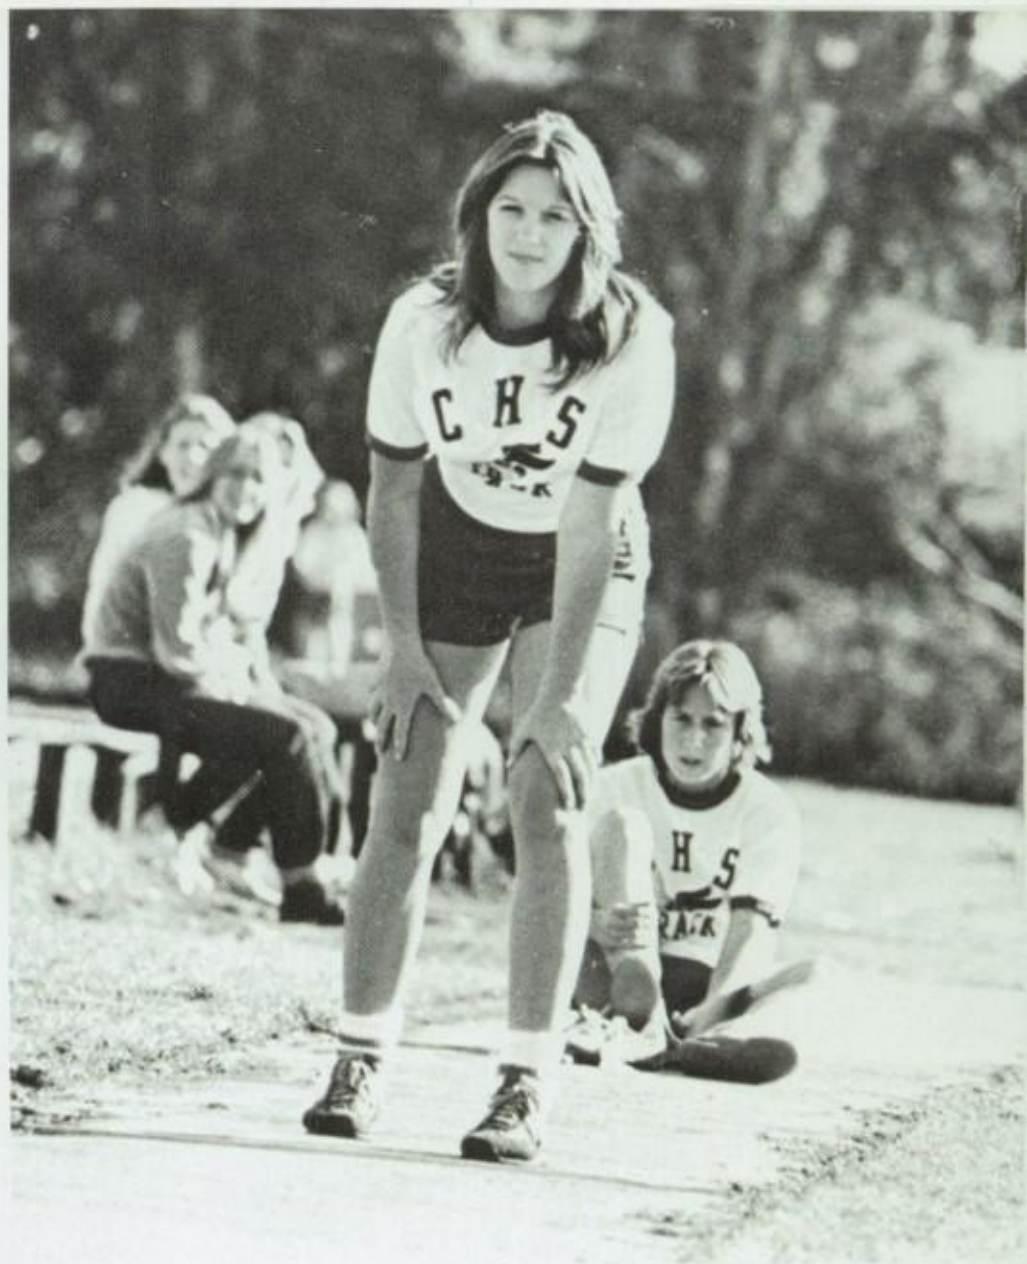

Phil Chepenik and Jim Brock: "KING TUT"

On your mark, get set . . .

Regina Griffin: I have to concentrate on my take off.

Barbie Wilson: I just have to think up and over.

Sunday Brown: I hope I land alright.

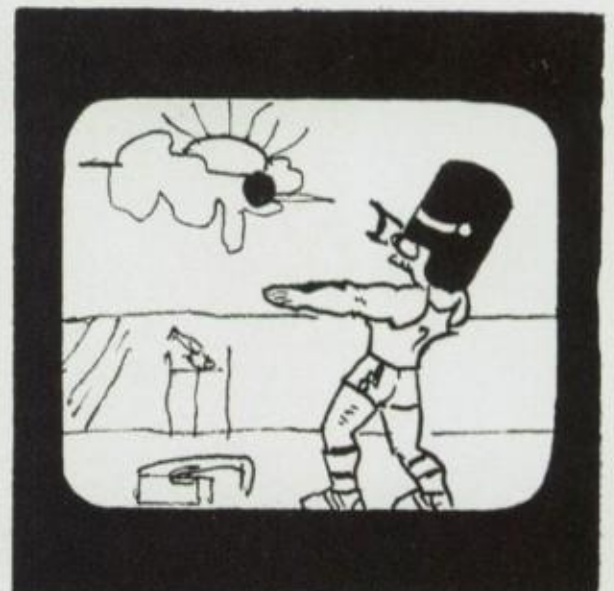

Gale Jablonski: I've got to pick up my pace to win.

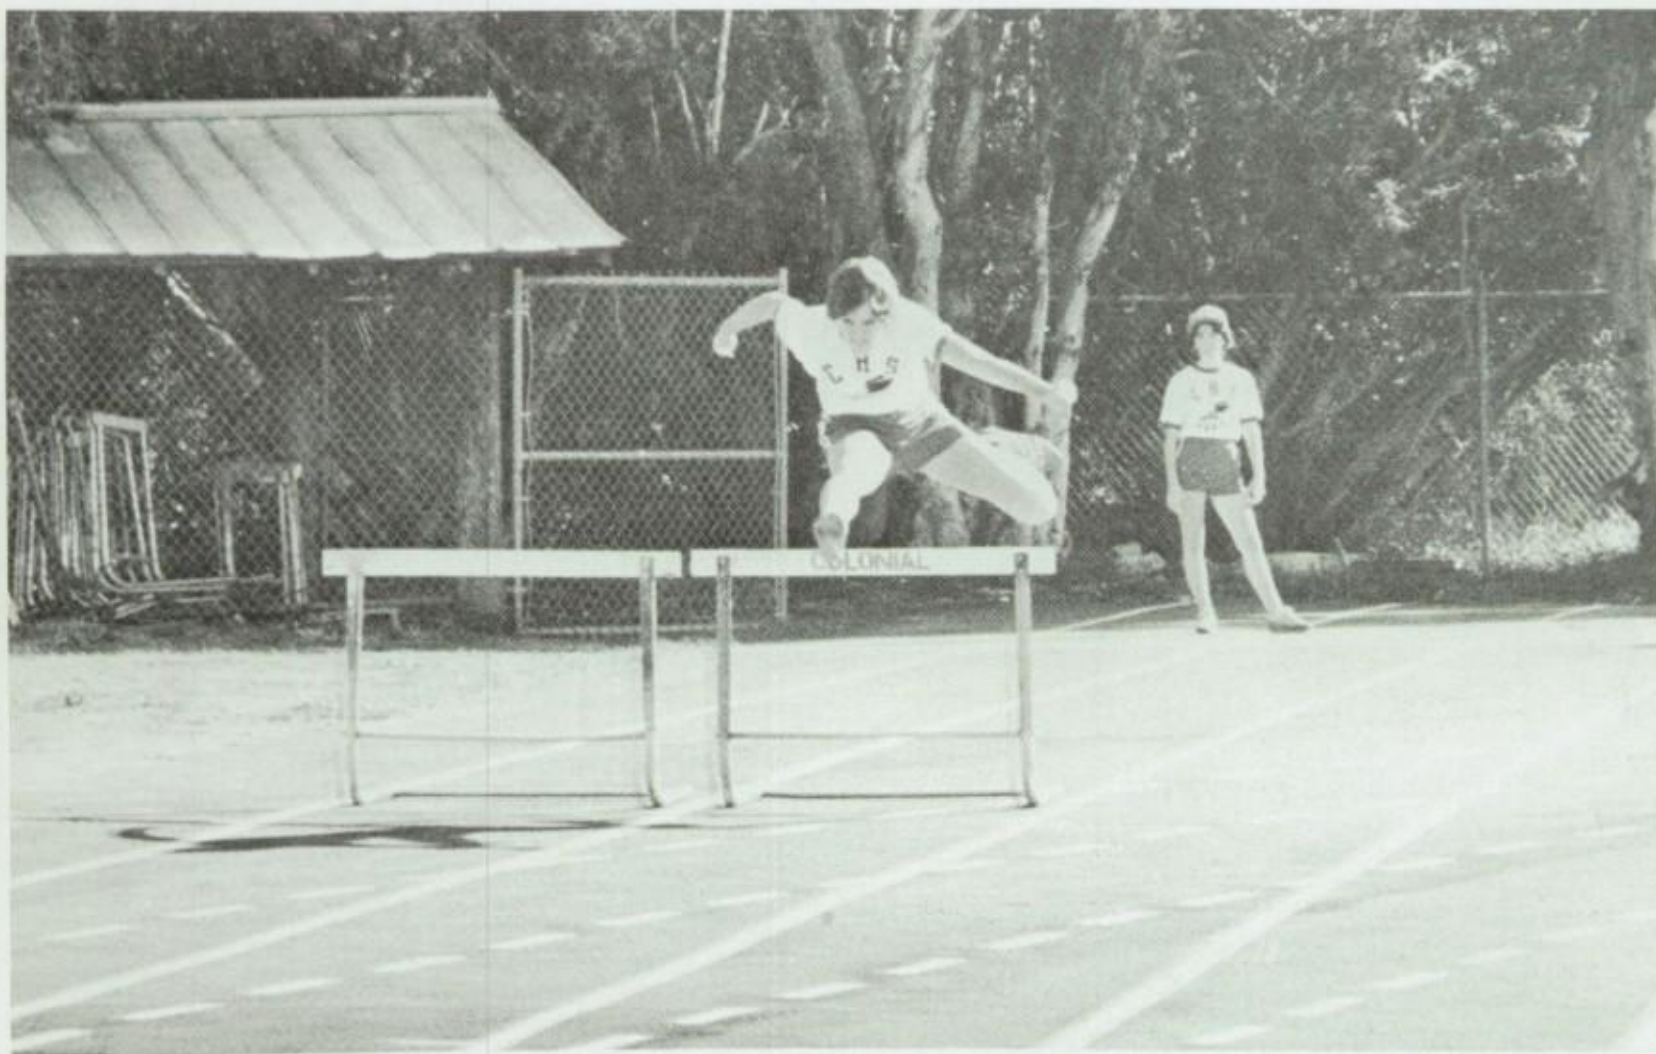

scene 30

GIRLS' TRACK

(Two girls walk out to the track after school.)

There sure is a big difference between running through the country and running on a track. All of those trees, and flowers, the tall grass, and mud aren't there for you to get your feet into. All you have on a track is asphalt. What kind of times have you been coming up with? The mile? You want to get your times on the mile, huh? Well that's good that you practice so much on a single event like running, but did you ever think about going into things like the shot put or the discuss? You haven't? Well maybe you ought to practice with it for awhile and see if you could do it and besides, you might enjoy it too. Oh well, you just think about it, but for now, let's get a little running in. How about going for eight laps? If we can run those without too much trouble we should be able to do well in the meet Saturday. (She develops a blister over the week. Saturday, the day of the meet.) What? On ya I'm fine, it's just that my foot is bothering me a bit, it's probably nothing. (She takes off her shoe.) Blister or not, I'm still going to run this race and win!

Sunday Brown: I feel like I am floating on air.

Regina Griffin: And Jamie Sommers thinks she's bionic!

Kerry Higgins: Hurry up! I smell lunch!

Ann Oliver: I hope this is softer than it looks.

Jeff Martin: Hey, first base, look alive!

Danny Smith: And he's out at the plate.

Tommy Shaver: That one's right in the ole strike zone.

scene 31

VARSITY BASEBALL

(The late afternoon sun sets over the silent baseball field, while in the distance fans walk away cheering on Colonial's victory. The dust on the diamond is settled down, but the whispering wind carries the exciting events of the game.)

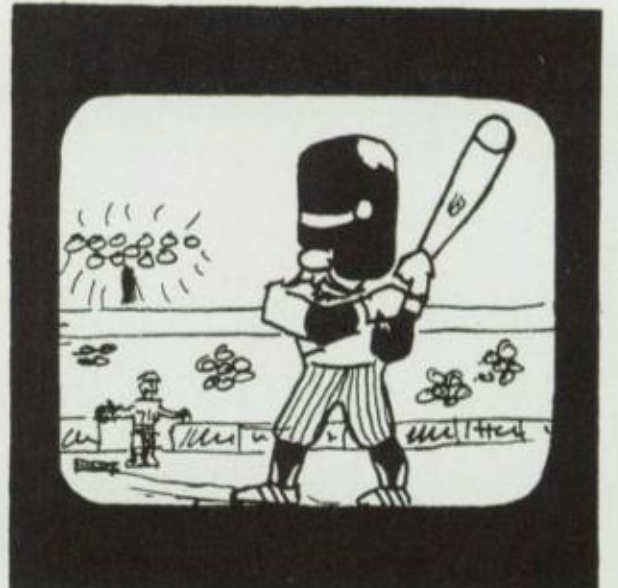

The crack of the ball hitting the bat draws everyone's attention, to the 'lil slugger' at home base. Tony slams it for a double while the opposing team drops the ball like a hot potato. (Coach Marvel is having a pep talk with his mighty men in the dug out, discussing tactics for the game.) "Men we're in a tough situation, there are two outs and a man on 2nd. The opposing pitcher has a full count on the batter. Chuck, all we need is a base hit and we've won the game" Stepping up to the homeplate and facing the meanest and toughest pitcher, who thinks he's "Catfish Hunter". ("Catfish" walks him to first base. The blaring from the bleachers welcomes the next batter. Tim is their only hope. The wind up . . . the pitch . . . and it's a high fly ball. It's up, up, and sails out over the left field fence. The fans go crazy! (A woman is eating popcorn by the handfuls. She chokes over the great play by Tim.) " . . . What a hit! It's a homerun, right over the fence! Look at him go! What a game!!!"

Charlie Clay: Just wait a second Addonizio!

Coach Marvel: I think we've got the spirit to win.

Coach Marvel: Let's get out there and show them how to play baseball.

Mike Williams: Put it right here in the glove.

Mike Williams: Where is the bat that I hit the home run with?

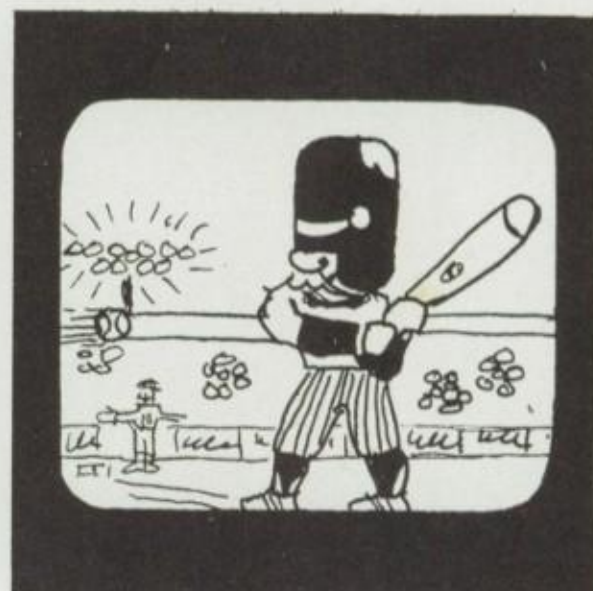

Rick Fountain: Lets have another one and burn it in there.

Steve Huff: Let's warm up guys.

Mike Cartas: Darn! Look at that one sail.

Row 1: Robert Addonizio, Steve Huff, Danny Smith, Brent Simpson, Jeff Martin, Tony Runk, Tim Dawkins, Chuck Schall, John Thomaszewski. Row 2: Coach Marvel, Keith Bostwick, Mike Cartas, Fred White, Tim Foscett, Kevin Reyer, Rick Fountain, Mike Williams, John Searles, Charlie Clay, Pat Shaver, Larry Hicks.

Chuck Schall: Right in the glove again!!

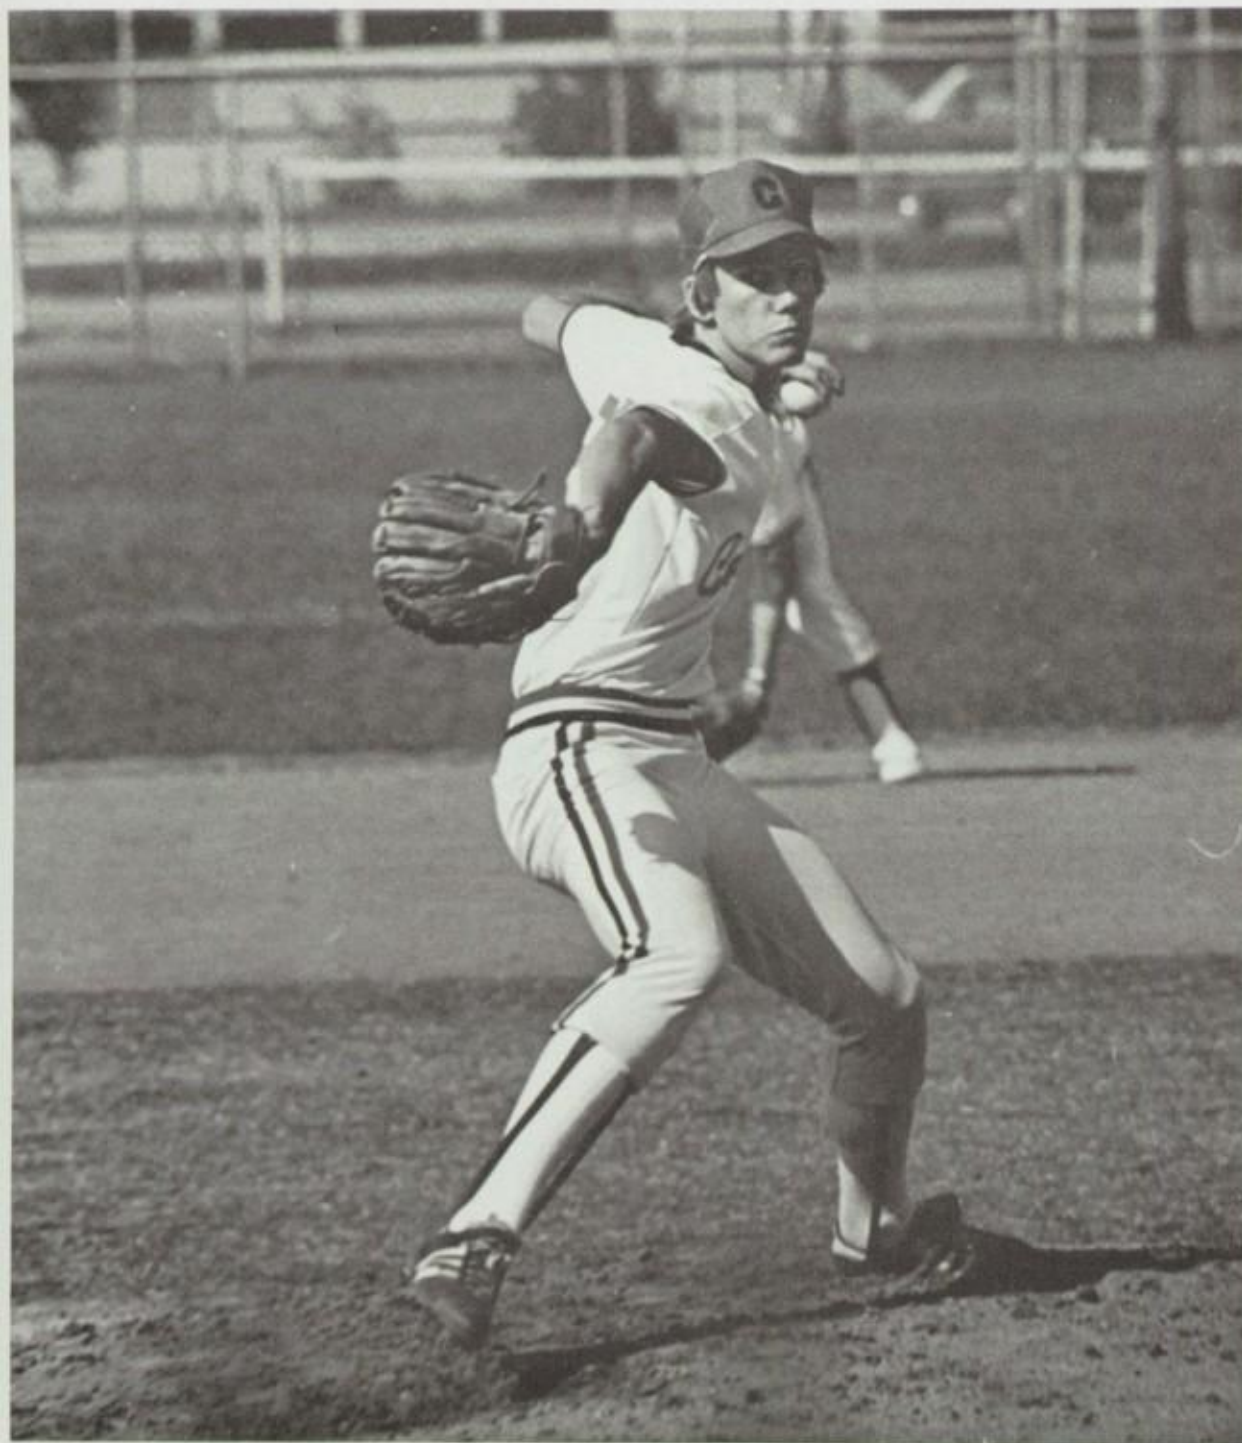

Kevin Reyer: Great catch Tim!

Mike Duncan: I hate putting on these shin guards.

Steve Yadloczky: I've got a no hitter going.

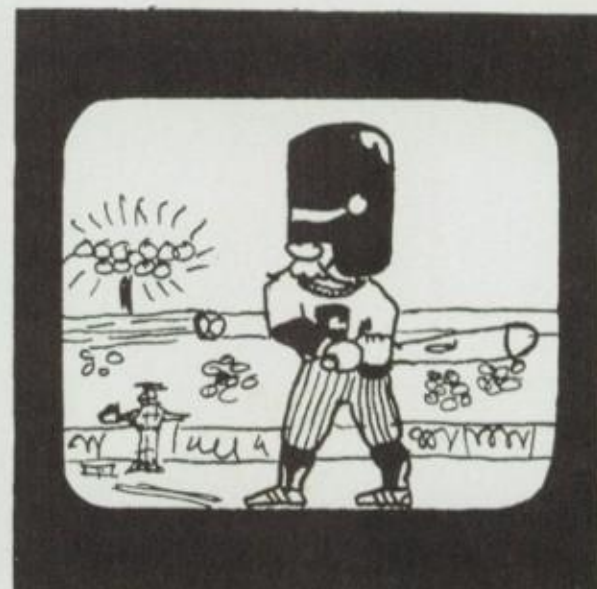

scene 32

JV BASEBALL

(A girl in the school cafeteria, has just walked back from the food lunch line, she sits down with friends ...)

You know, the food isn't too bad today. Those potatos and soyloaf were beginning to get to me though. Oh, by the way, congratulations on making J.V. baseball, Rick. I heard that they almost didn't have a J.V. team this year, is that true? That's awful, how come? Oh, I see. No coach. That problem has come up more than just once, hasn't it? That's what I thought. We must have a terrible shortage on coaches if we have problems like that.

How is practice going? Yea, we always seem to have a good baseball team. What's the difference between J.V. and $\frac{3}{4}$ Varsity anyway? I never thought of J.V. as a training ground for Varsity, but, when you really think about it, that's exactly what it is.

Bobby Martin: Another easy out.

Don Gagne: See if you can hit my fast ball!

Angie Holland: What a way to catch a grounder.

Angie Holland: What a throw, Jean!

scene 33

SOFTBALL

(The girl's softball team is practicing on the field, getting ready for a big season game.)

"Here it comes! It's a fly ball! I got it! I think I've really and truly got it . . . Oh no! I missed. What do you mean, why did I drop it?! I just broke my longest fingernail! I'm going to buy ten softball gloves, one for each finger! Besides, all my hair just flew in my face. I'm glad softball is a lot easier than boy's baseball! I'd get killed out on that field. I can remember when girls never thought of participating with boy's sports. Well, I'll show them how it is now! Let's try batting." (She approaches the homeplate) "A little of this sand ought to keep my hands from slipping. Ready? Pitch!" (Smack!) "Wow! I'd better run! That great hit must of flew over the Senior parking lot! First base, where are you? I'm so happy I could run around three times! Here comes a white plate up ahead. Here I come first base! What? How'd I get to home plate? I just ran a homerun! Oh wow, let me do it again, please?"

Linda Bourne: That's what you call style.

Tracy Heath: I'll swing it a few times before I bat.

Lisa Vaught: Hey, get ready over there.

Coach McLemore: This is my trophy.

Donna Haigh: Hey, coach! Quit loafing off.

Marlene Kirkland: If I miss this, it's only because the sun is in my eyes.

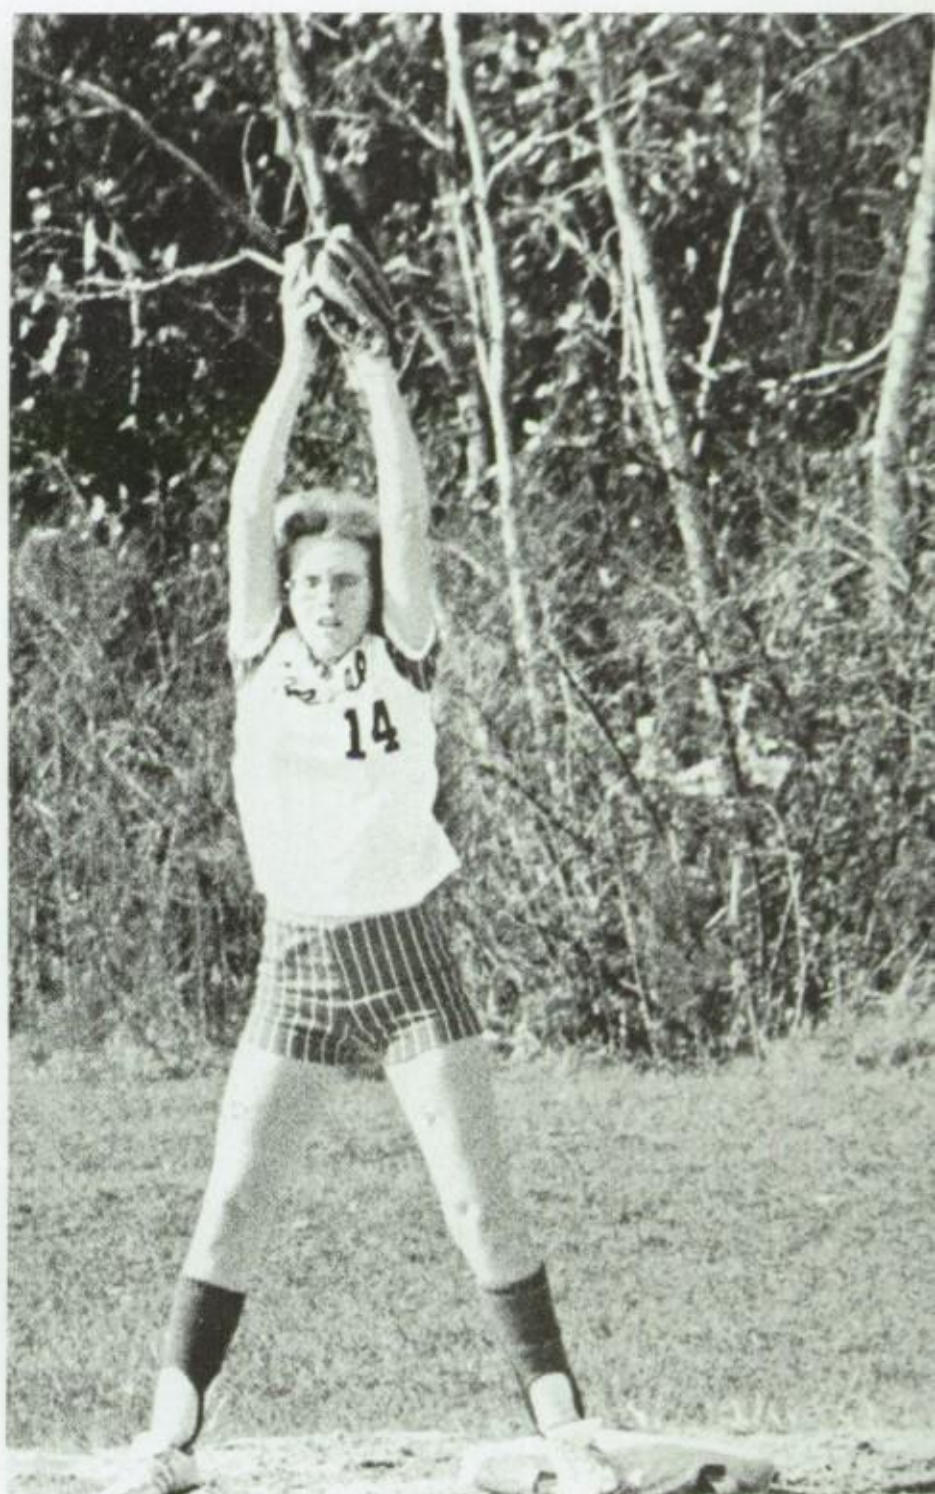

Tracy Heath: Catch this and we'll have a double play.

Linda Bourne: What a catch!

Linda Bourne: If you ask me these blocks are stupid.

Angie Holland: Caught this with my eyes closed.

Mike Matson: You had better watch where you stick that pin!

Richard Lief: Now this won't hurt a bit.

scene 34

ATHLETIC TRAINER

(Varsity football players are running back to the locker room after practice. Jeff is dragging behind.)

"Hey Danny, wait up! I sprained my ankle! Do you know how I spell relief? L-E-I-F. Coach Leif is the first and only trainer of the Orange County School System. This summer he is planning a 2 day clinic to teach students the basics of first aid and how to save lives. Speaking of first aid, I think I need some taping up!"

Richard Leif: This ought to keep your mouth shut!

A NOTE FROM THE EDITOR

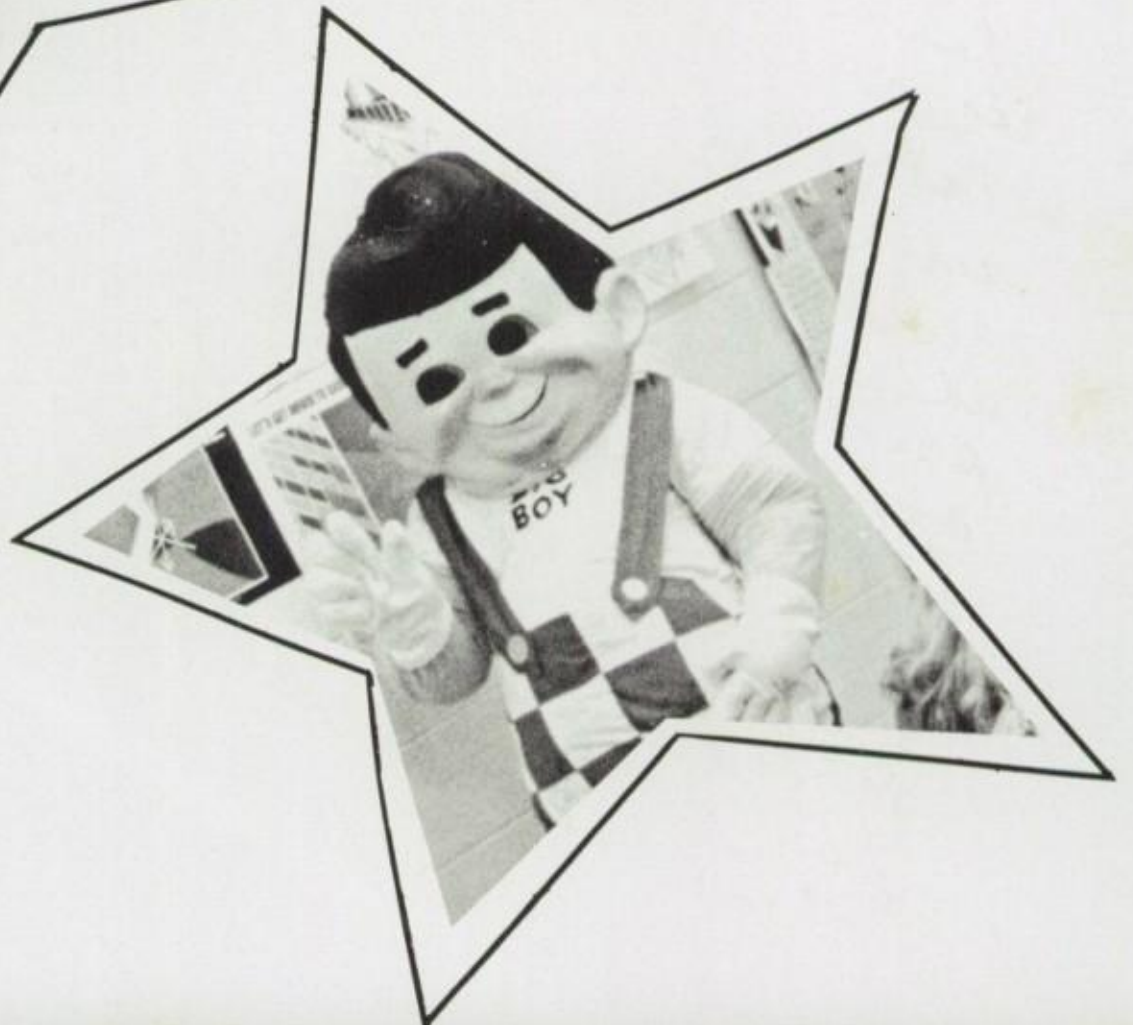

As Seniors, our last year at Colonial is drawing to a close. We're going into a world that is completely different than what the past twelve years have been. During our high school years we've been preparing for this. Our involvement has helped bring us to this student government. There is no going back. We can only remember our happy memories and learn from our mistakes. I hope we will make the best of them! Our Senior Staff put everything we had into this book, for you. And we're proud of it. I'm proud of "The Way We Were" and of my staff. Thank You for everything you've done and for giving me a chance.

Good Luck + Best Wishes!

RESERVED FOR ROBBIE MILLS

Rhonda,

Well, another year has almost finished and boy am I glad it is almost over! I am really glad I had the chance to meet and be friends with you. It's too bad we have to be friends in my worst class. This is not the only class I have trouble with. The other classes are 1, 2, 3, 4, 6. (HH) I hope you have a great summer up in New Hampshire. Why don't you stay up there? (just kidding. Don't hit me) I hope you have fun there. This summer I might go to Music Camp in Wisconsin or stay here and make some cash. I wish you the best of success in the future. I hope you will remember me as I will remember you. When I was down or mad you helped me have a better day. Take care of yourself and I will see you next year!

P.S. If Johnny reads this he will think we're married.

Love always,
Robert
Mills

Phonda, I'm really glad I met you this year and I hope we become better friends next year. Hope to have some class with you next year. Remember: cut it out at a peach isn't a peach, a plum isn't a plum, a kiss isn't a kiss unless you use your tongue! P.S. Good luck in everything! Sandy

Phonda
Now that I have started over again on the page I hope you had a great year. I hope you had fun having you in class. I hope you can take French IV in 11th and 12th grade. I just think you are an important part of class. I wish you all really were in the world. Have a wonderful summer the luck in the world.

Love ya
Rex Russell

Phonda
Good luck in the years to come
Richard Hare

Phonda,
It's been a great year. I'm so glad to have you in class. I hope you had a great year. I hope you had fun having you in class. I hope you can take French IV in 11th and 12th grade. I just think you are an important part of class. I wish you all really were in the world. Have a wonderful summer the luck in the world.

"You don't bring me flowers"
Rhonda.

it was nice getting to know you a little this year.
Bio. was a REAL Experience.
You're lucky to have such a sweet & sensitive boy on your hands!
Take care...

Love,
Heather
Crysler

THE WAY WE WERE

Rhonda,

you've been a great friend and a very smart
one too. probably the smartest one I know of.
well it's all most the end of the school year and I wish you, "many wishes." Hope to see ya next year. + Hope you and John get far in life.

Rhonda,
You've been a great friend. I hope to see ya next year. if I don't good luck with John. be good and stay out of trouble.

Your friend

Rhonda,

Love is a particular thing its like a lizard
it wraps his tail around your heart and crawls into your gizzard.

Have fun this summer and next year. Hope to see you.
always Karen

Rhonda-
I have been a pleasure working with you. I'm proud of you - you've worked hard & improved
alot. - Good luck

Rhonda, to all super friends.
I hope the luck in the next year's better than this one. I hope this was great. Good luck with Johnny. Kim Wook
